Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff, Starley Pina, by his attorneys, Sim & DePaola, LLP, for his complaint against the above Defendants, alleges as follows:

1. The claim arises from a July 27, 2017 incident in which defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully arrested and detained Starley Pina at approximately 6:23 P.M. in the vicinity of Westchester Avenue and Bryant Avenue, County of the Bronx, State of New York. Starley Pina was subsequently charged with Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance and other related charges. As a result, Mr. Pina was deprived of his liberty and suffered physical and psychological injuries. Mr. Pina was wrongfully incarcerated over the course of approximately two (2) days or approximately forty-eight (48) hours. He was maliciously prosecuted, until the dismissal of all charges on July 31, 2018 before the Hon. M. Clancy of the Bronx County Criminal Court.
2. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, as well as an award of costs and attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff Starley Pina (“Mr. Pina”) resides at 990 Anderson Avenue, Apt. 6L, Bronx, NY 10452.
4. The Defendant City of New York (“City”) is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.
5. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant City, acting through the New York City Police Department (or “NYPD”), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline and retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives and supervisory officers as well as the individually named Defendants herein.
6. In addition, at all times here relevant, Defendant City was responsible for enforcing the rules of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws of the United States and the State of New York.
7. Defendant Police Officer Corey Wooten (“Wooten”) was, at all times here relevant, a police officer employed by the NYPD and as such was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of the City of New York. Defendant Wooten was, at all times relevant herein, a Police Officer under Shield #6551, Tax ID No. 951002 at the 42nd Precinct, located at 830 Washington Ave, Bronx, NY 10451. Defendant Wooten is being sued in his individual and official capacities.
8. Defendant Police Officer Joel Bolivar (“Bolivar”) was, at all times here relevant, a police officer employed by the NYPD and as such was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of the City of New York. Defendant Bolivar was, at all times relevant herein, a Police Officer under Shield #17860, Tax Reg. No.946793 in the 42nd Precinct, located at 830 Washington Ave, Bronx, NY 10451. Defendant Bolivar is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

9. At all times relevant Defendants John or Jane Doe 1-10 were police officers, detectives, supervisors, policy makers and/or officials employed by the NYPD. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names and/or tax registry numbers of Defendants John or Jane Doe 1-10, but such knowledge is believed to in possession of the defendants.
10. At all times relevant herein, Defendants John or Jane Doe 1-10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, the NYPD. Defendants John or Jane Doe 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
11. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.
12. Within 90 days of accrual dates for these claims, Plaintiff timely filed a written notice of claim with the New York City Office of the Comptroller.
13. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of those notices, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.
14. Plaintiff has complied with municipal defendant's request for an oral examination pursuant to Section 50-H of the New York General Municipal Law.
15. This action has been commenced within one year and ninety days from the relevant accrual dates.

FACTUAL CHARGES

16. On July 27, 2017 at approximately 6:23 P.M., Mr. Pina was inside of Jose Diaz's vehicle in the vicinity of Westchester Avenue and Bryant Avenue, County of Bronx, State of New York.
17. On said date, time and location, Mr. Pina was a passenger in said vehicle seated in the front passenger seat.
18. On said date, time and location, Jose Diaz was driving said vehicle and was obeying all traffic laws.
19. On said date, time and location, Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, unlawfully stopped the said vehicle without any probable cause or reasonable suspicion to do so, as Mr. Diaz's vehicle was not in violation of any laws or local ordinances.
20. Then Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, unlawfully commanded Mr. Diaz and Mr. Pina to exit the vehicle without probable cause or other justification to do so.
21. Upon exiting the vehicle, Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, illegally handcuffed Mr. Pina without probable cause or other justification to do so.
22. Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, then illegally searched Mr. Pina, even though there was no probable cause to do so, as there were no indicia of criminal activity present.
23. Mr. Pina did not commit any crimes or violate any law and was simply sitting in the passenger seat of the vehicle with his seat belt on.
24. Then Mr. Pina was put in a police vehicle and taken to the 42nd precinct.
25. Defendant Wooten was Mr. Pina's arresting officer under arrest No. B17638161.
26. Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, falsely arrested Plaintiff claiming there was probable cause to search and he was in criminal possession of a controlled substance.

27. Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, were fully aware that there was no probable cause to believe there was contraband in Mr. Pina's possession before they illegally searched him, but knowingly and intentionally chose to state there was probable cause to justify and excuse an otherwise invalid arrest.
28. Mr. Pina had multiple assaults and batteries committed to his person, including but not limited to, being placed in handcuffs too tightly.
29. Upon arrival at the precinct, Mr. Pina was illegally fingerprinted and photographed.
30. After being held in a cell at the precinct for several hours, Mr. Pina was sent to Central Bookings for a crime he did not commit.
31. Mr. Pina did not commit any crimes or violations of the law.
32. Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, intentionally provided said false information to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office, so that a criminal prosecution would be initiated against Mr. Pina, namely that contraband was in Mr. Pina's possession.
33. Defendant Wooten signed his criminal court complaint under Docket No. 2017BX030069, knowingly and falsely accusing Mr. Pina of Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance and other related charges, all of which Wooten knew to be untrue.
34. Mr. Pina was arraigned and formally charged with Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance and other related crimes.
35. At no point did Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, ever observe Mr. Pina commit any crime or offense.
36. At no point were the defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, ever told by any witnesses that Mr. Pina committed any crime or violation of the law.

37. Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion to arrest, detain or stop Mr. Pina.
38. Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, never possessed probable cause to believe a prosecution would succeed against Plaintiff, or that Plaintiff was guilty of any crime.
39. While Plaintiff was unlawfully detained, Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, acting with malice, conveyed the aforementioned false, misleading and incomplete information to prosecutors in order to have Plaintiff prosecuted for Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance and other related charges.
40. Defendants never possessed a legally issued warrant for plaintiff's arrest.
41. Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, intentionally, knowingly and falsely made said allegations to conceal their otherwise illegal, tortious and sinister acts, namely stopping a vehicle and searching the individuals illegally without a search warrant, probable cause or reasonable suspicion, and arresting multiple individuals without probable cause, due to no contraband being observed.
42. Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, suppressed evidence and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith.
43. Defendants have displayed a pattern and practice of falsely alleging contraband to be found to justify otherwise unwarranted arrests.
44. Defendants have displayed a pattern and practice of falsely arresting individuals present inside of vehicle where no contraband is observed and where the arrestee does not own the vehicle.
45. Plaintiff was wrongfully incarcerated for approximately two (2) days or approximately forty-eight (48) hours, until he was released on or about July 29, 2017.

46. Mr. Pina was forced to return to court more than ten (10) times to fight the false charges levied against him, until all charges were favorably terminated and dismissed on July 31, 2018.
47. During all of the events described, the Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, acted maliciously and with intent to injure Plaintiff.
48. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene when they observed others arresting Plaintiff without probable cause.
49. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith, or failed to intervene when defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.
50. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of the defendants, including Wooten and Bolivar, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
51. Mr. Pina was released after his arraignment on July 29, 2017 when the bail was posted.
