Plaintiff MONIQUE MCGRIFF, Parent and Natural Guardian of Minor, C.W., by their attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for their Verified Complaint herein, allege upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On January 18, 2022, at approximately 9:30 p.m., Plaintiff MONIQUE MCGRIFF, Parent and Natural Guardian of Minor, C.W., while lawfully in the vicinity of 2356 Lorillard Place, County of Bronx, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, and excessive use of force by defendant Police Officers. In addition, Plaintiff was subjected to assault and battery, was inflicted with a gunshot wound, and thereafter spent approximately one (1) week in unlawful custody by defendant officers at the 48th Precinct, Central Bookings, and Crossroads Juvenile Center before he could make bail and be released from custody. The Criminal Possession and Assault charges falsely made against him by defendant officers were dismissed and sealed on or around May 17, 2022. Plaintiff Minor C.W. was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law, and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, subjected to excessive force, assaulted, battered, and passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys against the Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

20. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

21. On January 18, 2022, at approximately 9:30 p.m., Plaintiff Minor C.W. was lawfully present in the vicinity of 2356 Lorillard Place in the Bronx, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

22. Plaintiff was on the sidewalk outside the aforementioned location with some friends when he observed several uniformed defendant officers walking towards them.

23. Defendant officer GJONBALAJ approached Plaintiff and told him he was going to frisk him.

24. During this encounter, Plaintiff's hands were above his head, as he was instructed to do by Defendant GJONBALAJ.

25. Defendant GJONBALAJ conducted the unlawful frisk and did not feel anything hard or anything he believed to be illegal.

26. Nevertheless, Defendant GJONBALAJ proceeded to unlawfully search Plaintiff when he unzipped Plaintiff's jacket and lifted up his sweatshirt.

27. Plaintiff asked the officers repeatedly, "why you all doing this?" but the Defendant officers ignored him.

28. Plaintiff, uncomfortable with the unlawful search, turned away from the Defendant officers.

29. As a result, several officers, including Defendant GJONBALAJ and Defendant PENNANT, tackled the Plaintiff and pushed the front side of Plaintiff's body into the back hood of a nearby car.

30. Almost instantly, a shot was fired, hitting Plaintiff on the inside of his leg.

31. The Plaintiff called out to the Defendant officers that he had been shot and to call his mother, but the officers remained on the scene with Plaintiff for several minutes afterward.

32. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have probable cause to stop Plaintiff in the first place.

33. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

34. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by the defendant officers without probable cause or legal justification, placed in the back of an unmarked NYPD vehicle, and transported to St. Barnabas Hospital.

35. At St. Barnabas, the Plaintiff was treated for a gunshot wound to his left leg, given x-rays, gauze, pain medication, and crutches.

36. Plaintiff was handcuffed to a bed by Defendant officers for the entirety of his hospital stay.

37. After an overnight stay in St. Barnabas, Plaintiff was transported against his will to the 48th Precinct, where he was processed and unlawfully placed in a holding cell, still handcuffed.

38. While at the precinct, Defendant officers transported the plaintiff two (2) more times back and forth to St. Barnabas hospital for further treatment for his gunshot wound, which was still causing him serious pain.

39. After approximately two (2) days in custody at the 48th Precinct, the Plaintiff was transferred to Bronx County Central Bookings.

40. While Plaintiff was in custody, the Defendant police officers provided the Bronx County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime; specifically, Criminal Possession of a Weapon and Assault.

41. Thereafter, the Plaintiff was arraigned in Bronx County Criminal Court, his bail was set at $200,000.00, and he was remanded to Crossroads Juvenile Center in Brooklyn, NY where he remained for several more days until he could make bail, after which he was finally released from custody.

42. During a March 8, 2022, retention hearing, the presiding judge stated on the record, "there was seemingly from the video, from the testimony, there was absolutely zero reason for any of those officers to approach this individual."

43. During this same hearing, the judge also stated, "[h]e literally kept his hands up. He literally tried to record it to make sure there was proof. He literally—he answered questions he had no obligation to answer. He was trying to get into his vehicle. He clicked it. He was opening the door and he was stopped. He literally did everything he was supposed to do. And somehow, we are here. Somehow, he is shot."

44. All charges against the Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on or around May 17, 2022.

45. As a result of this incident, the Plaintiff missed time from school, was cut from a major record label and had to return his advance, has undergone physical therapy and numerous tests and procedures, may require surgery for nerve damage, and has started taking prescription medication for anxiety and depression.

46. Several Defendant officers observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

47. The unlawful arrest, confinement, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological, and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

48. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

49. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

50. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers were unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by, among other things, negligently causing the gunshot wound to his leg.

51. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

52. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

54. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

55. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

56. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

57. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

58. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

59. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

60. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

61. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

62. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

63. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

64. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

65. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

66. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

67. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

68. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

69. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

70. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

71. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, seizing, tackling, and handcuffing the plaintiff, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

73. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

74. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

75. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

76. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

77. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

78. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

79. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

80. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

81. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously battered Plaintiff when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner, roughly grabbed the plaintiff and tackled him, brutally effecting an arrest of Plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.

82. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

83. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

84. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

85. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Malicious Prosecution

86. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

87. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.

88. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

89. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.

90. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

91. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

92. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff.

93. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

94. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

95. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

96. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

97. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training, and Supervision

98. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

99. The City of New York and its employees, servants, and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train, and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

100. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONFailure to Intervene

101. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

102. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

103. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

104. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered serious, debilitating, and permanent emotional and psychological injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear for his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

105. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

106. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

107. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

108. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights:*Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

109. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

110. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

111. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

112. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

113. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and a fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

114. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

115. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

116. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

117. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, physical, and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

118. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

119. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

120. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

121. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately one (1) week in total.

122. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully used excessive force against Plaintiff in connection with a search and seizure.

123. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured psychological and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

124. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

125. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

126. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

127. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

128. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, and thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

129. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured psychological and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

126. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

127. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

128. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

129. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

130. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

131. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately one (1) week.

132. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully used excessive force against Plaintiff in connection with a search and seizure.

133. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured psychological and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

134. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

135. Defendant Officers are “covered individuals,” as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

136. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

137. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

138. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

139. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

140. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, and thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

141. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical, psychological, and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

130. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

131. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of his person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

132. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, psychological, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

133. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, psychological, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

134. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

135. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff MONIQUE MCGRUFF, Parent and Natural Guardian of Minor, C.W., demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq.

ATTORNEY'S VERIFICATION

GABRIELLA OROZCO, ESQ. an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am an attorney of the law firm of SHULMAN-HILL PLLC, I have read the annexed VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters therein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters, I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, records, and other pertinent information contained in my files. The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiff is because Plaintiff does not reside in the county wherein, I maintain my office.
