Plaintiff, by his attorneys, BRANDEL & STAMBO LAW, PLLC, complaining of the Defendants, respectfully alleges, upon information and belief:

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION (FALSE ARREST)

1. That at the time of the commencement of this action, Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON resided in the County of Kings, City and State of New York.
2. That the cause of action alleged herein arose in the County of Kings, City and State of New York.
3. That at all of the times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, was a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.
4. That at all the times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, maintained, managed, controlled and operated a Police Department within its - boundaries and jurisdiction.

5. That at all the times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, maintained, managed, controlled and operated a Police Department within its boundaries and jurisdiction, and which said Police Department employed the defendants, POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN/JANE DOES” being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.
 6. That at all of the said times and places hereinafter mentioned, the defendants, POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN/JANE DOES” being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, were in the employ of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.
 7. That at all of the said times and places hereinafter mentioned, the defendants, POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN/JANE DOES” being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, were acting within the scope of their employment with and under the color of authority of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.
 8. That on May 5, 2023, the plaintiff presented, served and filed a notice of claim with intention to sue thereon upon the Comptroller of the City of New York.
 9. That the Comptroller of the City of New York requested that the plaintiff attend an oral hearing but has not scheduled same, despite the passage of more than ninety (90) days. Plaintiff is – and remains – ready to appear for an oral hearing.
 10. That more than 30 days have elapsed and expired since the presentation of the notice of claim and intention to sue, and the Comptroller of the City of New York has failed and neglected to pay or adjust the said claim or any part thereof.

11. That the plaintiff has presented, served and filed his Notice of Claim and Intention to Sue thereon, as aforesaid, within 90 days after the date of the occurrence herein.
12. That this action was commenced within one year and 90 days since the happening of this accident and occurrence.
13. That the plaintiff has, prior to the commencement of this action, complied with all of the provisions of law in such cases made and provided.
14. That heretofore and on or around April 7, 2023, the plaintiff was lawfully on Broadway, at/near its intersection with Roebling Street, in the County of Kings, City and State of New York.
15. That at the aforesaid time and place, the plaintiff was caused to be detained by officers of the New York City Police Department, including, but not limited to Defendants POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN/JANE DOES” being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.
16. That at the aforesaid time and place, the plaintiff was falsely, unjustly and without cause, arrested by said officers, including, but not limited to, POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN/JANE DOES” being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.
17. That, upon information and belief, the aforesaid unlawful arrest and detention, continued thereafter at Woodhull Hospital, in the County of Kings, City and State of New York.
18. That, upon information and belief, the plaintiff was then placed under custodial arrest and held in a cell at the 90th Precinct Station House, located at 211 Union Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11211.

19. That, upon information and belief, thereafter the custodial arrest continued at Brooklyn Central Booking, 120 Schermerhorn Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201.
20. That, upon information and belief, the aforementioned custodial arrest continued further at Woodhull Hospital, in the County of Kings, City and State of New York.
21. That, upon information and belief, the aforementioned custodial arrest subsequently continued at the 90th Precinct Station House, located at 211 Union Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11211.
22. That, upon information and belief, the aforementioned custodial arrest further continued at Brooklyn Central Booking, 120 Schermerhorn Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201.
23. That at all the said times, the aforesaid police officers, including, but not limited to, defendants POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN/JANE DOES” being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, who detained, and who falsely, unjustly and without cause, arrested this plaintiff were agents, servants and/or employees of the defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
24. That at all the said times, the aforesaid police officers, including, but not limited to defendants, POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN/JANE DOES” being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, who detained, and who falsely, unjustly and without cause, arrested this plaintiff, were on duty and acting within the course and scope of their employment.

25. That at all the said times, the afore described detainment and false arrest of this plaintiff by officers of the New York City Police Department, including, but not limited to, defendants, POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN/JANE DOES” being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, was without just cause, probable cause or provocation.
26. That as a result of the foregoing, the defendants, its agents, servants and/or employees violated plaintiff's civil rights.
27. That as a result of the foregoing, the defendants, its agents, servants and/or employees violated plaintiff's New York State Constitutional rights.
28. That as a result of the foregoing, the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees violated plaintiff's federal rights under the Constitution of the United States of America.
29. That as a result of the foregoing, the defendants, its agents, servants and/or employees violated 42 U.S.C. § 1983, among other statutes.
30. That the foregoing occurrence was caused wholly, solely or in part by reasons of the carelessness and negligence of the defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON, and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN/JANE DOES” being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, their agents, servants and/or employees in and about the operation, maintenance, management and control its Police Department and members thereof; in giving and making false declarations; in that these defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees failed to properly train, supervise and control the actions and activities of the police officers who wrongfully detained, and who falsely, unjustly and without cause, arrested the plaintiff; in that these defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees allowed, suffered, caused and permitted said officers to be, exist and remain as police officers of the New York City Police Department despite due knowledge and notice of their propensities to act without cause; in that these defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees negligently trained, hired and retained said police officers to act on its behalf; in that said police officers wrongfully detained, and falsely, unjustly and without cause, arrested the plaintiff during the course and scope of their employment as police officers for the New York City Police Department acting under color of law; in that these defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees were otherwise careless and negligent in utter disregard of the rights, safety and well-being of this plaintiff and other persons similarly situated.

31. That upon information and belief, criminal charges were filed against the Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON in relation to the subject incident.
32. That upon information and belief, Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON was forced to make multiple Court appearances in relation to the aforementioned criminal charges.
33. That upon information and belief, the aforementioned criminal charges that were filed against the Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON in relation to the subject incident were ultimately dismissed and plaintiff was issued a Certificate of Disposition.
34. That on or around April 7, 2023 and thereafter, the defendants committed misuse of legal procedure against and malicious prosecution of the plaintiff in that the defendants did not have probable cause or reasonable basis to believe that plaintiff was guilty of, inter alia, PL 120.25, PL 195.05, PL 270.25, VTL1212, VTL0511 01, AC 024218A, and VTL0411 01, and thereby initiated and continued prosecution with malice and ill-will.

35. That as a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained damages in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter, and this court does have jurisdiction of this matter.
36. That this plaintiff did not contribute to the happening of this occurrence nor to the injuries sustained by him by any act or omission on his part.
37. That solely by virtue of the foregoing, this plaintiff was subjected to great indignities, embarrassment, mental anguish, and was held up to scorn, shame, ridicule and embarrassment and was tormented, abused and humiliated in person and character; he was psychologically and physically injured, and wounded; he sustained a severe shock to his nervous system and suffered intense pain and mental anguish; he was confined in and about his bed and home for a considerable period of time and was incapacitated from attending to his usual vocation; he was obliged to expend diverse sums of money and/or incur obligation for medical attention, care, treatment and supplies in an endeavor to cure or lessen the effects of his afore described injuries; the plaintiff was in other respects injured, all to the extent of a sum of damages which exceed the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION (NEGLIGENT HIRING, TRAINING, AND SUPERVISION)

38. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation previously made with the same force and effect as if hereinafter set forth at length herein.
39. That Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK were negligent in failing to properly hire, train and supervise Defendants POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS "JOHN/JANE DOES" being currently unidentified members of the

NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, along with other agents, servants and/or employees of Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, acting within the scope of their employment and color of law.

40. That Defendants violated Plaintiff's state and federal civil rights.
41. That Defendants violated Plaintiff's state and federal constitutional rights.
42. That Defendants failed to intervene to protect the safety of Plaintiff from known danger.
43. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained damages in the amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter, and this Court does have jurisdiction of this matter.
44. That at all relevant times herein, the Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, were negligent in their hiring, training, supervision, discipline, monitoring, retention, and promotion of its officers, including and especially Defendants POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS "JOHN/JANE DOES" being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT described in the aforementioned paragraphs, including all those officers and employees who failed to intervene to protect the Plaintiff against the wrongful acts committed against him.
45. That at all relevant times herein, the Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, knew or should have known of the discriminatory nature, bad judgement, and unlawful propensities of the officers involved in the violation of Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON's civil rights, and the various wrongful, illegal, intentional, and negligent acts described in the aforementioned paragraphs.
46. That at all relevant times herein, the Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK, were negligent in their treatment of Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON and in their failure to protect plaintiff from the violations of his civil rights, and their agents, servants, employees and officers including and especially Defendants POLICE OFFICER JUAN GRULLON and POLICE OFFICERS “JOHN/JANE DOES” being currently unidentified members of the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT described in the aforementioned paragraphs, were negligent, reckless, and intentional in their wrongful treatment of Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON and their failure to protect plaintiff from the violations of his civil rights.

47. That this occurrence was caused wholly and solely by the negligence of Defendants, without any negligence on the part of Plaintiff contributing thereto.
48. That at all relevant times herein, Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON, while in police custody and control, was seriously injured.
49. That solely as a result of the negligence, recklessness, and intentional acts of defendants as aforesaid, without any negligence on the part of the Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON contributing to the occurrences and damages alleged herein in any manner whatsoever, Plaintiff suffered great humiliation, degradation, emotional injuries, mental anguish, nervous shock, loss of freedom, deprivation of his state and federal constitutional rights, physical pain and injuries, pain and suffering and loss of enjoyment of life, economic harm, and has been damaged in an amount exceeding the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts, which would otherwise have jurisdiction.
50. That the limitations of CPLR Article 16 do not apply to this case and one or more of the exceptions to said Article do apply to this case.
51. That Defendants were negligent with respect to their hiring, training, supervision, retention, monitoring, and promotion of police officers; failed to have and/or properly implement an early warning screening system for psychological profiles; and failed to detect and/or respond in an appropriate and timely manner to signs and symptoms of unfitness of the individual officers herein causing Plaintiff to suffer personal injuries, conscious pain and suffering, loss of enjoyment of life, economic harm, emotional upset, shock and fright, and fear of impending injury or death.

52. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained damages in the amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter, and this court does have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION (INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL HARM)

53. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation previously made with the same force and effect as if hereinafter set forth at length herein.
54. That Defendants did intentionally and recklessly conduct themselves toward plaintiff in a manner so extreme, shocking, and outrageous that it exceeded all reasonable bounds of decency causing Plaintiff to suffer personal injuries, conscious pain and suffering, loss of enjoyment of life, economic harm, emotional upset, shock and fright, and fear of impending injury or death.
55. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained damages in the amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter, and this court does have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION (CIVIL RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND MONELL CLAIM)

56. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation previously made with the same force and effect as if hereinafter set forth at length herein.

57. That Defendants, acting under color of State Law, through their intentional and affirmatively negligent acts and omissions, violated plaintiff's constitutional and civil rights, as guaranteed by the Charter and Code of the City of New York, the Constitution of the State of New York and New York State statutes/rules/regulations/policies/codes, and the Constitution of the United States of America, including 42 USC 1981 – (2000) et seq., 42 USC 1983, the 4th, 8th and 14th Amendments, and the New York State Civil Rights Law; and through their inadequate training, supervision, hiring, screening, monitoring, retention, discipline, and promotion of their correctional officers, evinced a policy, practice, and custom of deliberate indifference to the individual, civil, and constitutional rights of individuals, so as to ratify such conduct, and violated plaintiff's constitutional and civil rights, as guaranteed by the Charter and Code of the City of New York, the Constitution of the State of New York and New York State statutes/rules/regulations/policies/codes, and the Constitution of the United States of America, including 42 USC 1981 – (2000) et seq., 42 USC 1983, the 4th, 8th and 14th Amendments, and the New York State Civil Rights Law; evinced a pattern, custom, or policy of ratifying improper and unconstitutional conduct and deliberate indifference with respect to racial profiling and discriminatory practices which resulted in a deprivation of the plaintiff's rights; in evincing a pattern of deliberate indifference, and which the municipal Defendant knew or should have known would have resulted in such occurrences as described herein; in negligently condoning and ratifying improper conduct and a pattern of improper conduct and a pattern of deliberate indifference to Plaintiff's civil rights; in engaging in discriminatory acts based on Plaintiff's race and ethnicity all causing Plaintiff to suffer personal injuries, conscious pain and suffering, loss of enjoyment of life, economic harm, emotional upset, shock and fright, and fear of impending injury or death.

58. That Defendants had notice of Plaintiff's civil and constitutional rights were being violated.
59. That Defendants violated their duty to intervene and to protect the constitutional rights of citizens, and specifically of Plaintiff, from infringement by others in their presence.
60. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained damages in the amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter, and this court does have jurisdiction of this matter.
61. That this action falls within one or more of the exceptions set forth in CPLR §1602.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION (MALICIOUS PROSECUTION)

62. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation previously made with the same force and effect as if hereinafter set forth at length herein.
63. That upon information and belief, criminal charges were filed against the Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON in relation to the subject incident.
64. That upon information and belief, Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON was forced to make multiple Court appearances in relation to the aforementioned criminal charges.
65. That upon information and belief, the aforementioned criminal charges that were filed against the Plaintiff CARLOS JACKSON in relation to the subject incident were ultimately dismissed and plaintiff was issued a Certificate of Disposition.
66. That on or around April 7, 2023 and thereafter, the defendants committed misuse of legal procedure against and malicious prosecution of the plaintiff in that the defendants did not have probable cause or reasonable basis to believe that plaintiff was guilty of, inter alia, PL 120.25, PL 195.05, PL 270.25, VTL1212, VTL0511 01, AC 024218A, and VTL0411 01, and thereby initiated and continued prosecution with malice and ill-will.

67. That as a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained damages in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter, and this court does have jurisdiction of this matter.
68. That this plaintiff did not contribute to the happening of this occurrence nor to the injuries sustained by him by any act or omission on his part.
69. That solely by virtue of the foregoing, this plaintiff was subjected to great indignities, embarrassment, mental anguish, and was held up to scorn, shame, ridicule and embarrassment and was tormented, abused and humiliated in person and character; he was psychologically and physically injured, and wounded; he sustained a severe shock to his nervous system and suffered intense pain and mental anguish; he was confined in and about his bed and home for a considerable period of time and was incapacitated from attending to his usual vocation; he was obliged to expend diverse sums of money and/or incur obligation for medical attention, care, treatment and supplies in an endeavor to cure or lessen the effects of his afore described injuries; the plaintiff was in other respects injured, all to the extent of a sum of damages which exceed the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION (WRONGFUL IMPRISONMENT)

70. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation previously made with the same force and effect as if hereinafter set forth at length herein.
71. The defendants, without reasonable or probable cause and without a warrant, did falsely and wrongfully detain and imprison plaintiff without his consent and against his will, and

Plaintiff was aware of his false arrest, causing him to suffer personal injuries, conscious pain and suffering, loss of enjoyment of life, economic harm, emotional upset, shock and fright, and fear of impending injury or death.

72. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained damages in the amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter, and this court does have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION (ASSAULT)

73. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation previously made with the same force and effect as if hereinafter set forth at length herein.
74. The defendant police officers, intentionally placed Plaintiff in apprehension of imminent harmful and offensive contact, causing him to suffer personal injuries, conscious pain and suffering, loss of enjoyment of life, economic harm, emotional upset, shock and fright, and fear of impending injury or death.
75. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained damages in the amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter, and this court does have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION (BATTERY)

76. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation previously made with the same force and effect as if hereinafter set forth at length herein.
77. The individual defendant police officers, touched Plaintiff in a hostile and offensive manner without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful offensive bodily contact causing him to suffer personal injuries, conscious pain and suffering, loss of enjoyment of life, economic harm, emotional upset, shock and fright, and fear of impending injury or death.

78. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained damages in the amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter, and this court does have jurisdiction of this matter.

AS AND FOR A NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION (NEGLIGENCE)

79. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation previously made with the same force and effect as if hereinafter set forth at length herein.
80. The defendants were negligent and affirmatively negligent, committing various negligent acts and omissions, in contravention of good and accepted police practices, procedures, and protocols, including with respect to the use of force, stop, detention, search and seizure, arrest, imprisonment, and prosecution; failed to properly search, safeguard, restrain control, and protect plaintiff; breached a special duty owed to Plaintiff causing Plaintiff to suffer personal injuries, conscious pain and suffering, loss of enjoyment of life, economic harm, emotional upset, shock and fright, and fear of impending injury or death.
81. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained damages in the amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter, and this court does have jurisdiction of this matter.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants in a sum of damages in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of the within matter, together with costs and disbursements of this action.
