Case Summary

On July 27, 2019, an unidentified individual appeared at PSA2 and filed this complaint in person, generating an IAB spin-off and original log #19-28919. On August 9, 2019, the CCRB received this case.

The allegations in this case were made by an individual who elected to remain anonymous when filing their initial complaint, per his NYPD Civilian Complaint Report. § 87(2)(b) verbally informed officers who processed his complaint that he wanted to remain anonymous, but he signed his name on the complaint report, identifying himself as § 87(2)(b).

On August 12, 2019, a call was placed to the call back number associated with the IAB complaint § 87(2)(b). An individual name § 87(2)(b) answered the phone, identified himself, and stated he did not have any interaction with police officers on the incident date, June 26, 2019.

The IAB complaint did not contain a specific incident location, but did identify a subject officer, PO Noor, Shield #21625.

PO Noor's memo book for June 26, 2019 contained no notations regarding an interaction with civilians and notes only that he was assigned to appear in court. This correlates with ARCS from PSA 2, PO Noor's assigned command, and his roll call assignment for that date. As per BADS, PO Noor did not make any arrests on June 26, 2019.

The individual's name is listed on the handwritten civilian complaint, attached to IA#11. On September 19, 2019, a Lexis-Nexis public records search returned two addresses, two phone numbers, and three emails associated with a § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn. The phone numbers were § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). Between September 19, 2019 and October 7, 2019, five calls were placed to § 87(2)(b). In each instance, the undersigned left a voicemail message. On September 24, 2019, an unidentified individual answered the phone for § 87(2)(b) and stated that the number was associated with § 87(2)(b). No additional calls were placed to this number.

The addresses associated with § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn were § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). On September 24, 2019, the CCRB received a call from an individual named § 87(2)(b) who stated she lived at § 87(2)(b) and stated she had no awareness of an incident occurring on June 26, 2019 and had not filed a complaint regarding an incident on June 26, 2019. She declined to provide her phone number. Two letters were sent to § 87(2)(b) between October 1, 2019 and October 7, 2019. Neither of these letters were returned by the USPS.

Three emails were associated with § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn by a Lexis-Nexis search. These emails were § 87(2)(b). On September 24, 2019, an email sent to § 87(2)(b) was returned as undeliverable. On October 1, 2019, an email sent to § 87(2)(b) was returned as undeliverable. Between October 1, 2019 and October 7, 2019, two emails were sent to § 87(2)(b); neither email was returned as undeliverable. There was no response received from this email address.

A duplicate check conducted in CTS on September 18, 2019, for incidents matching the location and allegation types in this case was negative.

The complaint cannot proceed without a statement from § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)
