19. On October 4, 2019, at approximately 7:17 PM, Plaintiff was at or near 7th Avenue. And West 120 Street, New York lawfully present in the area and otherwise not committing any offense or violation of the law.
20. Defendants, including POLICE OFFICER JOHN AND JANE DOE 1-4 approached the Plaintiff, ordered him to get against the wall without any explanation.

22. Plaintiff was, thereafter, handcuffed behind his back in an excessively tight manner.

26. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.
27. Defendants Police Officers John and Jane Doe 5-6 transported the Plaintiff to a 28th NYPD precinct.
28. After his arrest, Plaintiff, who suffers from medical conditions repeatedly requested appropriate medical attention.
29. Despite his numerous requests, Plaintiff, suffered high blood pressure, was denied appropriate and responsive care, and suffered convulsions.
30. Plaintiff's later received subsequent medical care.
31. The Defendants officers did not observe Plaintiff committing any crime or violating any law or local ordinance.
32. Defendants did not have probable cause or reasonable suspicion to detain or arrest Plaintiff.
33. Defendants searched Plaintiff's person without his authority or permission.
34. Plaintiff was unlawfully detained for approximately twenty-four hours before he was released hours before being arraigned in New York County Criminal Court.

35. The Defendants Officers, including Defendant Hernandez and Defendant Douglas falsely stated to the New York County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff had committed a crime despite knowing that they lacked a legal and a factual basis to allege that Plaintiff committed any crime.
36. The matter was resolved in Plaintiff's favor.
37. During all of the events described, Defendants acted maliciously, willfully, knowingly and with the specific intent to injure Plaintiff and violate his civil rights.
38. The force used by Defendants caused Plaintiff personal, physical, and emotional injuries for which he later sought medical treatment, and, extent of which are still unknown.
39. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants were involved in the decision to violate Plaintiff's civil rights, including falsely arresting Plaintiff, and failed to intervene in the actions of their fellow officers.
40. Several Defendants, who did not participate in the incident, but were otherwise present and observed the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights failed to intercede on Plaintiff's behalf.
41. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene in the actions of his fellow officers when they observed them arresting Plaintiff without probable cause.
42. As a result of his encounter with Defendants, Defendants seized and held onto his personal property.
43. The City has been on notice for more than a generation that brutality is widespread and that particular reforms need to be implemented. From reform-minded Commissioner Patrick Murphy to the Mollen Commission twenty-five years later, the City has been repeatedly cautioned that a systemic tolerance for brutality flourishes throughout the NYPD. Indeed, years before said violation was perpetrated upon Plaintiff, the Mollen Commission report noted, “This tolerance, or willful blindness, extends to supervisors as well. This is because many supervisors share the perception that nothing is really wrong with a bit of unnecessary force and because they believe that this is the only way to fight crime today.” Mollen Comm. Report, at 49; The City of New York Commission to Combat Police Corruption, passim.

44. The Defendants serving in the employee of the NYPD, and the City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently, and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by the Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, or without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, The City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors
45. The City of New York has a long-standing and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article entitled 2495 Reports of Police Bias. One was deemed valid by the NYPD worried that within the last five years almost 2,500 several individuals have filed formal complaint with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with biased towards them, would not one single being substantiated by the NYPD such a finding is playing the incredible and obviously the result of a deliberately poor or non-existent investigatory protocol the report commitment to combat the prejudices and the bias is exhibited by many of his officers.

46. Upon information and belief, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the City that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause
47. Upon information and belief, the city of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reason suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.
48. Defendant's actions, pursuant to plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval by the policymakers or supervisors of the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the right of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such makers deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers were supervisors of the city of New York.
49. Upon information and belief further details and facts relating to the unlawful policies customs or patterns and practices of the City of New York and their respective policymakers supervisors police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of Discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, and the City of New York
50. Upon information and belief, the personal files, records and disciplinary histories of the officers Defendants will reveal a history of constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's, knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as peace officers, or poor employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendant committed similar violations in the future was extremely high.

51. Upon information and belief said personnel files records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the city was fully aware of Defendant's past constitutional violations, unacceptably high probability for the reoccurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as Law Enforcement Officers, or for employment in general, and did not engage in any preventative or corrective action in the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the city of tacit approval of such misconduct or the city's deliberate indifference towards civil rights of those who may interact with employees including Plaintiff
52. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of Defendants, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violation of his rights pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, economic loss, loss of property, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
