Plaintiffs, by their attorney, Sheindlin Law Firm, complaining of the defendant(s), allege upon information and belief as follows:

1. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff Michael Pacheco was a resident of the County of New York.
2. At all times mentioned herein, defendant The City of New York ("CNY") was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing by virtue of the Laws of the State of New York.
3. At all times mentioned herein, CNY maintained a police department, defendant New York City Police Department ("NYPD"), whose members were employees of CNY.
4. On January 29, 2021 and within ninety (90) days after the claim herein arose, the plaintiff served a Notice of Claim in writing and sworn to on his behalf upon CNY through an electronic delivery system authorized by CNY.

5. On April 1, 2021, plaintiff appeared and testified at a hearing in compliance with the request of CNY for an oral examination pursuant to Section 50-H of the General Municipal Law (“50h Hearing”).
6. At least thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of the claim and/or the 50h Hearing prior to the commencement of this action and adjustment of payment thereof has been neglected or refused, and this action has been commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claims are based.
7. At all times mentioned herein, NYPD was and is a department created, owned, supervised, controlled, directed, managed, maintained, inspected, trained and retained by CNY including its employees, agents and/or servants.
8. At all times mentioned herein, the police officers working within the NYPD are employees, agents and/or servants of CNY.
9. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, defendant Police Officer Salvatore Comodo (“PO Comodo”), Tax #960386, was employed by CNY as a police officer within NYPD.
10. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, PO Comodo was trained, supervised and working within the command of the NYPD.
11. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, PO Comodo’s actions as a police officer were in the course of his duties, furtherance of his employment with CNY and under the color of law.
12. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, PO Comodo possessed a duty to to uphold the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of New York and faithfully discharge his duties as a police officer in the New York City Police Department to the best of his ability.

13. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, PO Comodo was assigned to work within the NYPD's 018th Police Precinct.
14. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, defendant Sergeant William Morris ("SGT Morris"), Tax #952037, was employed by CNY as a police officer within NYPD.
15. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, Sgt. Morris was trained, supervised and working within the command of the NYPD.
16. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, Sgt. Morris' actions as a police officer were in the course of his duties, furtherance of his employment with CNY and under the color of law.
17. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, Sgt. Morris possessed a duty to uphold the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of New York and faithfully discharge his duties as a police officer in the New York City Police Department to the best of his ability.
18. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, Sgt. Morris was assigned to work within the NYPD's 018th Police Precinct.
19. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, the NYPD commanded, directed, instructed and otherwise assigned Sgt Morris to perform duties that included but were not limited to supervising police officers with respect to their arrest, detention, imprisonment and commencement of criminal prosecution of individuals.

20. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, defendant John Doe was employed by CNY as a police officer within NYPD.
21. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, John Doe was trained, supervised and working within the command of the NYPD.
22. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, John Doe's actions as a police officer were in the course of his duties, furtherance of his employment with CNY and under the color of law.
23. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, John Doe possessed a duty to to uphold the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of New York and faithfully discharge his duties as a police officer in the New York City Police Department to the best of his ability.
24. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, John Doe was assigned to work within the NYPD's 018th Police Precinct.
25. On or about July 22, 2020, Malaysa Verdejo ("Verdejo") reported to the NYPD that on July 13, 2020 property, which included a package and its contents ("Alleged Stolen Property"), was taken without her permission after she received a notification that it had been delivered to her apartment building located at 540 West 52nd Street, New York, New York ("Subject Premises").
26. On or about July 22, 2020, NYPD assigned and directed PO Comodo to investigate Verdejo's claim regarding the Alleged Stolen Property.

27. On or about July 22, 2020, Verdejo informed PO Comodo that the Alleged Stolen Property had been ordered from the e-commerce company named Amazon.
28. On or about July 22, 2020, Verdejo informed PO Comodo that the Alleged Stolen Property had been delivered by Amazon.
29. PO Comodo observed, via recorded video surveillance purportedly showing events on July 13, 2020 at approximately 08:00 p.m., that the plaintiff Michael Pacheco walk into the package area inside of the Subject Premises, take one package, and then leave the area with the package.
30. When PO Comodo observed the video surveillance recording of plaintiff Michael Pacheco carrying the package, he could not read the addressee's name on the package or see the contents of the package.
31. PO Comodo spoke to Blanca Garcia who informed him that she observed the above-referenced recorded video surveillance and identified the male individual who carried the package as plaintiff Michael Pacheco, an individual who resided in the Subject Premises.
32. On or about July 22, 2020 and continuing through January 27, 2021, PO Comodo knew or should have known that the ordering and delivery of packages from Amazon and other e-commerce businesses by residents of New York City was a common occurrence before the pandemic and more so during the pandemic.
33. On or about July 22, 2020 and continuing through January 27, 2021, PO Comodo never contacted Amazon to ask if it delivered any packages to anyone else in the building including the plaintiff on July 13, 2020.

34. On September 15, 2020, PO Comodo, knew or should have known that he did not possess sufficient evidence of probable cause to detain, arrest, charge or imprison plaintiff for stealing the Alleged Stolen Property.
35. On and before September 15, 2020, PO Comodo and John Doe worked together and discussed the allegations and the investigation related to the Alleged Stolen Property and, thus, John Doe was aware or should have been aware that there was insufficient evidence of probable cause to detain, arrest, charge or imprison plaintiff for stealing the Alleged Stolen Property.
36. On September 15, 2020, PO Comodo and John Doe went to plaintiff's residence to arrest him for stealing the Alleged Stolen Property.
37. On September 15, 2020 and continuing through September 16, 2020, PO Comodo and John Doe, working together, engaged in the following conduct: appeared at plaintiff's apartment residence at the Subject Premises to arrest him; observed plaintiff's young daughters present and watching the occurrence; could observe and was informed that plaintiff suffered from physical disabilities; chose to proceed with the unlawful arrest of plaintiff which included implied threats of force if plaintiff did not cooperate, searched plaintiff, handcuffed plaintiff, walked a handcuffed plaintiff through his apartment building, transported plaintiff in a NYPD vehicle to the police precinct, placed plaintiff in a jail cell, processed plaintiff's arrest (including photographs, fingerprints and filing official police reports), sought approval of the arrest and commencement of the criminal prosecution from his NYPD superiors (who wrongfully approved the arrest and malicious prosecution); and, during the arrest processing of plaintiff, PO Comodo, John Doe and Sgt. Morris chose to ignore the lack of probable cause, chose to ignore plaintiff's statements that he was innocent and chose to ignore plaintiff's offer to let the police access and look at the information on his handheld device (aka phone) that would have shown that plaintiff ordered and received a package with merchandise from Amazon on the same date.

38. On September 15, 2020 through January 27, 2021, CNY, NYP, PO Comodo, Sgt. Morris and John Doe refused to examine the relevant information on plaintiff's phone and, instead, chose to continue the arrest, confinement, malicious prosecution and violation of constitutional rights of plaintiff.
39. The following information represents fair and accurate copies of screenshots of information that was contained on plaintiff's phone:

40. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on September 15, 2021 through September 16, 2020, Sgt. Morris' duties included the review of arrests by police officers, including PO Comodo and John Doe, to ensure criminal charges were supported by sufficient evidence and otherwise lawful.

41. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on September 15, 2021 through September 16, 2020, Sgt. Morris possessed a duty to void an arrest and allow a prisoner, such as plaintiff, to be freed from custody and imprisonment if the criminal charges were not supported by sufficient evidence or otherwise lawful.
42. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on September 15, 2020, Sgt. Morris' duties included the review of recommendations by police officers, including PO Comodo, for the prosecution of individuals, such as plaintiff, by the criminal justice system.
43. At all times hereinafter mentioned including on September 15, 2020 through September 16, 2020, Sgt. Morris's possessed a duty to deny a recommendation by police officers for prosecution of individuals, such as plaintiff, by the criminal justice system if there was insufficient evidence of the crimes charged and/or lawfulness of the arrest.
44. On September 15, 2020 through January 27, 2021, Sgt. Morris violated his duty to properly interview PO Comodo, review the official paperwork, void the arrest and stop the continuation of plaintiff's unlawful arrest, custody, imprisonment and prosecution.
45. On September 16, 2020, PO Comodo, Sgt. Morris and John Doe caused a legal document to be issued to plaintiff that required him, under law, to appear on December 10, 2020 for an arraignment by the Criminal Court of the City of New York for the alleged violation of Penal Law 155.25, a crime punishable by up to one year in prison.

46. Below is a fair and accurate copy of the criminal complaint sworn to by PO Comodo on or about September 16, 2020:

CRIMINAL COURT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK
COUNTY OF NEW YORK
THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

-against-

Michael Pacheco (M 43),
Defendant.

MISDEMEANOR

Police Officer Salvatore Comodo, Shield #8832 of the Midtown North Precinct Detective Squad, states as follows:

The defendant is charged with:

PL 155.25 Petit Larceny
(defendant #1: 1 count)

On or about July 13, 2020 at about 8:00 P.M., inside 540 West 52 Street in the County and State of New York, the defendant stole property.

The factual basis for this charge is as follows:

I observed, via recorded video surveillance, the defendant walk into the package area inside of the above-described location, take one package, and then leave the area with said package.

I am informed by Blanca Garcia, of an address known to the District Attorney's Office, that she observed the above-described recorded video surveillance of an individual, who she recognized to be the defendant, take one package from the above-described location.

On September 15, 2020, at approximately 8:50 P.M., inside the Midtown North Detective Squad, in the County and State of New York, I observed the defendant state in substance to me: "Yeah, that's me in the still photos."

I am informed by Malaysia Verdeju, of an address known to the District Attorney's Office, that she is the owner of the above-referenced package and that the defendant did not have permission or authority to take or possess the property.

Defendant.

MISDEMEANOR

False statements made in this written instrument are punishable as a class A misdemeanor pursuant to section 210.45 of the Penal Law, and as other crimes.

Police Officer Salvatore Comodo

Date 09/16/20 Time 2235

47. On September 16, 2020 and continuing through January 27, 2021, PO Comodo, Sgt. Morris and John Doe violated their duties and otherwise caused plaintiff to be maliciously prosecuted for the violation of Penal Law 155.25 in the case captioned People of the State of New York vs. Michael Pacheco, Docket No. 2020 NY 3105978, pending in the Criminal Court of the City of New York.
48. On January 27, 2021, upon motion by the prosecution, the criminal action was fully dismissed and resolved in favor of plaintiff.
49. The above-described actions of each and every defendant including their employees, agents and/or servants resulted in defendants violating their duties and the plaintiff being deprived of the following rights under the Constitution of the United States and Constitution of the State of New York:
- a. Freedom from assault to his person;
 - b. Freedom from battery to his person;
 - c. Not to be deprived of liberty without due process of law;
 - d. To be free from seizure and arrest not based upon probable cause;
 - e. To be free from searches not based upon probable cause;
 - f. To be free from unwarranted and malicious criminal prosecution;
 - g. To receive equal protection under the law;
 - h. To be free from excessive force; and
 - i. To be free from unlawful confinement and imprisonment.
50. Each and every one of the defendants including their employees, agents and/or servants subjected the plaintiff to such deprivations, either in a malicious, intentional and/or reckless disregard of the plaintiff's rights or with deliberate indifference to those rights under the fourth and fourteenth amendmensts of the United States Constiution.

51. At all times relevant herein, each and every one of the defendants' negligence, recklessness and intentional conduct was a substantial factor in proximately causing plaintiff's violation of constitutional rights, injuries and damages.
52. At all times relevant herein, the limitations set forth in Article 1600 [Limited Liability of Persons Jointly Liable] do not apply to the present action.

AS FOR THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Assault and battery against all defendants)

53. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges all of the allegations contained in each of the preceding paragraphs with full force and effect as though set forth at length herein.
54. On September 15, 2020 and continuing through September 16, 2020, each and every one of the defendants engaged in conduct that constituted an assault and battery upon the person of plaintiff.
55. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff has been caused personal injuries and damages in an amount not capable of precise determination but exceeding the jurisdiction of all lower courts.
56. Upon information and belief and at times hereinafter mentioned, plaintiff is entitled to punitive damages from defendants PO Comodo, Sgt Morris and John Doe because their conduct was intentional, wanton, reckless, malicious, criminal, morally reprehensible and said conduct further implied a criminal indifference to, both, their civil obligations and the rights of others; and the amount of said damages is not capable of precise determination but shall not exceed the amount of ten million dollars.

AS FOR THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Unlawful arrest and imprisonment against all defendants)

57. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges all of the allegations contained in each of the preceding paragraphs with full force and effect as though set forth at length herein.
58. On September 15, 2020 and continuing through September 16, 2020, each and every one of the defendants including their employees, agents and/or servants were responsible for unlawfully restraining, arresting, detaining, confining and imprisoning the plaintiff; and said conduct and actions were without legal justification, without plaintiff's consent and not otherwise privileged by law and, at all times, the plaintiff was conscious of his restraint, arrest, detention, confinement and imprisonment.
59. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff has been caused personal injuries and damages in an amount not capable of precise determination but exceeding the jurisdiction of all lower courts.
60. Upon information and belief and at times hereinafter mentioned, plaintiff is entitled to punitive damages from defendants PO Comodo, Sgt Morris and John Doe because their conduct was intentional, wanton, reckless, malicious, criminal, morally reprehensible and said conduct further implied a criminal indifference to, both, their civil obligations and the rights of others; and the amount of said damages is not capable of precise determination but shall not exceed the amount of ten million dollars.

AS FOR THE THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(Malicious prosecution against all defendants)

61. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges all of the allegations contained in each of the preceding paragraphs with full force and effect as though set forth at length herein.

62. On or about the dates of September 15, 2020 and continuing through January 27, 2021, each and every one of the defendants engaged in the malicious prosecution of plaintiff.
63. Each and every one of the defendants including their employees, agents and/or servants were responsible, without sufficient legal cause or justification, for intentionally initiating, instigating and causing an unjust and malicious criminal prosecution against plaintiff.
64. As a result of the malicious prosecution, plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered the humiliation, mental anguish, indignity and frustration of an unjust criminal prosecution in which the plaintiff was forced to utilized the services of a criminal defense attorney and make multiple court appearances to defend his liberty against the unjust charges.
65. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff has been caused personal injuries and damages in an amount not capable of precise determination but exceeding the jurisdiction of all lower courts.
66. Upon information and belief and at times hereinafter mentioned, plaintiff is entitled to punitive damages from defendants PO Comodo, Sgt Morris and John Doe because their conduct was intentional, wanton, reckless, malicious, criminal, morally reprehensible and said conduct further implied a criminal indifference to, both, their civil obligations and the rights of others; and the amount of said damages is not capable of precise determination but shall not exceed the amount of ten million dollars.

AS FOR THE FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Negligent hiring, training, supervision and retention against CNY and NYPD)

67. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges all of the allegations contained in each of the preceding paragraphs with full force and effect as though set forth at length herein.
68. Upon information and belief including before, on and during the time period encompassing July 13, 2020 through January 27, 2021, Defendants CNY and NYPD were negligent in their hiring, training, supervision and retention of the police officers involved with the arrest, detention, confinement and prosecution of plaintiff.
69. Defendants CNY's and NYPD's negligence was evident by the following: (i) improper investigation by police officers who either did not understand or chose to ignore their lack of evidence to establish probable cause that plaintiff committed a crime and, despite this failing, they also refused to consider evidence corroborating the plaintiff's innocence; (ii) improper authorization and approval of a warrantless arrest of plaintiff; (iii) improper detention and confinement of plaintiff; (iv) recommendation and commencement of a malicious criminal prosecution; (v) improper supervision, authorization and approval by the supervising police officers of the above unlawful conduct; and (vi) allowing the malicious prosecution to proceed until its dismissal on January 27, 2021.
70. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff has been caused personal injuries and damages in an amount not capable of precise determination but exceeding the jurisdiction of all lower courts.
71. Upon information and belief and at times hereinafter mentioned, plaintiff is entitled to punitive damages from defendants PO Comodo, Sgt Morris and John Doe because their conduct was intentional, wanton, reckless, malicious, criminal, morally reprehensible and said conduct further implied a criminal indifference to, both, their civil obligations and the rights of others; and the amount of said damages is not capable of precise determination but shall not exceed the amount of ten million dollars.

AS FOR THE FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Violations of 42 U.S.C. 1983 against CNY and NYPD)

72. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges all of the allegations contained in each of the preceding paragraphs with full force and effect as though set forth at length herein.
73. The violation of plaintiff's constitutional and civil rights occurred in the presesnce, with the assistance and under the supervision of multiple police officers, and despite the readily apparent unlawful conduct, none of the police officers took appropriate actions to prevent or stop the multiple and ongoing violations of plaintiff's constitutional rights.
74. Defendant has grossly failed to train and adequately supervise its police officers in the fundamental law of arrest, search and seizure and where an individual, as here, has not committed a crime should not be criminally prosecuted, and they must properly use their training and guidelines to recognize and immediately release someone who has been detained, arrested and recommended for prosecution without probable cause.
75. CNY failed to implement a policy with its NYPD or actively enforce the law for the following:
 - a. Probable cause must be present before an individual such as plaintiff can be arrested;
 - b. Probable cause must be present before an individual such as plaintiff can be searched;

- c. Probable cause must be present before an individual such as plaintiff is prosecuted for a crime in the criminal justice system; and
- d. A supervisor must exercise his duties to not authorize an arrest, void an arrest, set an individual free from custody and confinement, and stop a criminal prosecution if there is a lack of evidence to establish probable cause that an individual, such as plaintiff, committed a crime.

- 76. These same fact patterns have repeated themselves for years in that such arrests without probable cause were made and, thereafter, wrongfully approved of by supervising officers and recommended for prosecution in the criminal justice system.
- 77. The pattern demonstrates that either a de facto policy/custom exists to allow this behavior by failing to discipline officers or this is a custom of its police officers who have no and/or insufficient training and/or no proper supervision and/or disciplinary penalties assessed against them for continued acting in an unconstitutional manner.
- 78. Such acts constituted a deprivation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights, liberties and freedoms under color of State Law, under 42 U.S.C. §1983.
- 79. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff should be awarded reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1988.
- 80. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff has been caused personal injuries and damages in an amount not capable of precise determination but exceeding the jurisdiction of all lower courts.
- 81. Upon information and belief and at times hereinafter mentioned, plaintiff is entitled to punitive damages from defendants PO Comodo, Sgt Morris and John Doe because their conduct was intentional, wanton, reckless, malicious, criminal, morally reprehensible and said conduct further implied a criminal indifference to, both, their civil obligations and the rights of others; and the amount of said damages is not capable of precise determination but shall not exceed the amount of ten million dollars.

WHEREFORE, each of the Plaintiffs separately demands a judgment against each and every Defendant, who is jointly and severally liable, on each of the five (5) causes of action for compensatory and punitive damages, including attorneys fees authorized by 42 USC 1988, and any other relief the Court determines is just and equitable.
