Plaintiff ANTHONY BROWN, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On November 10, 2021, at approximately 5:37 a.m., Plaintiff ANTHONY BROWN, while lawfully in front of 315 West 44th Street, in the County and State of New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, and excessive use of force by defendant Detective and Police Officers. In addition, Plaintiff was subjected to approximately five (5) days in unlawful custody at the 44th Precinct, New York County Central Booking, and Rikers Island. All charges against the plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on March 2, 2022. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law, and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys, and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff ANTHONY BROWN is a resident of the state of New York.

3. New York City Detective Argenys Concepcion, Shield No. 4786, was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. At all times relevant herein, New York City Detective Argenys Concepcion, Shield No. 4786, was assigned to the NYPD Midtown South Precinct.

5. New York City Detective Argenys Concepcion, Shield No. 4786, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

6. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. Police Officers John Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on January 19, 2023.

12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On November 10, 2021, at approximately 5:37 am., Plaintiff was lawfully present in front of 315 West 44th Street, County of NEW YORK, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

16. At the aforementioned place and time, the Plaintiff was walking home after spending time with his friends.

17. As Plaintiff was walking, a stranger bumped into Plaintiff and engaged him in a verbal disagreement.

18. Defendant officers approached Plaintiff and the stranger on the street and, absent of probable cause or reasonable suspicion that Plaintiff was involved in any criminal activity, and despite the fact that the argument was merely verbal and not physical, grabbed both parties and detained them in the street.

19. Defendant Detective and Officers then, absent of legal justification, grabbed Plaintiff's arms, pinned them behind his back, and put metal handcuffs on his wrists.

20. At no point did Plaintiff resist the unlawful arrest.

21. Plaintiff officers then conducted an illegal pat-down search of Plaintiff, which yielded no weapons or other illegal contraband.

22. Lacking probable cause or an articulable, credible reason to believe that Plaintiff was engaged in unlawful conduct, Defendant Detective and Officers transported Plaintiff to Midtown South Precinct in handcuffs, where they searched, photographed, and interrogated Plaintiff.

23. Plaintiff was held in the Midtown South Precinct for approximately an hour and a half before he was brought into an interrogation room by defendant officers.

24. During the interrogation, defendant officers showed Plaintiff security camera images captured from an unknown source depicting a group of people on the street from an incident that had occurred, upon information and belief, on the month prior to Plaintiff's arrest.

25. Defendant officers asked Plaintiff about the incident depicted in the images and Plaintiff explained that he had left the scene and had no knowledge of what occurred afterward and nor any involvement beyond merely being present.

26. In fact, the images that defendant officers showed Plaintiff plainly depicted Plaintiff leaving the scene of the incident.

27. Accordingly, defendant officers knew at the time that they had no lawful basis to charge Plaintiff, who had not engaged in any illegal conduct.

28. Eventually, Plaintiff was transported to New York County Central Booking, where he was fingerprinted, photographed and placed in a holding cell for seven hours.

29. While Plaintiff was in central booking, defendant officers knowingly transmitted false statements to the Manhattan District Attorney's Office, alleging that Plaintiff had committed a crime and causing him to be charged with a felony.

30. Plaintiff was transported to Manhattan Criminal Court and assigned an attorney. At Plaintiff's arraignment, based in part on the false allegations of defendant officers, the judge set bail in an amount that Plaintiff was unable to afford.

31. Plaintiff was transported to Riker's Island.

32. On December 17, 2022, after five days in Rikers Island – Mr. Brown was released pursuant to C.P.L. § 180.80 because Manhattan District Attorney's Office was unable to secure an indictment against him.

33. Plaintiff made several in person court appearances following his release.

34. On or about March 2, 2022, all charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed.

35. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

36. The unlawful arrest, confinement, and detention by the individually named defendants caused Mr. Brown to sustain psychological and emotional trauma.
