Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Henry Henriquez entered § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that PO Henriquez and PO Gessner entered § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn with § 87(2)(b) on November 2, 2020. § 87(2)(b) called 911 and requested the assistance of the police because § 87(2)(b) was in his apartment. It is undisputed that incident location is § 87(2)(b)'s apartment.

During § 87(2)(b)'s CCRB statement (Board Review 2), she testified that the incident location was a one-bedroom apartment that belonged to § 87(2)(b). On the November 2, 2020, at approximately 1:30 PM, § 87(2)(b) was asleep in the bedroom. § 87(2)(b) stated that she was not dressed and was wrapped in a blanket. At an unspecified time, PO Gessner woke § 87(2)(b) up from sleep and told § 87(2)(b) to get dressed. PO Gessner left the bedroom and § 87(2)(b) began to record the incident. PO Gessner told § 87(2)(b) that she was not allowed in the apartment. PO Gessner presented § 87(2)(b) with documentation which stated that § 87(2)(b) was taken off the lease. Police officers served § 87(2)(b) an order of protection with her name spelled incorrectly. § 87(2)(b) told PO Gessner that she was a legal occupant because she had resided at § 87(2)(b) for more than thirty days. § 87(2)(b) told PO Gessner that he did not have documents from a housing judge. § 87(2)(b) attempted to show PO Gessner her housing documents. PO Gessner refused to see the documents. PO Henriquez held a pink skip in his hand and radioed for back up. § 87(2)(b) felt that the police officers wanted to arrest her. At an unspecified time, § 87(2)(b) asked the officers' name and badge number. The police officers verbally provided their information to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) gathered her belongings and approached the apartment entrance. § 87(2)(b) told the police officers that § 87(2)(b) stole from the apartment. § 87(2)(b) did not take anything that did not belong to her. § 87(2)(b) asked the police officers to check § 87(2)(b)'s bag.
