Plaintiff Joseph Goldsborough, by his attorney, Cyrus Joubin, complaining of the Defendants, respectfully alleges as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This civil rights action arises from the false arrest, unlawful search, and malicious prosecution of Joseph Goldsborough (“Plaintiff”) after he was baselessly suspected of criminal activity while smoking a cigar. Plaintiff asserts constitutional claims pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (“Section 1983”) against the individual defendants for false arrest, illegal search, malicious prosecution, and failure to intervene, and a Monell claim against the City of New York for the same constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff asserts analogous claims under New York Law against the individual defendants, and against the City of New York under the doctrine of respondeat superior. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, costs, disbursements, and attorney’s fees pursuant to applicable state and federal civil rights law.

JURISDICTION

2. This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution. Jurisdiction is conferred upon this Court by 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343 (a)(3) and (4), this being an action seeking redress for the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional and civil rights.

3. Plaintiff further invokes this Court's supplemental jurisdiction, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367, over any and all state law claims and causes of action which derive from the same nucleus of operative facts and are part of the same case or controversy which gives rise to the federally based claims and causes of action.

VENUE

4. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because the acts complained of occurred in this district.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury on each and every one of his claims as pled herein, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff Joseph Goldsborough is a United States citizen and a resident of Bronx, New York.

7. The individually named defendants Police Officer Christopher McEvoy (Shield # 17307) ("PO McEvoy"), Police Officer John Doe 1 ("PO Doe 1"), and Police Officer John Doe 2 ("PO Doe 2") (collectively, the "individual defendants") are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”).

8. On the date of the incident giving rise to this complaint, the individual defendants were assigned to the 25th Precinct.

9. Each individual defendant is sued in his individual and official capacity. At all times mentioned herein, each individual defendant acted under the color of state law, in the capacity of an officer, employee, and agent of defendant City of New York (“Defendant City”).

10. Defendant City is a municipality created and authorized under the laws of New York State. It is authorized by law to maintain, direct, and to supervise the NYPD, which acts as its law enforcement agent and for which it is ultimately responsible.

NOTICE OF CLAIM

11. Plaintiff served a Notice of Claim on the Comptroller of the City of New York within ninety days of the incident, being assigned Claim # 2015NY018117. At least 30 days have elapsed since the service of the Notice of Claim, and adjustment and payment has been neglected or refused.

12. The City of New York demanded a hearing pursuant to General Municipal Law § 50-h, which hearing was held on August 28, 2015.

13. This action has been commenced within one year and ninety days after the occurrence of the event upon which the claims are based.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On the evening of April 3, 2015, Plaintiff met up with some friends – Harold Brown (“Mr. Brown”), Tolan Baker (“Mr. Baker”), and Tyrone Duncan (“Mr. Duncan”) – to go out to dinner at Dallas BBQ restaurant.

15. Around 8:20 PM that evening, in front of 2130 Madison Avenue in upper Manhattan, New York City, Plaintiff and his friends were gathered at Plaintiff’s car – a four-door Lexus sedan (the “Lexus”) – and preparing to go to dinner.

16. Before departing in the Lexus for dinner, Plaintiff stood outside the Lexus smoking a Black & Mild (tobacco) cigar while talking with Mr. Duncan; meanwhile, waiting inside the Lexus were Mr. Brown in the front passenger seat and Mr. Baker in the back seat.

17. After finishing his cigar, Plaintiff suddenly felt PO McEvoy, along with PO Doe 1, rush and grab him from behind, place handcuffs on him, and pat him down.

18. PO McEvoy and PO Doe 1 proceeded to investigate their baseless hunch that criminal activity was taking place around the Lexus.

19. PO McEvoy accusatorily asked Plaintiff what he had been smoking, and Plaintiff replied that he was simply smoking a cigar, nothing unlawful.

20. PO McEvoy and PO Doe 1 searched the ground, apparently looking for what they believed was an illegal substance, but they found nothing unlawful.

21. Meanwhile, Mr. Brown was taken out of the Lexus, and PO Doe 2 searched the interior of the Lexus, finding nothing unlawful.

22. Plaintiff was in handcuffs for about fifteen minutes before the individual defendants decided to remove his handcuffs and issue him a summons.

23. Throughout the interaction with the individual defendants, Plaintiff neither did nor said anything suspicious or incriminating.

24. Despite finding nothing unlawful on Plaintiff's person or in his Lexus or on the ground, the individual defendants decided to issue Plaintiff a false and mendacious summons (the "Summons") for possessing synthetic marijuana, which the individual defendants knew he did not possess.

25. The Summons (Number 4415121629), which was signed and sworn to by PO McEvoy, specifically said that on April 3, 2015, at 8:23 PM, outside 2130 Madison Avenue, "Deft [Defendant] was observed in possession of K2 synthetic marijuana burning in plain/public view."

26. The Summons required Plaintiff to appear in Criminal Court at 346 Broadway (the "Court"), in lower Manhattan. When Plaintiff went to Court on June 8, 2015, his case was assigned Docket Number 2015SN021244, and the Summons was dismissed for being legally insufficient.

27. The NYPD failed to supervise and discipline the individual defendants despite their histories of malicious and mendacious behavior, ignoring the risk that they would engage in future misconduct, thereby encouraging them to continue to abuse their powers and violate the rights of civilians.

28. There is a systemic failure to identify, discipline, and supervise NYPD officers who fabricate charges, a failure so widespread, obvious, and tolerated as to constitute a custom and policy of Defendant City.

29. The NYPD's flaccid response to lying officers – particularly in the context of filing false charges – constitutes an irrational custom and policy that fosters a culture of mendacity in the NYPD.

30. Proportionate and appropriate discipline sends a message to NYPD officers that they are not above the law and are accountable to the people whom they serve. But when it comes to making false statements on court documents, NYPD officers almost never face discipline.

31. The Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") has no jurisdiction to investigate allegations of fabricated statements by NYPD officers in criminal court documents. Investigating, controlling, and punishing this type of wrongdoing is the responsibility of the NYPD.

32. The inadequacy of NYPD's supervision and discipline with respect to dishonesty in the filing of criminal charges is exacerbated by the pressure on police officers to meet arrest quotas, or "performance goals," which pressure officers to arrest people and file charges unlawfully, a pressure not tempered by adequate safeguards that ensure citizens are not wrongfully arrested and charged.

33. As a direct and proximate cause of the said acts of the Defendants, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages:

- a. Violation of his constitutional rights under the First and Fourth Amendments to the United States Constitution;
- b. Severe emotional trauma, distress, degradation, and suffering.
