DIANA OLIVIERI,

Index No.:

Plaintiff,

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

CITY OF NEW YORK, PETER COUVARIS, AND JOHN
OR JANE DOE 1-10,

Defendants.
-----X

Plaintiff, DIANA OLIVIERI, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, as and for her complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, PETER COUVARIS, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, hereby alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the New York State Constitution, for the violations of his civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

2. The following claims arose on July 3, 2022, when Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, arrested and detained Plaintiff at her residence located at 161-88 99th Street Queens, New York. Plaintiff was subsequently removed to the 106th NYPD precinct and released with a Desk Appearance Ticket. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained over the course of approximately twelve (12) hours. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied due process of law, until all criminal charges were dismissed which constituted a termination in favor of Plaintiff.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiff filed a Notice of Claim in Compliance with the General Municipal Law.

5. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since the filing of the Notice of Claim and this matter has neither been settled nor adjusted.

6. Plaintiff gave sworn testimony at a hearing held pursuant to GML 50-h.

7. This action is being filed within one (1) year and ninety (90) days from the date the causes of action alleged herein arose.

8. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

9. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, Ms. Diana Oliviera ("Ms. Oliviera"), is an adult, female who presently resides in Queens, New York.

10. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing organized under the laws of the State of New York.

11. At all relevant times herein, the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") was a wholly owned subsidiary which was further wholly operated, managed, maintained and controlled by Defendant City.

12. At all relevant times herein, Defendant City, acting through its New York City Police Department, was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, screening, hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, investigators, sergeants, lieutenants and other supervisory officers or officials, as well as the individually named NYPD Defendants herein.

13. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, City, was responsible for enforcing the rules and regulations of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions of the United States and the State of New York.

14. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, PETER COUVARIS ("COUVARIS"), was a police officer, supervisor, official, or policy maker employed by the NYPD under Shield No. 682 and Tax Id. No. 972590 and, as such, was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of Defendant City. Defendant COUVARIS is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

15. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were police officers, detectives, sergeants, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD or City of New York. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names or tax registry numbers of Defendants, JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of Defendants.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD. Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City or State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

18. On July 3, 2022, at approximately 9:00 a.m., at the building located at 161-88 99th Street Queens, New York Plaintiff was illegally targeted for adverse police action, by Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

19. Plaintiff was lawfully present in her apartment when Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 falsely claimed that Plaintiff has committed an assault.

20. Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, knew or should have known Plaintiff could not have perpetrated any assault because the initial police report and Body Worn Camera footage in Defendants' possession from the night before confirmed that the assault was perpetrated by male subjects.

21. Despite having knowledge that the assault was perpetrated by males, Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 arrested Plaintiff, a female, in front of her family.

22. Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, conducted an illegal search of Plaintiff's person by rifling through his pockets and patting her down all over.

23. Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, violently contorted Plaintiff's arms behind her back in order to handcuff her.

24. Plaintiff repeatedly requested that Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, loosen the handcuffs, because they were causing her substantial pain and discomfort due to their excessive tightness.

25. Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, ignored all of Plaintiff's pleas to loosen the handcuffs. This resulted in Plaintiff's wrists sustaining contusions, swelling, and loss of feeling.

26. Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, removed Plaintiff to the 106th NYPD precinct against her will, where Defendants fingerprinted, photographed, searched and confined Plaintiff to a cell.

27. While Plaintiff was in a holding cell, Defendants COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 told Plaintiff that the complaining victims had told them the night prior that the perpetrator of the aforesaid assault was more than one male subject, and that Plaintiff had “nothing to worry about.”

28. Plaintiff was released from the Precinct with a D.A.T. to return to Court.

29. Defendant COUVARIS signed a criminal complaint against Plaintiff, in which he knowingly affirmed the truth of the fabricated allegations against Plaintiff, namely that Plaintiff had committed the aforesaid assault.

30. Plaintiff’s charges were dismissed and sealed pursuant to CPL 160.50 which constituted a termination favorable to the accused.

31. Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, because of their desires to use Plaintiff’s arrest and criminal prosecution to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas, and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

32. Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, applied excessive force and initiated a malicious prosecution against Plaintiff in retaliation for Plaintiff’s exertion of his constitutional right to freely express his opinion and inquiries, namely Plaintiff’s displeasure with the manner in which Defendants addressed her and her request for an explanation as to why Defendants acted so discourteously toward Plaintiff.

33. As a result, Plaintiff developed a severe fear of police officers, which prevented him from venturing from his house for a period of time and has effectively permanently chilled her desire and ability to communicate with police officers.

34. Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

35. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

36. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

37. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

38. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

39. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

40. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

41. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

42. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

43. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

44. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

45. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

46. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including COUVARIS, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

47. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Free Speech Retaliation Claim Under

TWENTY-SECOND CAUSE OF ACTIONMunicipal "Monell" Liability Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

174. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

175. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as Plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

176. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

177. Defendant City, its policymakers and supervisors failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates, to such an extent that is tantamount to the City's deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

178. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of Plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by Defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

179. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

180. Defendant City's conduct caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, via the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth & Fourteenth Amendments thereto.

181. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- a) On the First Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- b) On the Second Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
