

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

DANIEL TEITELL,

Plaintiff,

-v-

AMENDED COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR A JURY TRIAL

THE CITY OF NEW YORK; New York City Police
Department ("NYPD") Officer ("P.O.") NUMAEL
AMADOR (Shield No. 9643), P.O. JUAN MORALES
(Shield No. 31941), and Sergeant ALEXI SERPANI
(Shield No. 3257), in their individual capacities,

15-CV-04187 (JG)(JO)

Defendants.

Plaintiff Daniel Teitell, by his attorneys Mark C. Taylor and Gillian Cassell-Stiga of Rankin & Taylor, PLLC, for his complaint, does hereby state and allege:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action brought to vindicate plaintiff's rights under the First, Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution of the United States, through the Civil Rights Act of 1871, as amended, codified as 42 U.S.C. § 1983, along with pendant claims for false arrest, false imprisonment, and malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York.
2. Plaintiff Daniel Teitell's rights were violated when officers of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") unconstitutionally detained and arrested plaintiff despite the absence of probable cause. By reason of defendants' actions, including the unreasonable and unlawful seizure of his person, plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights.
3. Plaintiff also seeks an award of compensatory and punitive damages and attorneys' fees.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over federal claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1331, 1343(a)(3-4). This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§1983 and 1988 and the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.
5. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b)(2) in that plaintiff's claim arose in the Eastern District of New York.
6. An award of costs and attorneys' fees is authorized pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1988.
7. Consistent with the requirements of New York General Municipal Law § 50-e, Mr. Teitell filed a timely Notice of Claim with the New York City Comptroller on or about June 5, 2015 within 90 days of the accrual of his claims under New York law. Thus, this Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Mr. Teitell's claims under New York law because they are so related to the within federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).
8. Mr. Teitell's claims have not been adjusted by the New York City Comptroller's Office.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff Daniel Teitell is, and was at all times relevant to this action, a resident of the County of Kings in the State of New York.
10. Defendant The City of New York ("City") is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. Defendant City assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the NYPD.

11. NYPD Officer (“P.O.”) Numael Amador (Shield No. 9643) (“Amador”), P.O. Juan Morales (Shield No. 31941) (“Morales”), and Sergeant (“Sgt.”) Alexi Serpani (Shield No. 3257) (“Serpani”) (referred to collectively as the “individual defendants”) are and were at all times relevant herein, officers, employees and agents of the NYPD.
12. The individual defendants are being sued herein in their individual and official capacities.
13. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the NYPD, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the NYPD at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the NYPD and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the NYPD.
14. The individual defendants’ acts hereafter complained of were carried out intentionally, recklessly, with malice, and in gross disregard of plaintiff’s rights.
15. At all relevant times, the individual defendants were engaged in joint ventures, assisting each other in performing the various actions described herein and lending their physical presence and support and the authority of their offices to one another.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

16. Mr. Teitell was unlawfully arrested by P.O. Amador, P.O. Morales, and Sgt. Serpani before 10:00 p.m. on March 29, 2015, in Maria Hernandez Park in Kings County in the State of New York.
17. Mr. Teitell was standing in the park when he saw P.O. Amador and P.O. Morales approach and interrogate a man seated on a bench.

18. Mr. Teitell filmed the interaction with his cell phone.
19. One of the officers saw Mr. Teitell filming and immediately walked over.
20. Twice the officer asked Mr. Teitell for identification and Mr. Teitell responded, "Am I being detained or am I free to go?"
21. The officer then took the phone out of Mr. Teitell's hand and placed him in handcuffs with the assistance of the other officer.
22. One of the two officers pointed to a sign and informed Mr. Teitell that they could simply issue him a citation for being in the park illegally, but they were choosing to arrest him because he had asserted his rights.
23. Mr. Teitell was not in the park illegally.
24. Mr. Teitell was arrested before 10:00 p.m. and the posted sign confirmed the park closed at 10:00 p.m.
25. Sgt. Alexis Serpani arrived and directed the officers remove the handcuffs.
26. Mr. Teitell waited by the police vehicle as officers ran a warrant search.
27. Mr. Teitell was issued two summons, for Remaining in a Park After Closing (§1-03(a)3), and for Failing to Comply with a Park Sign (§1-03(c)2).
28. The summons were based upon the false statements of P.O. Amador.
29. P.O. Morales and Sgt. Serpani failed to intervene in the unlawful arrest of Mr. Teitell.
30. Mr. Teitell was forced to appear in court before both summons were dismissed on June 4, 2015.

FIRST CLAIM
DEPRIVATION OF RIGHTS
UNDER THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION THROUGH 42 U.S.C. §1983
(Against the individual defendants)

31. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.
32. By their conduct and actions in falsely arresting plaintiff, arresting plaintiff in retaliation for protected activity and the prior restraint of the same, fabricating evidence, and by failing to intercede to prevent the complained of conduct, defendants P.O. Amador and P.O. John Doe 1-2, acting under color of law and without lawful justification, intentionally, and/or with a deliberate indifference to or a reckless disregard for the natural and probable consequences of their acts, caused injury and damage in violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as guaranteed through 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the United States Constitution, including its First, Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.
33. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty, suffered emotional distress, humiliation, loss of property, costs and expenses, and was otherwise damaged and injured.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
42 U.S.C. § 1983
VIOLATIONS OF THE FOURTH AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENTS
(Against the City of New York)

34. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.
35. The individual defendants' acts and omissions described above were carried out pursuant to the City's overlapping customs and practices which were in existence on March 12, 2014 and were engaged in with the full knowledge, consent, and cooperation and under the supervisory authority of the City and its agency, the NYPD.

36. The acts complained of were carried out by the individual defendants in their capacities as police officials pursuant to customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City and the NYPD, all under the supervision of ranking officers of the NYPD.
37. The aforementioned custom and practice of the City and the NYPD include, but are not limited to making retaliatory arrests against persons who lawfully photograph, document or record police activity.
38. The existence of aforesaid unconstitutional customs and policies may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar wrongful conduct, as documented in below:

Journalists and Photographers

- a. May 30, 2007 / Robert Carneval / Carneval v. City of New York, 08 CV 9993 (DAB)(AJP) (S.D.N.Y.)

A Manhattan photographer, Robert Carneval, was arrested after filming NYPD officers in the East Village as they seized and loaded bikes, which had been locked to lampposts and parking meters, into a police van. After the photographer began filming and discussing the removals with another man, a plainclothes officer asked him for identification. When the photographer stated he had the right to film, the officer led him to a police car, examined his ID, then arrested him. c. November 15, 2011 / Timothy Fitzgerald / Rodriguez v. Winski, 12 CV 3389 (NRB) (S.D.N.Y.)

On or about November 15, 2011, in Zucotti Park, a publicly accessible open space, several police officers grabbed Timothy Fitzgerald, a citizen reporter who was documenting protest activities and police response to same, pulled him to the ground and arrested him.

d. August 4, 2012 / Robert Stolarik

Photographer Robert Stolarik, who worked regularly for The New York Times for more than a decade, was charged with obstructing government administration and resisting arrest after taking photographs of a brewing street fight at McClellan Street and Sheridan Avenue in the Bronx. Mr. Stolarik was taking photographs of the arrest of a teenage girl about 10:30 p.m., when a police officer instructed him to stop doing so. Mr. Stolarik said he identified himself as a journalist for The New York Times and continued taking pictures. A second officer appeared, grabbed his camera and “slammed” it into his face, he said. The arresting officer was later indicted for falsifying statements surrounding Ms. Stolarik’s arrest. 39. All of the foregoing acts by defendants deprived the plaintiff of federally protected rights, including, but limited to, the constitutional rights enumerated in paragraph 36.

40. Defendant City knew or should have known that the acts alleged herein would deprive the plaintiff of his rights, in violation of the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

41. Defendant City is directly liable and responsible for the acts of the individual police defendants because it repeatedly and knowingly failed to properly supervise, train, instruct, and discipline them and because it repeatedly and knowingly failed to enforce the rules and regulation of the City and NYPD, and to require compliance with the Constitution and laws of the United States.
42. Despite knowledge of such unlawful de facto policies, practices and/or customs, these supervisory and policy-making officers and officials of the NYPD and the City, including Commissioner William Bratton and former-Commissioner Raymond Kelly, have not taken steps to terminate these policies, practices and/or customs, do not discipline individuals who engage in such policies, practices and/or customs, or otherwise properly train police officers with regard to the constitutional and statutory limits on the exercise of their authority, and instead sanction and ratify these policies, practices and/or customs through their active encouragement of, deliberate indifference to and/or reckless disregard of the effect of said policies, practices and/or customs upon the constitutional rights of persons in the City of New York.
43. The aforementioned City policies, practices and/or customs of failing to supervise, train, instruct and discipline police officers and encouraging their misconduct are evidenced by the police misconduct detailed herein. Specifically, pursuant to the aforementioned City policies, practices and/or customs, the individual defendants felt empowered to exercise unreasonable and wholly unprovoked force against plaintiff, arrest plaintiff without probable cause and then fabricate and swear to a false story to cover up their blatant violations of plaintiff's constitutional rights. Pursuant to the aforementioned City policies, practices and/or customs, defendants failed to intervene in or report other defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights or subsequent perjury.

44. Plaintiff's injuries were a direct and proximate result of the defendant City and the NYPD's wrongful de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices and of the knowing and repeated failure of the defendant City and the NYPD to properly supervise, train and discipline their police officers.
45. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, acquiesced in a pattern of unconstitutional conduct by subordinate police officers and were directly responsible for the violation of the plaintiff's constitutional rights.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT
UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
(Against all Defendants)

46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.
47. By the actions described above, the individual defendants caused to be falsely arrested or falsely arrested plaintiff, without reasonable or probable cause, illegally and without a warrant, and without any right or authority to do so.
48. The acts and conduct of the individual defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated his statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
49. The conduct of the individual defendants alleged herein occurred while they were on duty and in uniform, and/or in and during the course and scope of their duties and functions as NYPD officers, and/or while they were acting as agents and employees of defendant City, clothed with and/or invoking state power and/or authority, and, as a result, defendant City is liable to plaintiffs pursuant to the state common law doctrine of respondeat superior.

50. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of his liberty, suffered specific and serious bodily injury, pain and suffering, psychological and emotional injury, costs and expenses, and was otherwise damaged and injured.

JURY DEMAND

51. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury in this action on each and every one of his damage claims.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants individually and jointly and prays for relief as follows:

- a. That he be compensated for violation of his constitutional rights, pain, suffering, mental anguish, and humiliation; and
- b. That he be awarded punitive damages against the individual defendants; and
- c. That he be compensated for attorneys' fees and the costs and disbursements of this action; and
- d. For such other further and different relief as to the Court may seem just and proper.
