

CCRB INVESTIGATIVE RECOMMENDATION

Investigator: Volha Shauchenka	Team: Squad #08	CCRB Case #: 201509282	☒ Force	☐ Discourt.	☐ U.S.
			☐ Abuse	☐ O.L.	☒ Injury
Incident Date(s) Wednesday, 10/21/2015 7:30 PM	Location of Incident: In front of § 87(2)(b)	18 Mo. SOL 4/21/2017	Precinct: 110
Date/Time CV Reported Wed, 10/21/2015 10:50 PM	CV Reported At: IAB	How CV Reported: Phone	Date/Time Received at CCRB Fri, 10/30/2015 12:44 PM

Complainant/Victim	Type	Home Address
§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)

Witness(es)	Home Address
§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)

Subject Officer(s)	Shield	TaxID	Command
1. DT3 Angelo Pampena	4413	944874	GANG Q
2. DT3 Robert Carbone	2615	945552	GANG Q
3. An officer			Unknown
4. POM Christophe Musa	09064	952040	110 PCT
5. Officers			Multiple

Witness Officer(s)	Shield No	Tax No	Cmd Name
1. SGT David Rodriguez	04063	939334	GANG Q
2. DT3 Jared Rothschild	4298	931105	GANG QN
3. DT3 Kimberly Daly	02566	932512	GANG QN
4. DT3 David Chin	4303	944433	GANG QN
5. SGT Minh Tran	00750	929274	110 PCT

Officer(s)	Allegation	Investigator Recommendation
A . DT3 Angelo Pampena	Force: Detective Angelo Pampena used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
B . DT3 Angelo Pampena	Force: Detective Angelo Pampena used a chokehold against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
C . DT3 Angelo Pampena	Force: Detective Angelo Pampena used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
D . DT3 Robert Carbone	Force: Detective Robert Carbone used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
E . POM Christophe Musa	Force: Police Officer Christopher Musa used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
F . POM Christophe Musa	Force: Police Officer Christopher Musa used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
G . Officers	Force: Officers used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
H . DT3 Angelo Pampena	Force: Detective Angelo Pampena restricted § 87(2)(b) breathing.	§ 87(2)(b)
I . DT3 Angelo Pampena	Force: Detective Angelo Pampena used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
J . An officer	Force: An officer used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)

Case Summary

On October 30, 2015, Sgt. David Rodriguez of Queens Gang filed this complaint on behalf of § 87(2)(b) with IAB over the telephone, generating original log § 87(2)(b).

On October 21, 2015, at approximately 7:30 p.m., in front of § 87(2)(b) in Queens, Det. Angelo Pampena and Det. Robert Carbone, both of whom were assigned to Queens Gang at the time of the incident, stopped the vehicle in which § 87(2)(b) was an occupant. Det. Pampena attempted to remove § 87(2)(b) from his car by pulling on the collar of his clothing (Allegation A: Force, § 87(2)(g)). Det. Pampena then allegedly placed § 87(2)(b) in a chokehold (Allegation B: Force, § 87(2)(g)). Det. Pampena punched § 87(2)(b) several times and kicked him once, while Det. Carbone kicked § 87(2)(b) four to six times (Allegations C and D: Force, § 87(2)(g)). PO Christopher Musa of the 110th Precinct, who currently holds the rank of a sergeant, arrived on the scene as back-up along with other uniformed officers. PO Musa punched § 87(2)(b) on his left cheek while he was still in the car (Allegation E: Force, § 87(2)(g)). Next, PO Musa with the assistance of other officers, pulled § 87(2)(b) out of the car (Allegations F and G: Force, § 87(2)(g)). During that process, Det. Pampena allegedly dragged § 87(2)(b) by his collar, which restricted his breathing (Allegation H: Force, § 87(2)(g)). Det. Pampena then allegedly threw § 87(2)(b) to the ground (Allegation I: Force, § 87(2)(g)). After that, an unidentified officer allegedly stomped on the back of § 87(2)(b) head (Allegation J: Force, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(2)(b) was ultimately arrested and charged with obstructing governmental administration, resisting arrest, criminal possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree, disorderly conduct, parking within 15 feet of the fire hydrant, and driving with obstructed view. All charges were subsequently dismissed.

Six video clips from surveillance cameras installed in the vicinity of the incident were obtained by the investigation [BR 03 – 08, Originals].

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Force: Detective Angelo Pampena used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that on October 21, 2015, at approximately 7:30 p.m., in front of § 87(2)(b) in Queens, Det. Pampena and Det. Carbone stopped the vehicle in which § 87(2)(b) was an occupant. The circumstances that preceded the vehicle stop are in question. In § 87(2)(b) arrest report and Criminal Court Complaint, Det. Pampena noted that § 87(2)(b) was blocking the fire hydrant and was stopped directly in front of it, which was later determined to be inaccurate based on the video footage [NYPD 26, BR 02]. Subsequently, Det. Pampena was arrested and charged with offering a false instrument for filing in the first degree, perjury in the second degree, and official misconduct in regards to the reason for § 87(2)(b) car stop [NYPD 06]. Although Det. Pampena was acquitted of all the charges at his criminal trial, allegations of perjury, false statement and official misconduct against him were substantiated by IAB, who conducted a concurrent investigation of the incident under the original log § 87(2)(b) [NYPD 07, 08]. During their IAB and CCRB interviews, Det. Pampena stated the other reason for § 87(2)(b) vehicle stop was an odor of marijuana emanating from § 87(2)(b) car [BR 51, 52, 55, 56]. Due to the circumstances described above, a vehicle stop allegation is not being discussed in this case.

§ 87(2)(b) claimed he had been stopped by various NYPD officers at least 20 times following that incident and attributed this incident to his interaction with § 87(2)(b). Both Det. Carbone and Det. Pampena denied having any knowledge of § 87(2)(b) prior to their encounter on October 21, 2015.

In his verified statement to the CCRB, § 87(2)(b) stated that Det. Pampena and Det. Carbone approached his car on the driver and the front passenger side, respectively, without identifying themselves [BR 01]. Det. Pampena asked for § 87(2)(b) identification stating § 87(2)(b) was parked in front of a fire hydrant. § 87(2)(b) refused to provide his identification, and both officers asked for it at least two more times. Approximately two minutes into the incident, § 87(2)(b) called 911 because he feared for his safety and reported to the operator that he was being harassed. While § 87(2)(b) was still on the phone with 911, Det. Pampena opened the front driver's door, which was unlocked, grabbed § 87(2)(b) by the collar of his uniform and started pulling him out. Det. Carbone opened the front passenger door and attempted to assist his partner, but § 87(2)(b) moved his hand to avoid contact with Det. Carbone. Neither officer had instructed § 87(2)(b) to exit the car prior to attempting to remove him. § 87(2)(b) CCRB statement in regards to this part of the incident was consistent § 87(2)(b) and testimony to IAB [BR 13, 38].

In his testimony to the CCRB, Det. Pampena stated that § 87(2)(b) yelled, "Why the fuck are you stopping me? This is fucking bullshit," as soon as he saw the officers. The officers did not tell § 87(2)(b) that he was being stopped yet but Det. Carbone identified himself. As the officers were exiting their car and approaching § 87(2)(b) he continued yelling profanities at them. Det. Pampena told § 87(2)(b) the officers just wanted to check his documentation since he was behind the wheel of a running vehicle. § 87(2)(b) refused to provide his identification and continued cursing at the officers. § 87(2)(b) was also recording the incident on one phone, and was calling 911 on his other phone. § 87(2)(b) failed to provide his identification and made another 911 call stating the officers were assaulting him. After that, Det. Pampena made the decision to arrest § 87(2)(b) for refusing to provide his identification and possession of marijuana since he observed marijuana crumbs inside § 87(2)(b) car. Det. Pampena opened the driver's door, grabbed § 87(2)(b) by his left arm, shoulder, and collar, and attempted to pull him out. § 87(2)(b) resisted by holding on to the steering wheel. Det. Pampena then got further into the car and grabbed § 87(2)(b) by his torso to pull him out. However, since § 87(2)(b) feet were in the footwell, Det. Pampena was unsuccessful. Both officers were continuously telling § 87(2)(b) to get out of the vehicle and to stop resisting. Det. Pampena's CCRB testimony was largely consistent with his statement to IAB [BR 51].

Det. Carbone was largely consistent with Det. Pampena in his statement to the CCRB apart from the following details [BR 56]. Det. Carbone stated he was the first to ask for § 87(2)(b) identification, after which § 87(2)(b) started yelling at the officers and refused to provide his identification. The officers eventually told § 87(2)(b) they stopped him because they smelled marijuana and continued asking for his identification. § 87(2)(b) demeanor did not change after an explanation was provided to him and he continued yelling and refusing to provide his documentation. After approximately four minutes of unsuccessfully attempting to obtain § 87(2)(b) identification, Det. Pampena attempted to pull § 87(2)(b) out of the car after telling him to step out and him refusing. Although the officers did not discuss whether § 87(2)(b) was under arrest at that point, Det. Carbone believed he was for obstructing governmental administration and refusing to provide his identification. Det. Carbone's testimony was consistent with his statement to IAB [BR 52].

According to the 911 call recording associated with NYPD Event § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) was yelling and asking the officers why they stopped him [NYPD 02]. One of the officers explained he was stopped for parking in front of the fire hydrant and asked for his identification. § 87(2)(b) was yelling continuously and an officer is heard telling him he was escalating the situation.

Surveillance video footage attached to IA 114 depicts the beginning of the car stop at 1:23 (18:22 original time stamp) [BR 04]. Based on the video footage attached to IA115, the officers have been talking to § 87(2)(b) for four minutes before Det. Pampena opens the car door and leans inside at 2:17 (18:44 original time stamp) [BR 05]. As Det. Pampena is attempting to pull § 87(2)(b) out, Det. Carbone attempts to assist him through the front passenger window before walking around the car towards Det. Pampena.

A person is guilty of obstructing governmental administration when he/she intentionally prevents a public servant from executing their official function. NY Penal Law §195.05 [BR 57]. According to People v. Hensen, 21 AD3d 172 [1st Dept 2005], an officer may direct a driver of the vehicle to step out of the car out of a concern for their safety even if they lack a specific reason to believe the person is in possession of a weapon [BR 58]. As per NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01, an officer may use force when it is reasonable to place a person in custody or to prevent escape from custody [BR 59].

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) refused to provide his identification several times after both detectives requested for it, § 87(2)(g). Moreover, video evidence indicates that the detectives spoke to § 87(2)(b) for at least four minutes before Det. Pampena attempted to remove § 87(2)(b) from the car. § 87(2)(g) Finally, both detectives also testified that by the time § 87(2)(b) was being removed from the car, he was considered under arrest. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (B) Force: Detective Angelo Pampena used a chokehold against § 87(2)(b)

It is disputed whether Det. Pampena placed § 87(2)(b) in a chokehold. § 87(2)(b) alleged in his CCRB testimony that after Det. Pampena started pulling him out, he wrapped his forearm and bicep around § 87(2)(b) neck and placed him in a chokehold [BR 01]. After § 87(2)(b) breathing was restricted for 10-15 seconds, he tucked his chin to alleviate the pressure. Det. Pampena retained the chokehold for less than one minute. § 87(2)(b) did not alert Det. Pampena of his trouble breathing since he believe the detective was doing so intentionally. § 87(2)(b) did not make this allegation neither to IAB § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)

Det. Pampena denied placing § 87(2)(b) in a chokehold at any point during the incident [BR 55]. He did not testify about this to IAB since this allegation was not brought up during their investigation [BR 51]. Det. Pampena was not charged with any strangulation-related crimes during his criminal trial either [NYPD 06].

Det. Carbone denied observing his partner restrict § 87(2)(b) breathing in any way [BR 56]. However, he was outside the car during the time the alleged occurred.

§ 87(2)(b) the only civilian witness present during the incident did not observe any allegations [BR 03].

The video footage is not clear enough to determine what actions Det. Pampena took inside the car shortly after the attempts to remove § 87(2)(b) were initiated [BR 02, 03].

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (C) Force: Detective Angelo Pampena used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (D) Force: Detective Robert Carbone used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

It is not disputed that Det. Pampena punched and kicked § 87(2)(b) however, whether Det. Carbone did so, is in question.

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that he was kicked and punched several times on the left side of his body and face [BR 01]. He initially was unable to see which officer did that but when he turned, he observed Det. Carbone kicking him directly into his face, striking his mouth area four to six times, while Det. Pampena continued pulling § 87(2)(b) out by his collar.

§ 87(2)(b) medical records from § 87(2)(b) Hospital § 87(2)(b) note that he had abrasions to his right forehead, left cheek, swelling to his left eye, and limited ability to open his jaw [PD 01, 02]. A CT-scan revealed no fractures but § 87(2)(b) was diagnosed with face and jaw swelling. This was confirmed by § 87(2)(b) arrest photo [NYPD 29]. § 87(2)(b) during his follow-up doctor visit, § 87(2)(b) exam revealed tenderness in his back and neck joints [PD 01, 02]. An MRI § 87(2)(b) revealed that § 87(2)(b) had a meniscal tear in the left knee, herniated disc in his spine, and a ligament tear in his left elbow. § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) As alluded to earlier, based on the 911 call recording associated with NYPD Event § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) mentions several times that he was being kicked [NYPD 01].

In his IAB and CCRB statements, Det. Pampena admitted to punching § 87(2)(b) one-two times in response to § 87(2)(b) punching him several times [BR 51, 55]. As a result, a struggle ensued between the two. However, Det. Pampena minimized the force of the strikes due to the confined space of the car. Det. Pampena also kicked § 87(2)(b) once in his thigh/buttocks area in an attempt to get § 87(2)(b) legs out of the foot well since the officers were still not able to remove § 87(2)(b) from the car.

Det. Carbone denied punching and kicking § 87(2)(b) both in his IAB and CCRB statements [BR 52, 56].

Video footage attached to IAs 115 and 116 depicts the struggle between Det. Pampena and § 87(2)(b) [BR 05,06]. The only clear action taken by Det. Pampena is the kick he administers to § 87(2)(b) at 0:24 in the second recording.

Both Det. Pampena and Det. Carbone were arrested as a result of this incident and charged with assault in the second and third degree and stood a criminal trial [NYPD 06]. Although they were acquitted from all the charges, IAB substantiated allegations of physical force and assault against Det. Pampena and Det. Carbone [NYPD 07, 08]. Both were demoted to the rank of an officer as a result as a result of this incident. According to CTS both officers were recently promoted back to detective. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (E) Force: Police Officer Christopher Musa used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

It is not disputed that PO Musa punched § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) stated that after the back-up officers arrived, while § 87(2)(b) was still in the car, a male uniformed officer punched him on his left cheek [BR 01]. § 87(2)(b) only saw the officer's arm, and therefore could not describe him. § 87(2)(b) was consistent with his IAB statement in regards to this allegation [BR 38].

Out of all uniformed officers interviewed by IAB and CCRB for the case, PO Musa was the only one who admitted to punching § 87(2)(b) [BR 32]. He explained that upon his arrival, he assisted Det. Pampena since he was still attempting to pull § 87(2)(b) out of the car and looked exhausted. After a minute of unsuccessfully pulling § 87(2)(b) out of the car, PO Musa punched § 87(2)(b) several times to make him release the steering wheel. However, he did not recall where the punches landed. A second later, PO Musa pulled § 87(2)(b) out of the car. At the time of his response, PO Musa had no knowledge of § 87(2)(b) or any circumstances of the incident. PO Musa's CCRB testimony was consistent with his statement to IAB [BR 41].

Video footage attached to IA 117, depicts a uniformed officer punch § 87(2)(b) three times while § 87(2)(b) is still in the car [BR 07]. PO Musa confirmed that was him. § 87(2)(b) actions are not visible during the recording. Two more officers are seen attempting to pull § 87(2)(b) out at that time, and a few seconds later, they move to the sidewalk, which suggests § 87(2)(b) had been pulled out.

Sgt. Minh Tran, PO Musa's partner of the same command, in his testimony to the CCRB, confirmed that he assisted PO Musa in removing § 87(2)(b) out of the car [BR 32]. § 87(2)(b) slightly resisted by stiffening his body and flailing his arms. Sgt. Tran was unable to tell what caused § 87(2)(b) to loosen his grip on the steering wheel and had no recollection of PO Musa punching § 87(2)(b).

Det. Pampena testified he only observed PO Musa strike § 87(2)(b) after reviewing the video footage [BR 55]. Once the back-up officers arrived, Det. Pampena stepped aside since he was exhausted. He had no independent recollection of PO Musa's actions nor was he aware what § 87(2)(b) was doing in the car at the time. However, he believed § 87(2)(b) was actively resisting since it took PO Musa and Sgt. Tran some time to remove him from the car. Det. Pampena was consistent in his CCRB and IAB testimonies in regard to this part of the incident.

Det. Carbone was consistent with Det. Pampena in his IAB and CCRB testimonies [BR 52, 56]

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (F) Force: Police Officer Christopher Musa used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (G) Force: Officers used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (H) Force: Detective Angelo Pampena restricted § 87(2)(b) breathing.

Allegation (I) Force: Detective Angelo Pampena used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (J) Force: An officer used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) was pulled out of the car by several officers, however, it is in dispute whether Det. Pampena restricted § 87(2)(b) breathing and threw him to the ground. In addition, it remains in dispute whether an officer stomped on § 87(2)(b) head.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that after he was punched by PO Musa, Det. Pampena dragged him out of the car by his collar, which restricted his breathing [BR 01]. Det. Pampena stood § 87(2)(b) up, but § 87(2)(b) was unable to catch his balance. Det. Pampena grabbed § 87(2)(b) by his back and threw him to the ground, where he landed first on his knees and then on his face. After that, an unknown officer stomped on the back of § 87(2)(b) head. § 87(2)(b) sustained an abrasion to his forehead as a result. The officer's foot remained on the back of § 87(2)(b) head for a few seconds prior to him being handcuffed. § 87(2)(b) denied resisting while being handcuffed. § 87(2)(b) did not allege that he was thrown to the ground or that his breathing was restricted during his 50H hearing and in his statement to IAB [BR 13, 38].

Det. Pampena testified he was exhausted and stepped aside once PO Musa and Sgt. Tran arrived on the scene [BR 55]. PO Musa and Sgt. Tran pulled § 87(2)(b) out of the car and placed him on the ground. Det. Pampena did not see how exactly § 87(2)(b) was placed on the ground but believed he was lying on his right side. § 87(2)(b) had his left hand underneath his body and was not giving it to the officers. The officers continuously instructed § 87(2)(b) to give them his hand since he was under arrest, but § 87(2)(b) did not comply. Eventually, Det. Pampena and other officers he did not recall were able to handcuff § 87(2)(b). Det. Pampena recalled that § 87(2)(b) bubble vest might have been accidentally pulled over his head, but not his face, as he was being handcuffed, but he denied restricting § 87(2)(b) breathing in any way. Det. Pampena denied stomping on § 87(2)(b) head nor did he see any other officers do so. These allegations were not discussed during Det. Pampena's IAB interview [BR 51].

Det. Carbone stated he was running around the back of § 87(2)(b) car, while PO Musa and Sgt. Tran pulled him out [BR 56]. By the time Det. Carbone reached the other side, § 87(2)(b) was lying on the ground in handcuffs. Det. Carbone did not observe any officer stomp on § 87(2)(b) or pull a shirt over his head, thus restricting his breathing. Det. Carbone was consistent in his IAB testimony regarding these allegations [BR 52].

PO Musa testified he pulled § 87(2)(b) out of the car directly to the ground but he did not recall if anyone assisted him [BR 31]. Since § 87(2)(b) resisted by pulling his body away, PO Musa fell to the ground backwards. He did not recall how § 87(2)(b) landed to the ground. PO Musa did not recall who handcuffed § 87(2)(b) and whether he resisted the handcuffing in any way. PO Musa denied stomping on § 87(2)(b) or observing any other officer do so. PO Musa was consistent in his IAB testimony [BR 41].

Sgt. Tran testified that he and other officers he did not recall, lowered § 87(2)(b) to the ground in a controlled manner [BR 32]. No officer shoved or threw § 87(2)(b) to the ground. While on the ground, § 87(2)(b) stiffened his body and tried to move his arms around.

Eventually, officers who Sgt. Tran did not recall, were able to handcuff § 87(2)(b) Sgt. Tran denied stomping on § 87(2)(b) or observing any officers do so.

Video footage attached to IA 117 shows numerous officers remove § 87(2)(b) from the car at approximately 0:58 [BR 07]. The way § 87(2)(b) is removed is unclear. The rest of the officers' and § 87(2)(b) actions are not depicted clearly enough.

Although Det. Pampena denied removing § 87(2)(b) from the car along with PO Musa and PO Musa could not recall who, if anyone assisted him, video evidence suggests that at least three officers pulled § 87(2)(b) out together with PO Musa. Therefore, Allegation G has also been pled against officers.

According to NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01, an officer may use force when it is reasonable to place a person in custody or to prevent escape from custody [BR 59].

Since PO Musa responded to a call for assistance from Det. Pampena and Det. Carbone and encountered them actively trying to remove § 87(2)(b) from his car § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

As for § 87(2)(b) allegation that an officer stomped on his head while he was on the ground, none of the officers interviewed admitted to doing so or witnessing other officers commit the alleged misconduct. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- This is the first CCRB complaint to which § 87(2)(b) has been a party. § 87(2)(b)
- Det. Pampena has been a member of service for 11 years and has been a subject in seven other CCRB complaints and 11 allegations, none of which were substantiated. There are five physical force allegations to which Det. Pampena has been subject that were closed exonerated (thrice), complaint withdrawn and unsubstantiated.
- Det. Carbone has been a member of service for 11 years and has been a subject in three other CCRB complaints and eight allegations, of which two were substantiated:
 - 201409312 involved substantiated allegations of a vehicle stop and question against Det. Carbone. The Board recommended Charges, and the NYPD forfeited one vacation day from Det. Carbone.
 - There are two physical force allegations pleaded against Det. Carbone that were closed as exonerated and complainant uncooperative.
- PO Musa has been a member of service for seven years and has been a subject in five other CCRB complaints and 10 allegations, of which two were substantiated:

- 201605419 involved substantiated allegations of a vehicle search and frisk against PO Musa. The Board recommended Formalized Training, and the NYPD imposed the recommended discipline.
- § 87(2)(g) [REDACTED]

Mediation, Civil and Criminal Histories

- This complaint was not suitable for mediation.
- On November 10, 2015, § 87(2)(b) filed a Notice of Claim with the City of New York claiming assault, battery, intentional infliction of emotional distress, negligence, personal injury, medical expense, legal expenses, hospital expense, and emotional distress and seeking $100 million as redress [BR 11]. § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Attempts were made to reach § 87(2)(b) civil attorney § 87(2)(b) and voice messages were left requesting information on the status of his civil case. Should that information be provided to the investigation it will be added to the case file.

- [§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(c)] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Squad: 8

Investigator: _____
Signature Print Date

Squad Leader: _____
Title/Signature Print Date

Reviewer: _____
Title/Signature Print Date