FACTUAL CHARGES

24. On or about January 16, 2021, at approximately at approximately 4:19 PM, Plaintiff was in the vicinity of 250 Baychester Ave., Bronx, NY when she was arrested on a non-bail eligible offense (Arrest No. B21601857).
25. After being brought into custody under arrest number B21601857 and interrogated, on January 17, 2021, at 12:25 AM, while in the vicinity of the 45 Precinct located at 2877 Barkley Avenue, Bronx, NY, Claimant was re-arrested and falsely arrested with Attempted Murder in the First Degree and other related charges under arrest number B21601907, by Defendants including JOEL BOLIVAR; MERITA HOXHA; ANTHONY DONATO; MICHAEL HUGHES; JOHN AND JANE DOE ONE TROUGH TWENTY, who were acting in concert, each aiding the other.
26. Defendants claimed Plaintiff was involved in a distressing incident that took place on January 13, 2021, in Bronx County where an individual, JR, was repeatedly struck with a crowbar and stabbed by ST while another individual, ST's wife "Michelle" looked on. Based on information and belief, while "Michelle" may have been present there was insufficient evidence to establish probable cause that "Michelle" had Attempted to Murder

- JR. Despite a lack of probable cause, Defendants nonetheless rushed to build a case against “Michelle”.
27. Plaintiff did not resist arrest and complied with all lawful orders.
 28. Based on information and belief, a Defendant supervisor was present and did not stop the unlawful arrest of Plaintiff.
 29. At the time of Plaintiff’s arrest, Defendants officers did not have probable cause or reasonable suspicion to believe Plaintiff had committed Attempted Murder in the First Degree and other related charges. Further, given the information available, Defendants knew or should have known Plaintiff was innocent of any wrongdoing or should have further inquired into the matter prior to making any arrest.
 30. Indeed, Defendants possessed or had access to ample information that demonstrated they were intending to and did arrest the wrong person, including witness statements, criminal-defendant statements, social media posts, public records, and audio recordings. While ignoring counter evidence, Defendants built a case against Plaintiff based on negligence, falsehood, and/or deception.
 31. After Plaintiff’s arrest, at the Precinct, Plaintiff was subjected to a search of the intimate parts of their body causing embarrassment and humiliation.
 32. Later Plaintiff was transported to Central Booking. While being transported Defendants perpetrated multiple assault and batteries upon her including, handcuffing Claimant excessively tight, and refusing to adjust the restraints despite demands for them to do so.
 33. Defendants, acting in concert, prepared false sworn affidavits and false police reports relating to Plaintiff’s arrest.

34. Respondents later provided false and incomplete information concerning the events to the District falsely stating that Plaintiff had committed a crime despite knowing that they lacked a legal and a factual basis to allege that Plaintiff committed any crime.
35. Members of the Bronx District Attorney's Office joined in the investigation and also participated in the violation of Claimant's rights.
36. The BRONX County District Attorney's Office charged Plaintiff with assorted crimes (Docket No. CR-000793-21BX), including the bail-eligible offense of Attempted Murder in the First Degree.
37. At Claimant's arraignment, bail was set by the presiding judge on Docket No. CR-000793-21BX, after being provided false and incomplete information.
38. Thereafter, Plaintiff was unlawfully detained for approximately seven months before being released.
39. During Plaintiff's confinement and while she was incarcerated at Rikers Island, in Rose M. Singer Center (RMSC), Plaintiff was assaulted by other inmates during which she was, among other things, punched in the face and pushed down, causing her physical and emotional injuries, the full extent of which are still unknown. Plaintiff's assault was a direct and proximate cause of her unlawful detention.
40. After Plaintiff's arraignment, the matter was presented to a Grand Jury (Grand Jury Number 40156/2021) and an indictment against Claimant was produced by Respondents utilizing fraud and/or perjury, and/or suppression of evidence and/or other police conduct undertaken in bad faith (Indictment No. 55/2021).
41. As an example, during the presentation to the Grand Jury the prosecutor presenting the case, provided the name of the Plaintiff to a testifying witness.

42. On August 18, 2022, the charges under IND-00055-21/001 were finally dismissed.
43. Defendants' actions and inactions did cause Plaintiff to become fearful for their life and safety and did cause emotional and physical injuries to Plaintiff, the extent of which is still unknown.
44. Some of the Defendant officers, as well as the Defendant City, knew or should have had reason to know of the assaulting officers' temperament and propensity for violence yet failed to appreciate the risk posed to the public and further failed to take adequate precautions to prevent the conduct as described herein.
45. The force used by Defendants caused Plaintiff personal, physical, and emotional injuries for which he later sought medical treatment.
46. During all of the events described, Defendants acted maliciously, willfully, knowingly and with the specific intent to injure Plaintiff and violate their civil rights.
47. Defendants were knowingly and deliberately indifferent to the possibility that its police officers, were wont to violate the constitutional rights of arrestees as described herein.
48. Some of the Defendant officers who did not participate in the incident but were otherwise present and observed the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights failed to intercede on Plaintiff's behalf.
49. Plaintiff's injury was a foreseeable result of Defendant officers unlawful conduct and was the proximate cause of their injuries.
50. The City has been on notice that Defendants JOEL BOLIVAR; MERITA HOXHA; ANTHONY DONATO; MICHAEL HUGHES; JOHN AND JANE DOE ONE TROUGH TWENTY have a history and practice of misconduct against individuals but failed to take appropriate corrective action.

51. Indeed, a review of their CCRB and Civil lawsuit history¹ shows the following: JOEL BOLIVAR (16 CCRB complaints with 2 substantiated allegations on 6 different dates, appears to be a named officer in a NYPD internal investigation, and being a named officer in several lawsuits alleging police misconduct including, Bronx Supreme Court 024892/2018E as well as Bronx Supreme Court 027714/2019E, NY Southern District Court 18CV03959); MERITA HOXHA (42 CCRB complaints with 15 substantiated allegations on 12 different dates, appears to be a named officer in a NYPD internal investigation, and also is a named officer in several lawsuits alleging police misconduct including, Bronx Supreme Court 024611/2017E as well as Bronx Supreme Court 029593/2019E); MICHAEL HUGHES (1 CCRB complaint); STARLIN DOMINGUEZ (14 CCRB complaints with 2 substantiated allegations on 9 different dates, as well as being a named officer in several lawsuits alleging police misconduct including, Bronx Supreme Court - 033464/2019E); ANTHONY DONATO (56 CCRB complaints with 2 substantiated allegations on 16 different dates, appears to be a named officer in a NYPD internal investigation, and being a named officer in several lawsuits alleging police misconduct including, Bronx Supreme Court - 818738/2022E, Bronx Supreme Court - 300891/2017, Bronx Supreme Court 031233/2018E, Bronx Supreme Court - 021851/2013E, Bronx Supreme Court - 021787/2020E, Bronx Supreme Court 021174/2019E, Bronx Supreme Court - 304399/2014, Bronx Supreme Court 028302/2018E as well as NY Southern District Court 20CV10857).

¹ The cited information was procured from Law Enforcement Lookup (LELU) “an extension of the Legal Aid Society’s Cop Accountability Project (CAP), which empowers organizations and communities across New York City to hold police officers accountable for civil rights violations” See <https://legalaidnyc.org/law-enforcement-look-up/>

52. The City has been on notice for more than a generation that brutality is widespread and that particular reforms need to be implemented. From reform-minded Commissioner Patrick Murphy to the Mollen Commission twenty-five years later, the City has been repeatedly cautioned that a systemic tolerance for brutality flourishes throughout the NYPD. Indeed, years before said violation was perpetrated upon Plaintiff, the Mollen Commission report noted, “This tolerance, or willful blindness, extends to supervisors as well.
53. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar conduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD, and the City of New York that the commission of such constitutionally violent behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD, and the City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City, NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the Civil Rights of those who may come into contact with police officers.
54. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employee of the NYPD, and the City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently, and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by the Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, or without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, The City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.
55. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption with the NYPD, and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to engage in the fabrication or misrepresentation or subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead reward and promote these officers including those who are implicated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

56. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article entitled Promotions, Not Punishments For Officers Accused of Lying, written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines the light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity of this type of evidence, in alarmingly small percentage of officers' misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's reluctance or to investigate or disciplines officers who lie and posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusation relating to the officers intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.
57. The NYPD has a long-standing and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article entitled 2495 Reports of Police Bias. One was deemed valid by the NYPD worried that within the last five years almost 2,500 several individuals have filed formal complaint with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with biased towards them, would not one single being substantiated by the NYPD such a finding is playing the incredible and obviously the result of a deliberately poor or non-existent investigatory protocol the report commitment to combat the prejudices and the bias is exhibited by many of their officers.

58. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.
59. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the city of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reason suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.
60. Defendant's actions, pursuant to plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the right of any individuals who may come into contact with dependents, should be inferred, because such makers deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers were supervisors of the NYPD, and City of New York.

61. Upon information and belief further details and facts relating to the unlawful policies customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers supervisors police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of Discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD, and the City of New York.
62. Upon information and belief, the personal files, records and disciplinary histories of the officers Defendants will reveal a history of constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's, knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or poor employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendant committed similar violations in the future was extremely high.
63. Upon information and belief said personnel files records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the city, and the NYPD were fully aware Defendant passed constitutional violations, unacceptably high probability for the reoccurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as Law Enforcement Officers, or for employment in general, and not the NYPD, and the City of New York to engage in any preventative or corrective action in the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the city of tacit approval of such misconduct or the city's deliberate indifference towards civil rights of those who may interact with employees including Plaintiff.
64. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of Defendants, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violation of their rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
