-----X
The plaintiff, Dante Daniels, by his attorneys, The Law Office of Jeffrey L. Emdin, complaining of the defendants, respectfully shows to this court and alleges:

1. Upon information and belief, that at all times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant, The City of New York, hereinafter referred to as "City", was, and still is, a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under, and by virtue of, the laws of the State of New York.

2. Upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant, the City of New York, i.e. "City", its agents, servants and/or employees operated, maintained and controlled the New York City Police Department, hereinafter referred to as "NYPD", including all the police officers therein.

3. Upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned and on the 13th day of August, 2021, Police Officer John S. Miglaccio, hereinafter referred to as "Miglaccio" was employed as a Police Officer by the "City" and/or "NYPD" and assigned to PSA #7, and at all relevant times set forth below acted in the capacity of a police officer. His shield number is 25698.

4. Upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned and on the 13th day of August, 2021, Miglaccio was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer and under the direction of the "City" as their agent, servant and/or employee, and required to follow the Patrol Guidelines of the New York City Police Department, then in effect.

5. Upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned, and on the 13th day of August, 2021, Police Officer Nestor Amarantepolanco, hereinafter referred to as "Amarantepolanco" or "Polanco" was employed as a Police Officer by the "City" and/or "NYPD" and assigned to PSA #7, and at all relevant times set forth below, acted in the capacity of a police officer. Upon information and belief his shield number is 16064.

6. Upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned and on the 13th day of August, 2021, Amarantepolanco was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer and under the direction of the "City" as their agent, servant and/or servant, and required to follow the Patrol Guidelines of the New York City Police Department, then in effect.

7. Upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned, and on the 13th day of August, 2021, Police Officer Jayther Liriano, hereinafter referred to as "Liriano" was employed as a Police Officer by the "City" and/or "NYPD" and assigned to PSA #7, and at all relevant times set forth below, acted in the capacity of a police officer. Upon information and belief, his shield number is 27634.

8. Upon information and belief, at all times hereinafter mentioned and on the 31st day of July, 2021, Liriano was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer and under the direction of the "City" as their agent, servant and/or servant, and required to follow the Patrol Guidelines of the New York City Police Department, then in effect.

9. Upon information and belief, Police Officers John/Jane "Does" #1-#10, hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Does", were each employed as New York City Police Officers on August 13, 2021, assigned to PSA #7, and at all times acted within the scope of his/her employment with the "City" and/or "NYPD". They are each sued in their individual capacity as their true identities are currently unknown.

10. On the 13th day of August, 2021, plaintiff, Dante Daniels, hereinafter referred to as "Daniels" and/or "plaintiff", was a resident of the State of New York, County of Bronx.

11. That on August 13, 2021 at approximately 11:30 p.m., the plaintiff, Daniels, was lawfully in the vicinity of the Forest Housing Project, located between 165th/166th Streets and Tinton Avenue, Bronx County, hereinafter referred to as "the location".

12. At that time, place and location other civilians were also present.

13. At that time and location, Miglaccio, Amarantepolanco and Liriano and the "Does", hereinafter collectively referred to as the "officers" were on duty as New York City Police Officers and present at the location.

14. The plaintiff was not engaged in any criminal activity at any time at the aforementioned date, time and location.

15. Upon information and belief, at the aforementioned time and place, one or more of the officers were present and involved in an unrelated police activity involving a person by the name of "Shawn".

16. Upon information and belief, many of the individuals present at the location were objecting to the excessive use of force by the NYPD police officers on Shawn, which resulted in the use of pepper spray/mace on a number of individuals present. Additional officers arrived at the location.

17. Officers began chasing people that were present and in the vicinity of Forest Housing Projects, including the plaintiff.

18. The plaintiff was grabbed, thrown to the ground and jumped on by several of the "officers". He was struck in the head, body and limbs, causing injury. Officers placed their knees on the plaintiff's body and ground the plaintiff's face and body into the street.

19. Police Officers handcuffed the plaintiff, and bent his body in half, attempting to bring his feet towards the back of his head.

20. The plaintiff was arrested and brought to a police vehicle in his underpants, his pants having fallen down his body during the assault, causing him further embarrassment. The plaintiff was transported to the 42nd Pct, and thereafter transported to PSA-7.

21. The plaintiff was placed in a holding cell, and fell sick to the floor inside PDA 7.

22. The plaintiff was transported to Bronx Lebanon Hospital in handcuffs and leg shackles.

23. The plaintiff was treated and released at Bronx Lebanon and then transported back to PSA-7, again in shackles and handcuffs.

24. The plaintiff was held in custody until his arraignment on August 15, 2021.

25. The plaintiff was falsely charged with having committed the crimes of Penal Law 120.05, 120.00, 265.01, 195.65 and 240.26..

26. Amarantepolanco signed the Criminal Court Complaint as the arresting officer, which was used to prosecute the plaintiff.

27. Upon information and belief, Liriano falsely accused the plaintiff of punching him in the face.

28. Upon information and belief, Migliaccio falsely accused the plaintiff of throwing glass bottles, causing glass shards to strike him, including in the eye.

29. Based on those false representations, the plaintiff's bail was set at $75,000.00 and plaintiff was held in custody and transported to Rikers Island, where he remained until approximately August 17, 2021.

30. Due to the false and malicious prosecution of the plaintiff, he was required to attend multiple court appearances.

31. All criminal charges were dismissed against the plaintiff on March 14, 2022.

32. Upon information and belief, before this incident, Miglaccio was the subject of 16 allegations of abuse and misconduct filed with the CCRB arising from six (6) separate incidents. He also was sued at least two (2) times.

33. Upon information and belief, at least eight (8) complaints filed with the CCRB were substantiated, including but not limited to: abuse of authority, force with nightsticks and pepper spray, and discourtesy.

34. Upon information and belief, Miglaccio's erratic behavior and acts of violence were known to the "City" and "NYPD" prior to August 13, 2021.

35. Upon information and belief, Amarantepolanco was the subject of at least two (2) lawsuits prior to this incident alleging police misconduct.

36. Upon information and belief, Amarantepolanco's erratic behavior and acts of violence were known to the "City" and "NYPD" prior to August 13, 2021.

37. Upon information and belief the "officers" participated in the conspiracy to file said false reports, and to have the plaintiff falsely charged and prosecuted for crimes that they knew that plaintiff did not commit.

38. That at all relevant times herein, the Defendants were on duty and the defendants were all acting within the scope of their employment, and the defendants' unlawful acts were committed in furtherance of the City of New York's interests, and without legal justification or excuse

39. That notice of the plaintiff's claim and notice of intention to sue for damages, the nature of the claim and the date of, the time when, the place where and the manner in which the claim arose were timely and duly served upon the comptroller of the defendant "City".

40. That a 50(h) hearing of the plaintiff was held on June 9, 2022. That more than 30 days have elapsed since the notice of claim and intention to sue has been served upon the defendants and the said defendants have neglected or refused to make any adjustment or payment thereof.

41. That this action is commenced within one year and 90 days after the cause of action arose.

42. It is hereby alleged, pursuant to CPLR 1603, that this action is exempt from the operation of CPLR 1601 from the operation of CPLR 1601, by reason of one or more of the exemptions provided in CPLR 1602.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
FOR FALSE IMPRISONMENT AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

43. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "42" with the same force and effect as if more fully and at length set forth herein.

44. That beginning on or about the 13th day of August, 2021, at or about approximately 11:30 p.m., at or near the "location" until the plaintiff's arraignment on August 15, 2021, the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees detained and imprisoned the plaintiff without any just cause or grounds.

45. That Daniels' imprisonment was caused by the defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, without any warrant or other legal process, and without authority of the law and without any reasonable grounds, or cause to believe that the plaintiff was guilty of any crimes for which he was charged.

46. Daniels was wholly innocent of all criminal charges and did not contribute in any way or manner to his arrest and imprisonment by the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, and was forced to submit to the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment entirely against his will.

47. That the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, as set forth above, intended to confine the plaintiff; the plaintiff was conscious of the confinement; he did not consent to the confinement; and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

48. That all said conduct was committed by the defendants within the scope of their employment with the City of New York and/or the New York City Police Department.

49. That by reason of the aforesaid false imprisonment and detention, Daniels was subjected to great indignity, humiliation, pain, suffering and loss of freedom and the said plaintiff has been otherwise damaged.

50. That by reason of the aforesaid, Daniels has been damaged in an amount exceeding the jurisdictional limits of the lower courts.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
FOR FALSE ARREST AGAINST THE NAMED DEFENDANTS

51. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "50" with the same force and effect as if more fully and at length set forth herein.

52. That beginning on or about the 13th day of August, 2021, at or about approximately 4:30 a.m. at the "location", the plaintiff, was seized, handcuffed and placed under arrest by the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees without any just cause or grounds, and held against his will under full force of arms.

53. That said arrest was caused by the defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, without any warrant or other legal process and without authority of the law and without any reasonable grounds, when the defendants lacked cause to believe that Daniels committed, or was about to commit a crime or was guilty of any crimes.

54. Plaintiff was wholly innocent of all criminal charges and did not contribute in any way or manner to his arrest and imprisonment by the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, and was forced to submit to the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment entirely against his will.

55. That the defendants, their agents servants and/or employees, as set forth above, intended to arrest Daniels; that the plaintiff was conscious of the arrest and confinement; the Plaintiff did not consent to the arrest and confinement; and the arrest was not otherwise privileged.

56. That all said conduct was committed by the defendant officers was within the scope of their employment with the City of New York and/or the New York City Police Department.

57. That by reason of the aforesaid false arrest, the plaintiff, Daniels was subjected to great indignity, humiliation, stress and loss of freedom and the said plaintiff has been otherwise damaged.

58. That by reason of the aforesaid, Daniels has been damaged in an amount exceeding the jurisdictional limits of the lower courts.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
FOR ASSAULT AND BATTERY AGAINST THE DEFENDANTS

59. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "58" with the same force and affect as if more fully and at length set forth herein.

60. On August 13, 2021 at the location Daniels was seized, thrown to the ground, grabbed, held, kneed, struck, handcuffed, had his limbs violently pulled back and upward, threatened and physically touched by the defendant, "City", and the "NYPD" its agents/servants, and/or employees, including defendant "officers". Daniels was also searched and later shackled by the defendants.

61. That all said contact was committed without the plaintiff's permission or consent.

62. That all said contact was unlawful and without privilege.

63. That the use of force was without justification.

64. That all contact committed by defendants through their agents, servants, and/or employees, including defendant officers, was offensive to Daniels and caused him to fear further contact and imminent harm, and caused plaintiff to sustain physical and/or emotional trauma.

65. That all said conduct was committed by the officers was within the scope of their employment with the City of New York and/or the New York City Police Department.

66. That the above acts committed by the defendants constituted an assault and/or battery of the plaintiff.

67. That by reason of the aforesaid, plaintiff has been damaged in a sum exceeding the jurisdictional limits of lower courts.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION FOR EXCESSIVE USE OF FORCE AND FAILURE TO INTERVENE AND MITIGATE

68. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "67" with the same force and affect as if more fully and at length set forth herein.

69. That all the aforementioned contact committed by the officers was committed without Daniels's permission or consent.

70. That all said contact was unlawful and without privilege.

71. That the use of force was without justification.

72. That the use of force was excessive and beyond the means necessary to control Daniels and/or effectuate his arrest.

73. At no time did any of the officers present intervene, stop, mitigate or prevent the excessive use of force from occurring, although they were present and had the means to do so.

74. That all contact committed by defendants through their agents, servants, and/or employees, including defendants "officers", was offensive to the plaintiff and caused him to fear further contact and imminent harm, and caused plaintiff Daniels to sustain physical and/or psychological injury.

75. That the above acts committed by the defendants constituted an assault and/or battery through the use of excessive force of Daniels.

76. That by reason of the aforesaid, plaintiff has been damaged in a sum exceeding the jurisdictional limits of lower courts.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION:
ALLEGING VIOLATIONS OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS
UNDER 42 U.S.C. SECTIONS 1983 AND 1988 BY THE CITY AND EACH POLICE OFFICER IN HIS INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY AND AS AGENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, PLAINTIFF ALLEGES:

77. That plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "76" with the same force and effect as if more fully and at length set forth herein.

78. That at all times hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, the defendant “Miglaccio” was employed by the defendant The City of New York and/or The New York City Police Department and was acting under the color of his official capacity and his acts were performed under the color of the policies, statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations of the City of New York.

79. That at all times hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, the defendant Miglaccio was acting pursuant to orders and directives from defendant, The City of New York.

80. That at all times hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, the defendant “Amarantepolanco” was employed by the defendant The City of New York and/or The New York City Police Department and was acting under the color of his official capacity and his acts were performed under the color of the policies, statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations of the City of New York.

81. That at all times hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, the defendant Amarantepolanco was acting pursuant to orders and directives from defendant, The City of New York.

82. That at all times hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, the defendant “Liriano” was employed by the defendant The City of New York and/or The New York City Police Department and was acting under the color of his official capacity and his acts were performed under the color of the policies, statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations of the City of New York.

83. That at all times hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, the defendant Liriano was acting pursuant to orders and directives from defendant, The City of New York.

84. That during all times hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, the defendants Miglaccio, Amarantepolanco and Liriano, individually, and/or collectively with others acted under color and pretense of law, to wit: under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, customs and usages of The City of New York and/or New York City Police Department, and engaged in the illegal conduct set forth this complaint to the injury of the plaintiff, and deprived him of the rights, privileges and immunities secured to him by the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and the laws of the United States, and State of New York and/or 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and/or 1988.

85. That at all times hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, the defendant “officers” were employed by the defendant The City of New York and/or The New York City Police Department and was acting under the color of his official capacity and his/their acts were performed under the color of the policies, statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations of the City of New York.

86. That at all times hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned, the defendant “officers” were acting pursuant to orders and directives from defendant, The City of New York.

87. That the “City” knew of the improper, unconstitutional and/or illegal police practices of Miglaccio prior to August 13, 2021 and yet continued to employ and promote Miglaccio without any discipline and/or retraining and placed him in a position of command where other officers would follow his lead to the detriment of civilian’s rights.

88. That the “City” knew of the improper, unconstitutional and/or illegal police practices of Amarantepolanco prior to August 13, 2021 and yet continued to employ and promote Amarantepolanco without any discipline and/or retraining and placed him in a position of command where other officers would follow his lead to the detriment of civilian’s rights.

89. That the “City” knew of the improper, unconstitutional and/or illegal police practices of “Liriano” prior to August 13, 2021 and yet continued to employ and promote Liriano without any discipline and/or retraining and placed him in a position of command where other officers would follow his lead to the detriment of civilian’s rights.

90. Upon information and belief, this practice of retention of “bad” officers was not unique to Miglaccio, Amarantepolanco and/or Lirianond was a practice adopted by the defendant City and/or the NYPD, and/or was treated with deliberate indifference by the City and/or NYPD.

91. In a New York Times article published November 15, 2020 titled A Watchdog Accused Officers of Serious Misconduct: Few were Punished, by Ashley Southall, Daniels Watkins and Blacki Miglozzi, it reported that of the 6,900 misconduct charges recommended over the highest level of discipline was recommend, the NYPD ignored 71% of the recommendations and routinely downgraded the charges. This included only two of the 28 recommended charges since the current police commissioner Dermot Shea has been in charge of the NYPD.

92. The Times article found after reviewing charges brought against 3,188 officers that the Police Department followed the Review Board's recommendations less than 20 percent of the time; that fewer than one in five officers received punishment ranging in severity from 1 lost day vacation to 12 months of dismissal probation; that just seven officers were fired (and only after being convicted of a crime in court); and that many officers had multiple findings against them, but continued to be promoted.

93. It is in this atmosphere, which was created, permitted or acted upon with deliberate indifference by the City, which allowed the constitutional violations of Daniels to occur and permitted the defendant officers to act with impunity.

94. That the unlawful and illegal conduct of defendant officers deprived plaintiff of the following rights, privileges and immunities secured to him by the Constitution of the United States and of the State of New York:

- i. The right of plaintiff to be secure in his person and effects against unreasonable search and seizure under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States; and,
- ii. The right not to be discriminated against based upon the plaintiff's race, creed, sex, or sexual orientation.
- iii. The right to Due Process Law.
- iv. The right to equal protection under the law.
- v. The right not to be subjected to cruel and unusual punishment
- vi. The right to freedom of speech and expression

95. That by reason of the aforesaid violations, use of force, use of arbitrary, excessive force, seizure of plaintiff's person, his false arrest and false imprisonment, assault and battery, excessive use of force, falsifying evidence, malicious prosecution, and conspiracy to commit the above, the defendants, "City", "Miglaccio, Amarantepolanco and/or Liriano violated Daniels' rights and privileges as provided to him in the Constitution of the United States of America, and provided to him in the Constitution of the State of New York, and laws thereto, "the officers" and violated 42 U.S.C. §1983 and/or 1988.

96. That by reason of the aforesaid, plaintiff was injured in mind and body, still suffers and upon information and belief, will continue to suffer great physical and mental pain.

97. That by reason of the aforesaid, plaintiff has been damaged in a sum of exceeding the jurisdiction of the lower courts, and seeks compensatory damages, plus, punitive damages (against Miglaccio, Amarantepolanco and Liriano), costs, attorney's fees, expert fees, as set forth and provided by 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and such other relief as to the court may seem just and proper on the sixth cause of action.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION FOR MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

98. That plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked "1" through "97" with the same force and effect as if more fully and at length set forth herein.

99. That the defendants initiated a criminal case against the plaintiff in Criminal Court, New York County.

100. That there was no reasonable or probable cause to commence the prosecution against the plaintiff.

101. That in commencing the arrest and prosecution, the defendants acted with malice and disregard for the truth.

102. Plaintiff was at all times innocent of the crimes alleged.

103. That all criminal charges against the plaintiff were dismissed on March 14, 2022.

104. That by reason of the aforesaid malicious prosecution, Daniels was subjected to great indignity, humiliation, pain, suffering and loss of freedom and the said plaintiff has been otherwise damaged.

105. That by reason of the aforesaid, Daniels has been damaged in an amount exceeding the jurisdictional limits of the lower courts

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants in a sum to be determined by the trier of fact, plus costs, attorney's fees, punitive damages (on the fifth cause of action) and such other and further relief as to the Court seems just and proper on the First through the Sixth causes of action.
