Case Summary

On February 13, 2013, § 87(2)(b) a non-witnessing complainant, called IAB on behalf of her son, § 87(2)(b) which generated the log number 13-5965. The CCRB received the complaint on March 11, 2013.

§ 87(2)(b) provided the following telephone statement based on what her son and her son's friend, whom she only knows as § 87(2)(b) told her had happened.

§ 87(2)(b) went on a ski trip with four friends, § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), and two unidentified females. § 87(2)(b) was the driver. § 87(2)(b) did not know the females' names, and she did not know § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)'s last names.

After the ski trip, on January 20, 2013, at approximately 10:45 p.m., § 87(2)(b) dropped off § 87(2)(b) at his house in Staten Island, and then dropped off the two girls at § 87(2)(b). As the girls were going inside their residence, two police officers arrived, and briefly spoke with § 87(2)(b) and the two girls. One of the officers was identified by § 87(2)(b) by name as PO Michael Szczecinski. § 87(2)(g). The officers told them they were investigating a fight that had happened nearby. The girls' mother spoke with the officers, and everyone was allowed to leave.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) drove down the street a short way and parked their car by § 87(2)(b)'s house because he left his backpack in the car. The two officers approached § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) a second time (Allegations A and B). One of the officers went to § 87(2)(b)'s side, and PO Szczecinski went to § 87(2)(b)'s side. The officer on § 87(2)(b)'s side asked him why they had not left the scene, and § 87(2)(b) explained why. § 87(2)(b) meanwhile, reached inside his sweatshirt and pulled out a cigarette. PO Szczecinski ordered § 87(2)(b) out of the car. He did not get out. PO Szczecinski opened § 87(2)(b)'s door, pulled him out, swung him around, and punched him in the face (Allegation C). Around this point, more officers arrived. PO Szczecinski and unidentified additional officers punched and kicked § 87(2)(b) while he was on the ground (Allegation D). § 87(2)(b) was put in a police car and driven off scene. § 87(2)(b) asked an unidentified officer where § 87(2)(b) was being taken, and that officer said to him, "None of your fucking business" (Allegation E).

At the 123rd Precinct stationhouse, PO Szczecinski took § 87(2)(b) inside by pulling his hair and intentionally hitting his face against more than one door, which caused § 87(2)(b) to sustain a cut under his chin (Allegation F). A while later a female EMT arrived at the stationhouse and treated § 87(2)(b)'s cut. § 87(2)(b) was released from Staten Island Central Booking on January 22, 2013, and § 87(2)(b) took him to § 87(2)(b) in New Jersey. Medical personnel there told § 87(2)(b) that her son had a laceration under his chin, various bruises on his body, and finger marks around his throat.

§ 87(2)(b) told his mother that his arresting officer committed Allegations A, C, and F, and he obtained the officer's name from his arrest paperwork. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)'s telephone number is the same as his mother's. On March 15, 2013, the undersigned investigator called § 87(2)(b) and his mother answered and confirmed their contact information, but said it was not a good time to talk. She asked me to call back on March 18, 2013. The investigator called on March 18, 2013, as well as March 19, 2013, and March 21, 2013, and left voicemail messages each time. The investigator called again on March 22, 2013, and § 87(2)(b) answered. Her son was not home at the time, and § 87(2)(b) provided a second-hand telephone statement of the incident. She asked me to call back on March 25, 2013, at a specific time to speak with her son. Furthermore, she said she did not know § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)'s full name or contact information. Without more identifying information for § 87(2)(b) his contact information could not be queried. The investigator called § 87(2)(b) on March 25, 2013, at the arranged time, and § 87(2)(b) answered and said her son had just left. She provided me with her son's cell phone number and asked me to call him on a later date. The investigator called § 87(2)(b)'s cell phone number on March 29, 2013, and the line was non-functioning. The investigator mailed § 87(2)(b) two please call letters, one on March 15, 2013, and the other on March 21, 2013. Neither letter was returned by the USPS. On March 29, 2013, the investigator queried the NYC DOC website, and it did not indicate that § 87(2)(b) was incarcerated. § 87(2)(g)
