MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF NYPD'S DEVIATION FROM THE DISCIPLINARY SYSTEM PENALTY GUIDELINES

Re: PODS Case No. C-032516 regarding Police Officer Eleni Karagkouni

Date: December 22, 2025

This disciplinary matter was investigated by the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") which involved an allegation that Police Officer Karagkouni interfered with an individual's use of a recording device. CCRB has determined that a downward deviation from the Disciplinary System Penalty Guidelines is warranted.

I concur with the downward deviation for the reasons articulated by CCRB in the attached correspondence.

Therefore, the Charges and Specifications in this matter will be dismissed and Police Officer Karagkouni will receive Training, as negotiated by CCRB.

Re: CCRB v. PO Eleni Karagkouni CCRB# 202306957 // PODS #: C-032516

Commissioner Tisch:

I am writing to you regarding the plea in the above referenced case.

The CCRB recommend PO Karagkouni receive Formalized Training in this matter. This is a downward deviation from the NYPD's Disciplinary Matrix. The CCRB recommends this disposition for the following reasons:

1. PO Karagkouni agreed to take responsibility for her misconduct.
2. No prior discipline since PO Karagkouni was appointed in 2021.
3. Potential to rehabilitate behavior
4. Good faith demonstrated by PO Karagkouni and the absence of an intent by PO Karagkouni to violate procedural or legal standards.

Respectfully submitted,

Andre D. Applewhite
