Plaintiff Lyman Reynolds, by his attorney, SYDNEY O'HAGAN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiff, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiff and malicious prosecution and denial of a fair trial of the plaintiff.

PARTIES

2. Lyman Reynolds is a citizen of the United States and a resident of New York.
3. POLICE OFFICER JOSEPH BATTISTA (Shield # 17231) is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. POLICE OFFICER JOSEPH BATTISTA (Shield # 17231) is being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
5. Police Officer John Doe Number 1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

6. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
7. New York Police Officers John and Jane Doe #'s 2-8 are and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
8. Police Officers John and Jane Doe #2-8 are being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

11. On July 4, 2017 at approximately 9:20 p.m., Mr. Reynolds was arrested at Riegalmans Boardwalk and West 12th street for Unlicensed General Vending and Sale of Alcohol Without a License.
12. Mr. Reynolds denies the charges. He came to the location earlier in the day to see a hot dog eating contest and enjoy the beach. He had packed a lunch and non-alcoholic drinks in a cooler. At the time of his arrest, he was listening to music from a local band outside and ran into a friend of his. He offered his friend a drink from his cooler, either fruit punch or water. Shortly after police officers approached and asked him for identification and then arrested him. There were no alcoholic beverages in the cooler or on Mr. Reynolds person. He did not sell anything to anyone.
13. At arraignment, Mr. Reynolds was ROR'd.
14. Mr. Reynolds was incarcerated for approximately 24 hours. He attended several court appearances. Items in his possession at the time of his arrest, including a Coleman cooler, a four-wheel shopping cart, beach umbrellas, clothing and snacks, were never vouchered or returned to him.
15. The charges were sealed and dismissed on May 4, 2018.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

16. Plaintiff repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 15 as if fully set forth herein.
17. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
18. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
19. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTIONMALICIOUS PROSECUTION

20. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 19 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
21. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York.
22. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff with malice and without probable cause, caused him a serious deprivation of liberty as a result, and Plaintiff obtained a favorable termination on the fabricated charges.
23. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.
24. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.
25. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated favorably to plaintiff on May 4, 2018.
26. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate his state constitutional and tort rights.
27. The individually named defendant Police Officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTIONNEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

28. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 27 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
29. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTIONFAILURE TO INTERVENE

30. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 29 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
31. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
32. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein despite having had a reasonable opportunity to do so, and full knowledge of the unlawful conduct.
33. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to an illegal search and undue force upon his person over the course of the false arrest.
34. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
35. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNEGLIGENCE

36. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 35 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
37. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
38. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting him to an illegal search and undue force and unprivileged deprivation of his liberty without sufficient or any cause to do so.
39. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
40. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
41. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

42. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 41 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
43. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
44. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
45. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

SEVENTH, EIGHTH, NINTH, TENTH CAUSES OF ACTION

42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. 1988

Violation of First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of US Constitution pursuant to Court's concurrent jurisdiction over Plaintiff's federal first-amendment-retaliation claim (7th claim); false-arrest/unlawful-search claims (8th claim); malicious-prosecution claim (9th claim) and deprivation-of-fair-trial claim (10th claim).

46. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 45 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
47. Defendants, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that violated Plaintiff's federal constitutional rights as protected by 42 USC Section 1983.
48. New York State courts have concurrent jurisdiction to hear federal claims such as Plaintiff's Section 1983 ones here.
49. Plaintiff's federal constitutional claims—brought pursuant to 42 USC 1983 and 1988—allege the violation of his First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
50. In particular, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' retaliatory and harassing false arrest, unlawful search, malicious prosecution and fabrication of evidence violated his First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment rights insofar as Defendants had no cause or legal privilege to submit Plaintiff to deprivation of his liberty, seizure and search of his person, and other constitutional injuries, yet they did so with malice and retaliatory intent.

51. Insofar as Plaintiff's federal claims, brought pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction over them, mirror state constitutional tort and tort elements, Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the above allegations in support of the federal claims here.
52. In the event Plaintiff prevails at trial on one, some or all of his 42 USC Section 1983 claims pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction, he also seeks reasonable fees and costs as prevailing party pursuant to 42 USC Section 1988.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal liability pursuant to 42 USC Section 1983

53. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 52 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
54. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
55. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions to achieve remunerative ends through overtime, to achieve professional advancement through arrest numbers, and to satisfy personal whims through retaliatory use of their authority.
56. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
57. Similarly, the City of NY is on notice of the obvious risk that their failure to train, discipline and supervise its officers—and in particular these specific Defendants who discovery will show to have been the subject of misconduct allegations that went uncorrected—proximately caused the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff here.
58. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.

ATTORNEY'S VERIFICATION

I, SYDNEY O'Hagan, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am attorney at the law firm of SYDNEY O'HAGAN, ESQ., I have read the annexed VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters wherein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, and other pertinent information contained in my files. The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiff's is that Plaintiff is out of the county.
