DAIZOHN DELVALLE,

Plaintiff,

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Index No.

CITY OF NEW YORK, JAMAL RICHARDSON, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10,

Defendants.
-----X

Plaintiff, DAIZOHN DELVALLE, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA LLP, as and for his complaint against Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, hereby alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986, and 1988, the laws of the City and State of New York, including but not limited to New York City Human Rights Law under NYC Admin Code §§ 8-801 – 8-806, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the constitution of State of New York, for the violations of his civil rights, as enumerated by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the New York State Constitution, in addition to the Laws of the City and State of New York.

2. The following claims arose on or about September 13, 2023, inside the building located at 372 Chestnut Street in Brooklyn, New York when defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, searched, seized, detained, arrested, assaulted, battered, and subjected Plaintiff to excessive force without a judicially authorized arrest or search warrant, reasonable suspicion, probable cause or any other legal justification to do so. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and forcibly removed to the 75th NYPD Precinct before being transported to Central Booking.

3. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various significant physical, emotional, and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was caused to be unlawfully detained against his will approximately over the course of fifty-five (55) hours until his eventual release from the physical custody of the defendants.

4. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied due process of law until all criminal charges were unconditionally dismissed and sealed pursuant to §§ 160.50 and 160.60 of the Criminal Procedure Law which constituted a termination of the criminal proceedings in favor of Plaintiff.

5. At all relevant times herein, defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

6. Under New York City Human Rights Law under NYC Admin Code §§ 8-801 – 8-806, the Plaintiff is not required to file his Notice of Claim or submit to an oral examination pursuant to section 50-H of the New York General Municipal Law.

7. This action and associated claims have been filed within the applicable statute of limitations, which is three years for state and federal claims.

8. The above-referenced acts caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his liberty, his right to be from unreasonable searches and seizures, in addition to his rights to Due Process and Equal Protection of the laws.

9. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and attorney's fees, with all interest then accrued, in addition to such other or further relief, as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

10. Plaintiff, DAIZOHN DELVALLE (“Plaintiff”), is an adult black or African American male who presently resides in Brooklyn, New York.

11. Defendant, CITY OF NEW YORK (“CITY”), is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York.

12. At all relevant times herein, the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”) is a wholly-owned subsidiary, which is further wholly operated, managed, maintained, and controlled by Defendant City.

13. At all relevant times herein, Defendant CITY, acting through the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline and retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, and supervisory officers, including the individually named Defendants herein.

14. At all relevant times herein, Defendant CITY was responsible for enforcing the rules of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel, including the individually named defendants herein, obey the laws of the United States, as well as the City and State of New York.

15. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, JAMAL RICHARDSON (“RICHARDSON”), was a police officer, supervisor or policy maker employed by the NYPD under Shield #: 7278, Tax ID #: 972900, and as such, was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of Defendant City. Upon information and belief, Defendant RICHARDSON is currently assigned to the 75th NYPD Precinct. Defendant RICHARDSON is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were police officers, detectives, supervisors, policymakers, or officials employed by the NYPD. At this time, Plaintiffs are not privy to the true identities of defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of defendants. The names JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 are fictitious and meant as placeholders for the NYPD Police Officers who (1) illegally, excessively, and violently punched, kicked, tasered, and dragged Plaintiff, (2) unlawfully stopped and wrongfully arrested Plaintiff, (3) illegally and wrongfully detained Plaintiff in handcuffs in an excessively tight fashion, (4) failed to intervene to prevent the aforesaid acts and who (5) aided, abetted, assisted and acted in concert with the other Defendants to do the same.

17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were acting as agents, servants, and employees of the City of New York or the NYPD. Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

18. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were acting under the color of state law, to wit, under the color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs, and usages of the City and State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

19. On, or about, September 13, 2023, at approximately 4:30 PM, in the vicinity of the building located at 372 Chestnut Street in Brooklyn, New York, defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully stopped, searched, seized, detained, arrested, assaulted, battered, and subjected Plaintiff to excessive force without a judicially authorized arrest or search warrant, reasonable suspicion, probable cause or any other legal justification to do so.

20. While Plaintiff was lawfully present at the subject location and was not behaving in a violent or tumultuous manner and/or did not present a physical threat or menace to Defendants or anyone else, Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, illegally approached and falsely accused Plaintiff of a criminal act before illegally seizing his person with their outstretched hands violently, excessively, and illegally grabbing Plaintiff's head and body, tackling Plaintiff, throwing him onto the ground, and dragging him across the ground, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever as to the commission of unlawful conduct on the part of Plaintiff.

21. Defendant RICHARDSON aggressively shot Plaintiff twice with a conductive electrical device (taser) from which razor-sharp prongs were deployed at Plaintiff's body, piercing and lacerating his skin. Said prongs were attached to conductive wire through which thousands of volts of electricity were channeled directly into Plaintiff's nervous system causing electrocution.

22. Then, Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, grabbed Plaintiff about his body and extremities before violently contorting his arms and wrists behind his back and pressed their knees on the back of Plaintiff to which they applied metal handcuffs in an excessively tight fashion, causing plaintiff to experience bruises, swelling, bleeding, in addition to significant pain and discomfort to his chest, back, shoulders, arms, and other parts of his body.

23. Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, illegally and excessively punched, kicked, and struck Plaintiff in front of his children although Plaintiff was placed in the metal handcuffs in an excessively tight fashion and Plaintiff further presented no physical threat or menace to Defendants or anyone else.

24. Plaintiff complained to defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, several times that the handcuffs were too tight and caused to Plaintiff suffer substantial pain but said defendants either ignored or outright refused Plaintiff's requests to loosen the handcuffs.

25. Plaintiff requested several times the reason why he was being arrested, however, said defendants ignored or outright dismissed his requests.

26. Thereafter, Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, removed Plaintiff against his will to the 75th NYPD Precinct where Plaintiff was again searched, photographed, fingerprinted, placed in a cell, and unlawfully questioned in the absence of requested counsel in violation of their civil rights, pursuant to Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436 (1966).

27. Subsequently, Plaintiff was forcibly transferred to Central Booking where he was again criminally processed.

28. Plaintiff was wrongfully arrested, illegally detained, and maliciously prosecuted by Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 until all criminal charges against Plaintiff were unconditionally dismissed and sealed pursuant to §§ 160.50 and 160.60 of the Criminal Procedure Law constituting a termination of the criminal proceedings in favor of Plaintiff.

29. As a result, Plaintiff was caused to be illegally, involuntarily, and continuously detained by or at the direction of Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 approximately over the course of fifty-five (55) hours until his release from the physical custody of Defendants.

30. Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 failed to provide timely medical assistance to Plaintiff.

31. At all relevant times herein, the defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiff to excessive force or failed to intervene when they observed others subjecting Plaintiff to excessive force.

32. Plaintiff asserts that the aforementioned unlawful acts committed by defendants are representative of a pervasive policy, custom, or pattern and practice within the City of New York and the NYPD in particular.

33. Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations and biases, namely the stop, search, assault, battery, seizure, and arrest of Plaintiff, despite possessing no evidence, credible or otherwise, to justify such conduct.

34. Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized, and arrested Plaintiff, because of their improper and pernicious desires to prevent Plaintiff from exerting his First Amendment right to engage in protected speech and activities, such as Plaintiff's right to refuse to yield to defendants' unreasonably coercive demands to utter false confessions or assist defendants in the fabrication of evidence against defendants' true suspects or other persons of interest.

35. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith or failed to intervene when defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

36. Defendant CITY has engaged in a policy, custom, or pattern and practice of stopping vehicles occupied by members of protected classes, especially African Americans and Hispanic or Latino individuals, without probable cause or reasonable suspicion to do so and then using excessive force in the process of unlawfully arresting said individuals.

37. Defendant CITY has also engaged in a policy, custom, or pattern and practice of concealing their unlawful arrests by fabricating false accounts that black or African American or Latino or Hispanic males were observed committing criminal acts, when no such acts were ever committed.

38. Plaintiff asserts that defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, falsely arrested, assaulted, and maliciously prosecuted him, due solely to their racial discriminatory prejudices against African American or black males and Hispanic or Latino males and their desire to satisfy an unconstitutional and unlawful arrest quota.

39. Plaintiff further asserts that Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 acted in such a sadistic and reprehensible manner, due to their assumption that defendants' version of events would undoubtedly and unduly be credited over Plaintiff's, solely because Plaintiff is a black male.

40. Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, assaulted, battered and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, not because of any probable cause to believe Plaintiff had committed any crimes, violations of the law, but because Plaintiff is an African American or black male.

41. Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, discriminated against Plaintiff by arresting, assaulting, battering, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, solely due to defendants' perception or consideration of Plaintiff's race, ethnicity, national origin, immigration status, religion, gender or age.

42. Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations, namely the unlawful stops, searches, assaults, seizures, arrests and malicious prosecutions against Plaintiff.

43. Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, possessed no valid reason to restrict Plaintiff's movements, which gives rise to the strong inference that the unlawful acts committed by defendants against plaintiff, were discriminatorily motivated and enacted upon.

44. Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiff to disparate treatment compared to other individuals similarly situated, because defendants do not question, arrest or maliciously prosecute other victims of gang assaults who were not members of a protected class, especially victims who are visibly injured, distressed, and fleeing for their safety.

45. Defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, would not have arrested Plaintiff and fabricated false accounts of plaintiff committing criminal offenses, if plaintiff was not an African American or Hispanic male.

46. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of defendants, including the CITY, RICHARDSON, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.

47. Plaintiff asserts that the defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, who violated his civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive, and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission of such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers, including the individually named defendants herein.

48. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently, and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by the Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

49. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

50. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemic throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

51. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

52. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled "Ex-Cop Details NYPD 'Collar Quotas'—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, 'No Cuffs on Soft Targets' of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs."

53. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled "I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People," which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

54. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

55. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

56. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

57. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police," by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) "Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs," by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) "The Drugs? They Came from the Police," by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

58. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D." This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

59. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in the arrest and criminal prosecution of Plaintiff without probable cause.

60. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

61. Defendants' actions with respect to the underlying arrest of Plaintiff, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

62. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

63. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

64. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendant RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10.

65. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

66. The aforementioned acts of defendants, including RICHARDSON and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as enumerated and set forth by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the constitution of the State of New York and the laws of the City and State of New York.

67. As direct or proximate results of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, the loss of earnings and potential earnings, substantial and permanent physical and psychological injuries, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTIONFree Speech Retaliation Claim Under
New York State Law

68. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

69. Plaintiff engaged in speech and activities that were protected by Article I, Section 8, of the New York State Constitution.

70. Defendants committed impermissible or unlawful actions against Plaintiff that were motivated or substantially caused by Plaintiff's constitutionally protected speech or activities.

71. Defendants' retaliatory actions against Plaintiff resulted in the deprivation of his liberty and the initiation of criminal charges against him.

72. Defendants' retaliatory actions adversely affected Plaintiff's protected speech or activities by physically or procedurally preventing him from further pursuing said protected speech or activities or by chilling his desire to further participate or engage in such protected speech or activities.

73. Accordingly, Plaintiff's right to engage in protected speech and activities, guaranteed and protected by Article I, Section 8, of the New York State Constitution, was violated by Defendants.

74. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoings, under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

75. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTIONFirst Amendment Retaliation Claim Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

76. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

116. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

117. The Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments, because they used unreasonable force without Plaintiff's consent.

118. Defendants engaged in and subjected Plaintiff to immediate harmful or offensive touching and battered him without his consent.

119. As a direct and proximate result of this breach, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution Under
New York State Law

120. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

121. Defendants initiated the prosecution against Plaintiff.

122. Defendants lacked probable cause to believe Plaintiff was guilty or that the prosecution could succeed.

123. Defendants acted with malice, which, in the absence of probable cause, may be inferred.

124. The prosecution was terminated in Plaintiff's favor, when all criminal charges were unconditionally dismissed and sealed.

125. Due to the intentional, willful and unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff suffered significant damages.

126. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

127. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

128. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

129. Defendants initiated the prosecution against Plaintiff.

130. Defendants lacked probable cause to believe Plaintiff was guilty or that the prosecution would succeed.

131. Defendants acted with malice, which, in the absence of probable cause, may be inferred.

132. The prosecution was terminated in Plaintiff's favor, when all criminal charges were unconditionally dismissed and sealed.

133. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.

134. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
New York State Law

135. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

136. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated or maintained against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

137. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain or initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

138. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

139. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

140. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

141. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

142. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

143. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated or maintained against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

144. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain and initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

145. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

146. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

147. Defendants' actions deprived Plaintiff of his constitutional rights to free from illegal searches and seizures and to not be deprived of his liberty without the due process of law in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

148. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial Under
New York State Law

149. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

150. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

151. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors within the District Attorney's Office.

152. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment restrictions and deprivations upon Plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

153. Accordingly, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his civil rights, pursuant to Article I, Sections 1, 2, 6 & 9, of the New York State Constitution, as well Article II, Sections 10 & 12, of the New York Civil Rights Law.

154. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

155. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

156. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

157. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

158. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors within the District Attorney's Office.

159. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment restrictions and deprivations upon Plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

160. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's right to fair trial, pursuant to the Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to United States Constitution.

161. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Biased Based Profiling under
New York City Law

162. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

163. Defendants impermissibly relied upon Plaintiff's actual or perceived race, color, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, as the determinative factor in initiating law enforcement action against Plaintiff, rather than Plaintiff's behavior or other information or circumstances that would link Plaintiff to suspected unlawful activity.

164. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Administrative Code of the City of New York, Section 14-151.

165. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

166. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
New York State law

167. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

168. Plaintiff, a black or African-American male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

169. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation.

170. Defendants also engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff, in comparison to others similarly situated.

171. Defendants' discriminatory treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or a malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

172. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

173. Defendants, motivated by discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

174. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

175. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to Article I, Section 11, of the New York State Constitution, Article VII, Section 79-N, of the New York Civil Rights Law and Section 296, Paragraph 13, of the New York Human Rights Law.

176. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

177. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983 Against Individual Defendants

178. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

179. Plaintiff, a black or African-American male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

180. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color or ethnicity

181. Defendants engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff in comparison to others similarly situated.

182. Defendants' selective treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

183. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

184. Defendants, motivated by a discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral penal statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

185. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

186. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, under the Fourteenth Amendment.

187. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights and Failure to Prevent the Conspiracy under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985 and 1986 Against Individual Defendants

188. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

189. Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive Plaintiff of his rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, to not be deprived of his liberty or property without due process of law, or of the privileges and immunities under the laws and constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York.

190. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

191. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

192. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of his civil rights or because of some racial, otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

193. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

194. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and/or Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

195. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

196. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

197. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

198. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

199. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

200. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

201. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

202. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

203. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Due Process/Fabrication of Evidence Claim Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

204. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

205. Those Defendants deliberately fabricated evidence against the Plaintiff and that as a result of this evidence being used against him, he was deprived of his constitutional right without due process of law.

206. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States

207. The Defendants fabricated evidence in order to support their false arrest, detention and prosecution of the Plaintiff. The Defendants used this fabricated evidence and informed the prosecution that the fabricated evidence was true and accurate despite the fact that knew that the fabricated evidence was not true. As a result, the Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights.

208. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention and Supervision Under
New York State Law

209. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

210. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee Defendants.

211. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

212. Defendant City placed Defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

213. Defendant City knew or reasonably should have known of its employees' propensity for committing civil rights violations.

214. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining and supervising its employee Defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

215. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Victims of Violent Crime Protection Act under
New York City Law

216. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

217. Defendants' acts or series of acts constituted a misdemeanor or felony against Plaintiff, as defined in state or federal law which presented a serious risk of physical injury to Plaintiff, whether or not such acts have actually resulted in criminal charges, prosecution or conviction.

218. Accordingly, Defendants committed a crime of violence against Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the N.Y.C. Admin. Code § 10-403.

219. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

220. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

221. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

222. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as Plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

223. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

224. Defendant City, its policymakers and supervisors failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates, to such an extent that is tantamount to the City's deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

225. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of Plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by Defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

226. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

227. Defendant City's conduct caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, via the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth & Fourteenth Amendments thereto.

228. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- a) On the First Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- b) On the Second Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
