Plaintiff MARK SHIMAN, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified
Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On October 7, 2022, at approximately 1:22 p.m., Plaintiff MARK SHIMAN was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. Plaintiff suffered mental and emotional injury as a result of his unlawful arrest. Plaintiff was subjected to unlawful imprisonment for approximately thirty-six (36) hours before he was finally released. All charges against the Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on or around November 21, 2022. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and fabricated evidence against Plaintiff in violation of the Fourth, Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff MARK SHIMAN is a resident of the state of New York.
3. NYPD Police Officer Gregg N. Badalamenti, Shield No. 27501, was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. NYPD Police Officer Gregg N. Badalamenti, Shield No. 27501, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

5. NYPD Police Officer Gregg N. Badalamenti, Shield No. 27501, was at all times relevant herein assigned to the NYPD 62nd Precinct.

6. NYPD Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. NYPD Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

9. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

10. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

11. On October 7, 2022, at approximately 1:22 p.m., Plaintiff was lawfully present inside his house in the vicinity of 69 Avenue O, County of Kings, State of New York, when he was subjected to an unlawful search, false arrest, false imprisonment, and denial of various constitutional rights by the defendant NYPD police officers.

12. At the aforementioned place and time, Plaintiff, a minor at the time, looked out his window to see a 3rd party stranger attempting to steal his bike.

13. Plaintiff went outside to tell the 3rd party to get off his bike and leave the location.

14. The 3rd party points a screw driver at Plaintiff, threatens him, and says, "This is my bike now."

15. The 3rd Party then gets off the bike and attacks Plaintiff.

16. Plaintiff defends himself by hitting the 3rd Party with a bat, and then calls 911 for Police.

17. This entire incident is captured on high definition video surveillance.

18. After the encounter, Plaintiff returned to his apartment and waited for the arrival of defendant NYPD police officers.

19. A few minutes later, police arrive, and speak with Plaintiff.

20. Police watch the video surveillance, and it is obvious Plaintiff was being attacked and robbed.

21. Defendant police officers still arrest Plaintiff even though they had exculpatory evidence in their possession.

22. It was obvious based on the video surveillance in the possession of police at the time of arrest that Plaintiff was the victim.

23. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

24. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did defendant police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

25. At no point did defendant police officers recover any drugs, weapons, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

26. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by defendant police officers, and restrained with metal handcuffs.

27. Plaintiff was placed in the back of an NYPD vehicle and transported to an NYPD Police Station against his will; upon information and belief, the NYPD 62nd Precinct.

28. At the 62nd Precinct, Plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a juvenile room.

29. Plaintiff's mother came to the 62nd Precinct, but defendant police officers did not allow Plaintiff to see her.

30. Defendant police officers transported Plaintiff to Kings County Family Court, not aware that Family Court was closed.

31. After being brought to Family Court, Plaintiff was promptly returned to the 62nd Precinct, where he was once again placed in a juvenile room.

32. Plaintiff was then transferred to Kings County Central Bookings, where he was placed in a holding cell over night, as a minor.

33. Upon information and belief, during his time in custody, defendant police officers falsely communicated, or had communicated on their behalf, allegations that Plaintiff had committed a crime to Kings County District Attorney's Office, to wit: Assault in the Second Degree and other related charges.

34. The plaintiff was arraigned in Criminal Court, charged with crimes he did not commit, and was released on supervised release.

35. Plaintiff was forced to hire a private criminal defense attorney for approximately $5,000 to defend against these false charges.

36. As soon as the Kings County District Attorneys office reviewed the video surveillance from the police, all charges were promptly dismissed on November 21, 2022.

37. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, falsely arresting and imprisoning, humiliating, and denying Plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial.

38. The unlawful search, seizure, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of Plaintiff's right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological, and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

39. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

40. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

41. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

42. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the United States Constitution.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

66. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

67. The individually named parole officer and police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

68. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

69. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

70. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

71. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the United States Constitution.

72. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

73. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

74. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

75. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

76. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered significant mental and emotional injuries, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear for his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

77. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the United States Constitution.

78. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

79. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

80. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

81. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

82. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

83. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

84. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

85. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

86. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

87. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

88. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately thirty-six (36) hours in total.

89. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

90. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

91. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

92. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

93. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

94. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

95. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

96. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

97. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

98. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

99. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

100. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

101. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately thirty-six (36) hours in total.

102. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

103. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

104. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

105. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

106. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

107. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

108. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

109. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

110. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

111. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

112. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of his person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

113. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

114. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

115. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

116. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
