Plaintiff GUY MCEACHIN, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On August 11, 2017, at approximately 6:00 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully present inside of his uncle's apartment located at 13-10 Redfern Avenue, Apt. 3C, Queens, NY, when the defendant police officers unlawfully entered the apartment and searched the apartment and the individuals present without probable cause or any legal justification. The defendants unlawfully seized, unlawfully handcuffed, falsely imprisoned and falsely arrested plaintiff without probable cause or any legal justification to believe plaintiff committed a crime or violated the law in any manner. Thereafter, the defendants denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial and maliciously prosecuted plaintiff until the Judge agreed to dismiss all charges on November 17, 2017. As a result of the false arrest, malicious prosecution and denial of plaintiff's right to due process and a fair trial, plaintiff was imprisoned for approximately 14 days in Department of Correction custody. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully searched, confined, arrested, imprisoned, denied him rights to a fair trial, and maliciously prosecuted plaintiff in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

21. Plaintiff sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

22. On August 11, 2017, at approximately 6:00 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully present inside of his Uncle's apartment located at 13-10 Redfern Avenue, Apt. 3C, Queens, NY.

23. On August 11, 2017, at approximately 6:00 a.m., the defendant police officers unlawfully entered 13-10 Redfern Avenue, Apt. 3C, Queens, NY, and unlawfully searched the apartment and the individuals present.

24. Plaintiff immediately informed the defendant police officers that he did not live at 13-10 Redfern Avenue, Apt. 3C, Queens, NY and provided his identification indicating that plaintiff did not live at the apartment.

25. Further, plaintiff's Uncle stated to the police officers that he was the lawful tenant of the apartment.

26. At no time relevant herein did defendants recover any illegal drugs, weapons, or contraband from plaintiff's person, or from a location that was in plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

27. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any manner, nor did the defendant officers have probable cause to believe he committed a crime or violated the law.

28. Nevertheless, plaintiff was unlawfully handcuffed and transported against his will to the 101st Precinct where he was searched, photographed, fingerprinted, and placed in a holding cell.

29. At no time did the defendant police officers recover any drugs, contraband or other illegal paraphernalia from plaintiff.

30. On August 11, 2017, at approximately 11:00 p.m., plaintiff was transported from the 101st Precinct to Queens Central Booking and placed in a holding cell.

31. The defendant police officers intentionally provided the Queens County District Attorney's Office with false, misleading and incomplete information regarding their basis for arresting and prosecuting plaintiff and falsely charged plaintiff with crimes he did not commit.

32. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Queens County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff lived inside of the apartment when the defendant police officers knew that plaintiff did not live inside the apartment. Further, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Queens District Attorney's Office that plaintiff was in possession of drugs and contraband when they knew that plaintiff was no in possession of drugs or contraband.

33. Based upon the false, misleading and/or incomplete information provided to the District Attorney's Office by the defendant police officers, a prosecution was initiated against plaintiff.

34. On August 12, 2017 at approximately 12:00 p.m., after approximately 30 hours in unlawful custody, plaintiff was arraigned in Queens Criminal Court and charged with crimes he did not commit.

35. Plaintiff was unlawfully charged with Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the Third Degree amongst other charges.

36. The judge set bail, which plaintiff was unable to post, and plaintiff was remanded to custody of the Department of Correction and transported to Riker's Island.

37. On August 16, 2017, based on the false, misleading, and/or incomplete information provided by the defendant police officers, the grand jury indicted plaintiff for crimes he did not commit.

38. Specifically, plaintiff was only indicated for Criminally Using Paraphernalia in the Second Degree.

39. The presumption of probable cause created by the Grand Jury indictment is rebuttable in this case because the indictment was based upon false statements told to the grand jury and/or false information documented in reports and paperwork by the defendant police officers.

40. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated in the grand jury that plaintiff was in possession, custody, and control of the controlled substances and drug paraphernalia they allegedly recovered despite knowing that, in fact, plaintiff's uncle, James Collington, was the lawful tenant of the apartment and that any drugs or contraband found in the apartment was in the possession, custody or control of James Collington only. The officers also falsely stated to the Grand Jury that plaintiff lived in the apartment when they knew he in fact did not live in the apartment.

41. On August 25, 2017, after approximately 14 days in unlawful custody, plaintiff was able to post bail and was released from custody.

42. Thereafter, plaintiff was required to make approximately five additional court appearances until November 17, 2017 when the Judge agreed to dismiss all charges.

43. As a result of the false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, and denial of the right to fair trial, on or about August 16, 2017 while in custody of the NYC Department of Correction, plaintiff was assaulted by NYC Correction Officers and suffered physical injuries, including but not limited to pain to his ribs.

44. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable search, seizure, false arrest, denial of the right to due process/ fair trial and malicious prosecution of plaintiff.

45. The unlawful search, false arrest/ imprisonment, denial of a right to fair trial, and malicious prosecution of plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment, Fifth Amendment and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

46. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 45 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

47. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be unlawfully seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, denied of his right to fair trial and maliciously prosecuted without probable cause in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, denial of his right to due process under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

48. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

49. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 48 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

50. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

51. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

52. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

53. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 52 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

54. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

55. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

56. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

57. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

58. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 57 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

59. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

60. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

61. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

62. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

63. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

64. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

65. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

66. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

67. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 66 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

68. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff, Guy McEachin. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

69. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.

70. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

71. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 70 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

73. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 72 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

74. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Queens County District Attorney's Office.

75. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Queens County District Attorney's Office.

76. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Queens County District Attorney's Office.

77. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff Guy McEachin, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

78. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff Guy McEachin, sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

79. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

80. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

81. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

82. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 81 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

83. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

84. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

85. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of her safety, and she was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

86. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

JURY DEMAND

87. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Guy McEachin demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorneys fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
