Case Summary

On May 31, 2018, § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB and filed the following complaint. On June 4, 2018, the CCRB received a duplicate of this complaint, filed by § 87(2)(b) on May 25, 2018.

On May 18, 2018, at approximately 6:20 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was driving with § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) when they were stopped by Detective James Sgaglione and Police Officer Nicholas Bekas, both assigned to Queens South Narcotics Bureau, in an unmarked prisoner van, near the intersection of Dix Avenue and Chandler Street in Queens. Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas allegedly approached § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle with their firearms drawn, and shouted, "Get the fuck out of the truck!" (Allegations A and B: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g) Allegations C and D: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g) Det. Sgaglione allegedly pulled § 87(2)(b) out of his vehicle, handcuffed him, recovered several glassine envelopes of heroin from his person, and then he and PO Bekas allegedly pushed and dragged him over to the prisoner van (Allegations E and F: Force, § 87(2)(g) Before lodging him in the prisoner van, Det. Sgaglione potentially conducted a strip-search of § 87(2)(b) (Allegation G: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g) PO Bekas handcuffed § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) allegedly strip-searched § 87(2)(b) and lodged them in the prisoner van (Allegations H: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)

During the next three hours, § 87(2)(b) fell out of his chair onto the floor of the prisoner van several times, and in each instance, Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas stopped the prisoner van, came to the back, and allegedly told § 87(2)(b) "Get the fuck in the chair, you scumbag, motherfucker, drug dealer," and placed him back in his chair (Allegations I and J: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g) Each time he fell, § 87(2)(b) told the officers that he was having chest pains and needed to see a doctor, and Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas allegedly replied that there was nothing wrong with him, and told him that after they brought him to the 101st Precinct stationhouse, they would take him to see a doctor (Allegations K and L: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g) That evening, PO Bekas and Det. Sgaglione transported § 87(2)(b) to § 87(2)(b) where he received medical treatment. At an unknown time during the incident, Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas allegedly told § 87(2)(b) that they had "killed a drug dealer named § 87(2)(b) and that § 87(2)(b) "would be next" (Allegations M and N: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)

The investigation obtained video footage from the four cameras affixed within the prisoner van, that captures a portion of the incident (BR01).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A—Abuse of Authority: Detective James Sgaglione drew his gun.

Allegation B—Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Nicholas Bekas drew his gun.

Allegation C—Discourtesy: Detective James Sgaglione spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation D—Discourtesy: Police Officer Nicholas Bekas spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation E—Force: Detective James Sgaglione used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation F—Force: Police Officer Nicholas Bekas used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that on May 18, 2018, at approximately 6:30 p.m., he was driving in his yellow, 2007 Nissan Xterra SUV, with his nurse, § 87(2)(b) and her brother-in-law, § 87(2)(b) when they were stopped by an unmarked NYPD van in the vicinity of Chandler Street and Dix Avenue in Queens (BR02). Det. Sgaglione approached the driver side and PO Bekas approached the passenger side of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle, respectively. Both officers approached with their firearms drawn, and shouted, "Get the fuck out the truck!" However, § 87(2)(b) clarified that he only observed Det. Sgaglione with his firearm drawn since he had approached the driver side. § 87(2)(b) was unable to describe what Det. Sgaglione was in fact doing with the gun, how he was holding it, at what point he observed Det. Sgaglione holding his gun, or when he holstered it.

§ 87(2)(b) asked the officers what was going on but they did not respond and repeatedly ordered him to get out of his vehicle. § 87(2)(b) told Det. Sgaglione that he needed his wheel chair which was in the trunk. Det. Sgaglione opened the driver side door, grabbed § 87(2)(b) by his arms and shoulders, and physically pulled him out of the vehicle. § 87(2)(b) held onto the door, told Det. Sgaglione that he was going to fall, and Det. Sgaglione replied, "Yeah, yeah, whatever." § 87(2)(b) stated that Det. Sgaglione did not believe he needed a wheelchair, and that both officers laughed at him, handcuffed him, and then dragged him to the unmarked van and placed him inside. § 87(2)(b) was unable to provide any further details or description regarding specifically how Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas dragged him to the unmarked van. Det. Sgaglione told § 87(2)(b) that he was being arrested for "being a drug dealer." § 87(2)(b) denied that he, § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b) were in possession of any amount of heroin on the incident date.

§ 87(2)(b) stated upon being stopped by the unmarked NYPD van, PO Bekas approached the passenger side, ordered her and § 87(2)(b) to exit the vehicle, and they complied (BR07). § 87(2)(b) did not see any officer draw their firearm, and did not observe how § 87(2)(b) exited his vehicle, nor how § 87(2)(b) was escorted to the unmarked NYPD van.

The investigation obtained one video, that displays footage from four cameras affixed within the prisoner van, which captured the initial portion of the incident (BR01). A Snagit video clip was created (BR05) in order to present the relevant portion, as described below. The clip begins with Det. Sgaglione leading § 87(2)(b) into the frame from the righthand side, wherein § 87(2)(b) is seen standing and walking without issue. Det. Sgaglione leads § 87(2)(b) into the back of the prisoner van, wherein he is seen walking up the steps on his own, and the sits in a seat.

Det. Sgaglione stated that, leading up to the incident date, the Narcotics Bureau Queens South began surveilling and investigating § 87(2)(b) who was known to the command as a potential heroin dealer (BR03). Det. Sgaglione and other detectives learned about § 87(2)(b) and his activities from several civilians and business owners from the community who provided debriefs and expressed concerns to the detectives.

On May 18, 2018, at approximately 5:30 p.m., Det. Sgaglione and his partner, PO Bekas, were in an unmarked prisoner van, while Sgt. Gagliardi, Det. Ramdat, and Det. Pilios were in an unmarked mini-van, both parked in the vicinity of § 87(2)(b)'s residence, § 87(2)(b) in Queens. Det. Sgaglione observed a vehicle pull up to § 87(2)(b)'s home, and § 87(2)(b) exited and approached the residence. Det. Sgaglione said that § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) appeared to conduct a narcotics transaction, wherein § 87(2)(b) gave § 87(2)(b) money in exchange for heroin. § 87(2)(b) returned to her vehicle, entered the back seat, and the vehicle drove away. Sgt. Gagliardi's mini-van pursued § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle, and conducted a vehicle stop a few blocks away, while Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas remained parked outside of § 87(2)(b)'s residence. A few minutes later, § 87(2)(b) exited his home, walked to his vehicle and entered the driver side of his yellow Nissan Xterra. § 87(2)(b) drove away and Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas pursued. Sgt. Gagliardi informed Det. Sgaglione over the radio that § 87(2)(b) had been found in possession of heroin, and directed Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas to stop § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle and place him under arrest. Det. Sgaglione pulled § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle over in the vicinity of Chandler Street and Dix Avenue in Queens.

Det. Sgaglione approached the driver side and PO Bekas approached the passenger side. Det. Sgaglione denied that he drew his firearm during approach, and denied that there was any reason to as "it was a routine stop" without incident, but did not know if PO Bekas drew his firearm. Det. Sgaglione ordered § 87(2)(b) to turn the vehicle off, exit the vehicle, and he complied. Det. Sgaglione did not recall using profanity during the incident, denied that any officer told § 87(2)(b) to "get the fuck out of the truck," and denied that he physically removed § 87(2)(b) from his vehicle. Upon exiting the vehicle, Det. Sgaglione handcuffed § 87(2)(b) frisked and searched him, recovered several glassine envelopes of heroin from his pocket, and lodged him in the prisoner van.

§ 87(2)(g), PO Bekas stated that Det. Ramdat observed the hand-to-hand transaction between § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) and apprised him and Det. Sgaglione over the radio (BR04). PO Bekas denied that he was concerned for his or his partner's safety during approach and denied that he or Det. Sgaglione had their firearms drawn when they approached § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle. PO Bekas denied that he or Det. Sgaglione told § 87(2)(b) to "get the fuck out of the truck," and added that § 87(2)(b) was very compliant at the outset of his arrest. PO Bekas denied that Det. Sgaglione pulled or otherwise physically removed § 87(2)(b) from the driver seat of his vehicle. PO Bekas denied that he or Det. Sgaglione dragged § 87(2)(b) to the prisoner van, and denied that any officer used any level or application of force during the incident. Det. Sgaglione ordered § 87(2)(b) seated in the driver seat, to exit the vehicle and he complied.

Allegation G—Abuse of Authority: Detective James Sgaglione strip-searched § 87(2)(b)

As discussed above, the investigation obtained one video, that displays footage from four cameras affixed within the prisoner van, that captured a portion of the incident (BR01). A section of the video was enlarged and viewed side-by-side with the original (BR06) as described below.

In the side-by-side video clip, Det. Sgaglione is seen leading § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs into frame from the righthand side. After he opens the rear prisoner van doors, Det. Sgaglione appears to reach into the waistband of § 87(2)(b)'s pants, looks inside, and appears to either reach inside or further inspect within his pants, however, the video is obscured by Det. Sgaglione's head. After, § 87(2)(b) enters the prisoner van followed by Det. Sgaglione.

In a follow-up phone call, § 87(2)(b) stated that he did not remember or think that any officer frisked or searched him before he was placed inside the prisoner van.

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation H—Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Nicholas Bekas strip-searched § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that before § 87(2)(b) was placed in the prisoner van with him and the other apprehended individuals, PO Bekas allegedly strip-searched § 87(2)(b) (BR02). § 87(2)(b) alleged that PO Bekas "was going under her brassiere, all of that," during the search. When asked if PO Bekas' hands actually went under § 87(2)(b)'s clothing, § 87(2)(b) stated, "As far as I seen, but I wasn't right there in front...My perception was [PO Bekas'] put his hands inside § 87(2)(b)'s clothing," but ultimately stated that he did not know where PO Bekas' hands went when he searched § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) stated that upon exiting the vehicle after being ordered to do so, PO Bekas patted down the exterior of her waist band and then began to lift the left side of her shirt (BR07). § 87(2)(b) stated that when the PO Bekas began to lift her shirt, she asked what he was doing and pushed his hand away. § 87(2)(b) clarified that PO Bekas' hands touched the skin of her stomach but his hands did not go into her pants. § 87(2)(b) asked why he was searching her and PO Bekas replied that he was looking for drugs. § 87(2)(b) said that he could search her, and stated, "You can even check my blood because I don't do drugs." After patting down § 87(2)(b) PO Bekas handcuffed her and lodged her in the prisoner van.

In a second Snagit clip (BR08) taken from the prisoner van video footage, shows § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) being escorted to the back of the prisoner van by PO Bekas and Det. Ramdat, respectively. To note, § 87(2)(b) is seen in the top-right panel, looking out toward § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) through the open rear prisoner van doors. PO Bekas removes § 87(2)(b)'s effects from his pockets and places them in a manila envelope, as Det. Ramdat briefly checks § 87(2)(b)'s jean jacket chest pocket, and pats her front and back pockets, without removing any effects. PO Bekas then assists § 87(2)(b) and then § 87(2)(b) into the back of the prisoner van.

§ 87(2)(g)
Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas stated that after § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed and lodged within the prisoner van, they ordered § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) to exit § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle and both individuals complied. Both PO Bekas and Det. Sgaglione acknowledged that they frisked and field-searched § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) and both denied that any officer lifted § 87(2)(b)'s shirt, placed their hands under her shirt, or searched beneath her clothing. Det. Sgaglione elaborated that they only did a brief frisk and search of § 87(2)(b) at the scene as their unit did not have a female officer with them, and a more thorough search of § 87(2)(b) was conducted later at the 101st Precinct stationhouse by a female officer.

After an arrest has been effected and prisoner has been handcuffed, arresting officers are directed to immediately field search/frisk prisoner and search adjacent vicinity for weapons, evidence, and/or contraband. Patrol Guide, Procedure 208-03 (BR09).

Allegation K—Detective James Sgaglione did not obtain medical treatment for § 87(2)(b)

Allegation L—Police Officer Nicholas Bekas did not obtain medical treatment for § 87(2)(b)

Allegation M— Abuse of Authority: Detective James Sgaglione threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

Allegation N— Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Nicholas Bekas threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

Once Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas resumed patrol after all four prisoners were lodged, § 87(2)(b) fell off of his seat onto the floor of the van (BR02). § 87(2)(b) was unable to describe how he came to fall from his seat after being buckled in. The officers stopped the van, came to the back, and told § 87(2)(b) “Get the fuck in the chair, you scumbag, motherfucker, drug dealer! Get in the fucking chair!” § 87(2)(b) told the officers that he had pain in his chest and needed to see a doctor. Both officers replied, “Get the fuck in the chair!” § 87(2)(b) said that he told the officers that his arms and legs were swelling, and repeated that he needed to see a doctor. However, the officers merely laughed at § 87(2)(b) and repeated that there was nothing wrong with him.

The officers put § 87(2)(b) back into the chair in the van, and resumed driving. Approximately 15 minutes later, § 87(2)(b) fell off his chair and onto the floor again. § 87(2)(b) stated that this pattern falling off his chair onto the floor, the officers stopping the van, and placing him back into his chair happened several times over several hours, and that each time the van stopped, the officers would give § 87(2)(b) a cigarette which she would smoke within the prisoner van despite the complaints from the other prisoners. When asked if § 87(2)(b) was removed from handcuffs to have the multiple cigarettes, § 87(2)(b) stated that he did not know how exactly § 87(2)(b) was able to smoke the numerous cigarettes in the back of the unmarked van while her hands were cuffed behind her back. § 87(2)(b) requested to see a doctor each time he fell to the floor of the van, and the last time he fell, the officers told him that they had to go to the 101st Precinct stationhouse first, and then they would take him to a hospital.

Once the unmarked van arrived at the 101st Precinct stationhouse, the officers processed § 87(2)(b)'s arrest, and then transported him to an unknown medical facility. When asked if the medical professions treated him for the ailments he had initially requested medical attention for, § 87(2)(b) stated no, and that, “It was weird...[the medical professional] said ‘You sound good, you’re lungs sound good...You’re cleared for confinement.’” After being treated, § 87(2)(b) was discharged.

When he initially filed this complaint (BR10), § 87(2)(b) alleged that Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas told him at an unknown point during the incident that they “had killed the last drug dealer named § 87(2)(b) and that he would be next.” In his CCRB interview (BR02), § 87(2)(b) omitted the allegation, and after being apprised of what he had alleged, he replied, “Oh yeah, I forgot about that.” § 87(2)(b) did not know when Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas told him this, did not know who the individual named “§ 87(2)(b) was, and did not have a response to the officers’ statement.

§ 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(b) stated that § 87(2)(b) fell off of his chair approximately five times while within the prisoner van, told the officers that he was a “sick man” and needed his medication, and asked to be taken to § 87(2)(b) (BR07). § 87(2)(b) stated that Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas did not “want to believe” § 87(2)(b) but was unable to elaborate or explain why she thought that. Each time § 87(2)(b) fell, the officers stopped the prisoner van, replaced § 87(2)(b) in his chair, and put a cigarette in § 87(2)(b)'s mouth which she would smoke within the prisoner van while remaining handcuffed. § 87(2)(b) stated that the last time he fell, § 87(2)(b) asked the officers for a cigarette which he smoked in the prisoner van with the doors open. § 87(2)(b) did not know if the officers used profanity, and stated that the officers transported § 87(2)(b) to § 87(2)(b) after his arrest was processed at the 101st Precinct stationhouse.

The Post-Tac plan (BR14) prepared by Det. Ramdat, reported that § 87(2)(b) requested to be taken to § 87(2)(b) for chest pains, and was transported to § 87(2)(b) at approximately § 87(2)(b).

Although the prisoner van video footage does not capture the entire incident (BR01), and ends before time wherein the allegations in this section occurred, in a third Snagit clip (BR15), Det. Pilios is seen buckling § 87(2)(b)'s safety belt and tightening the strap, consistent with the officers' testimonies.

Det. Sgaglione's (BR03) and PO Bekas' (BR04) § 87(2)(g) described § 87(2)(b) as being initially compliant, and that he became uncooperative during the course of the next few hours. The officers observed § 87(2)(b) unbuckle his safety belt and lie down on the floor of the prisoner van via the interior cameras several times that evening. In each instance, PO Bekas and Det. Sgaglione stopped the prisoner van, lifted § 87(2)(b) off the floor, placed him back in his seat, and re-buckled his safety belt. PO Bekas denied that he or Det. Sgaglione told § 87(2)(b) to "get the fuck in the chair, you scumbag drug dealer," denied that any officer said, "fuck you," to § 87(2)(b) and denied that any officer referred to him as a "motherfucker," during any of the times § 87(2)(b) removed his safety belt and laid on the floor. PO Bekas added that during one of the stops, he and Det. Sgaglione added a second pair of handcuffs to § 87(2)(b)'s wrists, in order to relieve the pressure on his shoulders.

After replacing § 87(2)(b) in his chair several times, Det. Sgaglione parked the prisoner van in front of the 101st Precinct stationhouse to wait for the rest of the detectives in the unit to arrive. Both officers acknowledged that § 87(2)(b) said that he wanted medical attention during his time within the prisoner van, however, he also stated that "he would be fine if he was able to smoke a cigarette." PO Bekas and Det. Sgaglione stated that § 87(2)(b) wanted to smoke a cigarette once they had parked in front of the stationhouse. PO Bekas added that § 87(2)(b) also wanted to have a cigarette, and after § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) confirmed that they were ok with them smoking a cigarette, Det. Sgaglione gave § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) a cigarette each and allowed them to smoke in the two seats closest to the back of the prisoner van with both doors open. PO Bekas and Det. Sgaglione denied that any other cigarettes were had by any of the prisoners prior to one § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) each had in front of the stationhouse, and denied that any prisoner smoked any cigarettes while the van was in motion or while the doors were closed.

Once Sgt. Gagliardi's vehicle arrived, Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas escorted § 87(2)(b) into the 101st Precinct stationhouse. Later that evening during arrest processing, § 87(2)(b) complained of back pain and requested medical attention. Det. Sgaglione and PO Bekas transported § 87(2)(b) to § 87(2)(b) wherein he received treatment. Both officers stated they had multiple conversations with § 87(2)(b) at § 87(2)(b) regarding other narcotics locations within the 101st Precinct that he was aware of. PO Bekas said that he did not elicit these conversations, but rather § 87(2)(b) began offering him information in order to sign up as a confidential informant. While Det. Sgaglione was not aware of any individual known to the 101st Precinct named "§ 87(2)(b)" (BR03), PO Bekas acknowledged to being aware of the individual (BR04). Both officers denied discussing "§ 87(2)(b)" with § 87(2)(b) denied that any officer told § 87(2)(b) that they "had killed" § 87(2)(b) and denied that any officer threatened or told § 87(2)(b) that he "would be next."
