AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
PLAINTIFF CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ

48. Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 47 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

49. That the CITY, NYPD, their agents, servants and employees were negligent, careless and reckless in hiring, retaining, training, monitoring, retraining, supervising and promoting its employees including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE , in that said police officers, as employees of CITY and NYPD, were not qualified to be hired or retained or promoted as police officers, lacked the experience, skill, training and ability to be employed, retained and utilized in the manner that each was employed by CITY and NYPD.

50. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately test, analyze test results, and/or investigate above mentioned police officers backgrounds and performances.

51. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately screen said police officers, failed to adequately monitor said police officers, and failed to adequately discipline said police officers when they violate Patrol Guidelines.

52. Defendant CITY and NYPD were also negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the police officer defendants named herein, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said defendants, or at the very least had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that defendant police officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY and NYPD and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

54. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ

56. Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1-57 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

57. In arresting Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ, police officers including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, were motivated by an ulterior purpose to do harm, without justification or economic or social excuse.

58. In arresting Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ, police officers including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, sought either a detriment to Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ or a collateral advantage to the CITY and NYPD that is outside the legitimate ends of effectuating an arrest.

59. As a result of the abuse of process by defendants herein, Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ sustained multiple injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional distress, humiliation, loss of enjoyment of life, and fear and intimidation for his safety.

61. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ

62. Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 61 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

63. That on 5/19/23, at approximately 10:30 p.m., within the vicinity of East 152nd Street and Wales Avenue, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE , who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

64. That Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ was lawfully in the above vicinity at the above time when he was stopped, questioned, searched and seized solely on the basis of his age and/or race and for no legal or legitimate reason.

65. That said illegal stop and seizure was part of the CITY'S custom and practice and/or practice of racial profiling, and/or meeting arrest or summons quotas, and/or the illegal stop and search of civilians which was authorized by, or met with the tacit approval of the CITY and NYPD under their "Stop, Question and Frisk" policy or program ("Stop and Frisk").

66. That under the "Stop and Frisk" program the CITY and NYPD permitted, condoned, or acted with deliberate indifference to the racial disparity of its' application, to the fact that unnecessary or illegal frisks or searches were conducted, that very low percentages of seizures, frisks and searches resulted in arrests or the recovery of contraband, that pretextual reasons are provided for "Stop and Frisk", that officers do not always fill out Stop and Frisk reports, i.e. UF-250s, and are not disciplined when they fail to do so, that stop and frisks are conducted without reasonable suspicion, and that the program of "Stop and Frisk" has resulted in illegal stops, seizures, frisks, arrests and the use of physical force.

67. That the CITY and NYPD have failed to discipline, train, monitor or retrain offending police officers who engaged in stops and frisks without any legal justification and has failed to discipline police officers who fail to fill out required UF-250s.

68. That the CITY and NYPD have failed to adequately investigate and/or discipline officers who use excessive force, stop and frisk innocent citizens who have not done anything illegal or acted in suspicious manner warranting a seizure, who failed to report misconduct of fellow officers, who destroy evidence, who engage in fraud, misrepresentations, deceit, and maliciously participate in and instigate prosecutions of innocent citizens.

69. It is alleged herein that Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ was stopped and seized absent reasonable suspicion. That said actions of defendants were pursuant to an illegal and improper Stop and Frisk program that was promulgated by defendants. That such custom, policy and program has created a class of citizens, including Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ, who have been illegally stopped and seized, searched and questioned based on their race, and in order to meet arrest quotas. Evidence of said policy is as follows:

a. That in a class action lawsuit David Floyd, et. al. v. City of New York, et. al., pending in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, 08 CIV 1034, in a decision dated 5/16/12 certifying a class action lawsuit, it was found that between the years of 2005 and 2009 a reported 2.8 million people in New York City have been stopped and frisked. Of said number more than 87% were minority citizens. Summons and arrests were issued or made in approximately 10% of the reported stops. Meaning that based on their own records, defendants' suspicions are incorrect approximately 9 out of 10 stops.

b. The Honorable Shira A. Scheindlin, found in the Floyd decision that:

- i. It is indisputable that NYPD has an enormous Stop and Frisk program;
- ii. Evidence shows that the Stop and Frisk program is organized and hierarchical;
- iii. Stop and Frisk program has been designed and revised at highest levels of defendants;

- iv. The implementation of the program is conducted according to uniform and centralized rules;
- v. Monitoring of the program is hierarchical;
- vi. The program is the result of institutional decisions and directives.

c. Justice Sheindlin further found that a preponderance of evidence shows that defendants policy of establishing performance standards and demanding increased levels of stop and frisks results in putative class of aggrieved citizens. The Court noted that street level stops have risen every year. That in 2004, defendants documented 313,000 stops, and in 2011 they reported 684,000 stops. In a Police Officer Performance Objectives Operation Order dated 10/17/11, Commissioner Kelly directed that “Department managers can and must set performance goals – relating to “the issuance of summons, the stopping and questioning of suspicious individuals and the arrests of criminals.” It further states that “uniformed members who do not demonstrate activities . . . or who fail to engage in proactive activities . . . will be evaluated accordingly and their assignments reassessed.”

70. Other instances of an illegal and/or improper stop and frisk program custom or practice and/or excessive use of force and filing of false charges includes but not limited to:

a. On 4/12/11 in the vicinity of Walton Avenue and Mt. Hope Place, Bronx, NY, while doing nothing illegal or improper, Lonnie Thompson was approached by several uniformed police officers for no reason and without reasonable suspicion. After being stopped, Mr. Thompson was patted down and searched. He was arrested and charged with Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Fourth Degree. This, even though the weapon was a bona fide work tool. Mr. Thompson was subjected to a strip search at the 46th Precinct. All charges were dismissed.

b. On 5/4/11 in the vicinity of 2345 Jerome Avenue, Bronx, NY, Alexis Niewkerk, who is handicapped, was sitting in his legally parked vehicle and waiting for his friends to finish shopping at a nearby store. All of a sudden several undercover police officers from Bronx Narcotics approached his vehicle for no reason and without reasonable suspicion ordered him out of said vehicle. Mr. Niewkerk was subjected to a pat down and search. He was subsequently arrested for possession of a controlled substance in the seventh degree even though the “substance” recovered from his pants pocket was his own prescribed pain medication. Mr. Niewkerk was subjected to a strip search and forced to move his body in ways that are extremely painful given his medical status and condition. All charges were dismissed.

c. On 6/2/11 in the vicinity of 985 Simpson Street, Bronx, NY, Jesus Rosario, an infant, was approached by several police officers from the 41st Precinct. He was told to “get on the wall” and thereafter patted down and searched. Mr. Rosario was accused of Trespassing in the Second Degree. Mr. Rosario was doing nothing illegal or improper at the time the officers approached as he was simply exiting 985 Simpson Street after visiting his father who resides in said building. After being arrested, Mr. Rosario was subjected to a strip search at the 41st Precinct. The case was declined to be prosecuted by the District Attorney’s Office.

d. On 8/1/12 in the vicinity of 1000 Simpson Street, Bronx, NY Nicholas Hernandez and Dilson Pena were sitting outside of their building on a public bench and doing nothing illegal or improper. All of a sudden, several police officers from the 41st Precinct approached them for no reason and told them to submit to a frisk. Mr. Hernandez and Mr. Pena were accused of possession of marihuana even though no marihuana was recovered. They were each subjected to a strip search at the 41st Precinct. All charges against them were declined to be prosecuted by the District Attorney’s Office.

e. On 1/22/11 in the vicinity of 808 Park Avenue, Brooklyn, NY, Captain Michelle Culp, a now retired Captain for New York City Department of Corrections, was visiting her sick and elderly mother at the aforementioned address and decided to walk her mother's dog. In so doing, Captain Culp was approached by several uniform housing police officers and accused of Trespassing in the Second Degree. She was patted down and searched. This, despite the fact that Captain Culp explained that she was visiting her mother and her identification and personal belongings were in her mother's apartment in the same building. All charges were dismissed.

f. On 5/20/11 in the vicinity of Park Avenue and East 138th Street, Bronx, NY, Patrick Nielson was exiting the number 4 subway train and going to his car which was parked nearby when he was followed, stopped, frisked, and assaulted by several undercover police officers from Bronx Narcotics for no reason. Thereafter, he was arrested and accused of possession of a controlled substance. Mr. Nielson was subjected to a strip search. The "controlled" substance was Mr. Nielson's prescribed medicine. All charges were dismissed.

g. On 6/22/10 in the vicinity of 139th Street and Lenox Avenue, New York, NY, Wilford Person was approached by several undercover police officers from Manhattan North Narcotics for no legitimate reason. Mr. Person was thereafter told to get against a fence and patted down and searched. He was accused of possession of marihuana. Mr. Person was simply playing basketball at the time the police approached him. After being arrested and subjected to a strip search Mr. Person was prosecuted. All charges were eventually dismissed.

h. On 5/2/12 in the vicinity of 1912 Third Avenue, New York, NY, Jose Baez, the manager of a local eyeglass store, left the store to buy his lunch. After leaving the store Mr. Baez, for no reason at all, was approached by several undercover police officers from Manhattan North Narcotics, and was detained, patted down, searched, and falsely accused of selling marihuana. Mr. Baez was subjected to a strip search. All charges against him were dismissed.

i. On 11/13/10 in the vicinity of 1113 Boston Road, Bronx, NY, Alpha Mahoi, was doing nothing illegal or improper when, for no reason, he was approached by several undercover police officers from Bronx Narcotics and accused of being involved in the sale of cocaine. He was cuffed, patted down, searched, arrested and strip searched at the precinct. All charges were dismissed.

j. On 3/10/12 in the vicinity of 1821 Davison Avenue, Bronx, NY, Keyewanie Blackledge, Dwayne Smith and Richard Campbell were leaving his friend's apartment when they were approached by several uniform police officers from the 46th Precinct for no reason and told to "get on the wall" and "get on the floor" and thereafter patted down and searched. They was charged with Trespassing in the Second Degree. All charges were dismissed.

k. Mr. Enang was charged with criminal sale of a controlled substance. He was strip searched at the 46th Precinct. All charges were dismissed.

71. As is evidence from the above, Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of his freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

72. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance.

73. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

74. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as "good cops" but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

75. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Adhjly Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Lance of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a “punishment post” due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated “I’m not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he’s going to make it difficult for me if I don’t.”

76. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

77. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD’S policies, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

78. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff’s right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

79. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

80. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time he was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of his constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

81. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

86. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

87. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

88. Defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE , subjected Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ to such deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ'S rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.

90. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff CARLOS SANCHEZ-LOPEZ has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF CHRISTOPHER HILARIO

125. Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 124 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

126. That the CITY, NYPD, their agents, servants and employees were negligent, careless and reckless in hiring, retaining, training, monitoring, retraining, supervising and promoting its employees including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, in that said police officers, as employees of CITY and NYPD, were not qualified to be hired or retained or promoted as police officers, lacked the experience, skill, training and ability to be employed, retained and utilized in the manner that each was employed by CITY and NYPD.

127. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately test, analyze test results, and/or investigate above mentioned police officers backgrounds and performances.

128. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately screen said police officers, failed to adequately monitor said police officers, and failed to adequately discipline said police officers when they violate Patrol Guidelines.

129. Defendant CITY and NYPD were also negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the police officer defendants named herein, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said defendants, or at the very least had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that defendant police officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY and NYPD and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

130. That by reason of the above, the Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO was injured in mind and body as he was arrested, prosecuted and rendered sick, sore, and damaged.

131. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

AS AND FOR A TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF CHRISTOPHER HILARIO

133. Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1-132 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

134. In arresting Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO, police officers including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, Malfetano, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, were motivated by an ulterior purpose to do harm, without justification or economic or social excuse.

135. In arresting Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO, police officers including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, Malfetano, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, sought either a detriment to Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO or a collateral advantage to the CITY and NYPD that is outside the legitimate ends of effectuating an arrest.

136. As a result of the abuse of process by defendants herein, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO sustained multiple injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional distress, humiliation, loss of enjoyment of life, and fear and intimidation for his safety.

138. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF CHRISTOPHER HILARIO

139. Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 138 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

140. That on 5/19/23, at approximately 10:30 p.m., within the vicinity of East 152nd Street and Wales Avenue, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

141. That Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO was lawfully in the above vicinity at the above time when he was stopped, questioned, searched and seized solely on the basis of his age and/or race and for no legal or legitimate reason.

142. That said illegal stop and seizure was part of the CITY'S custom and practice and/or practice of racial profiling, and/or meeting arrest or summons quotas, and/or the illegal stop and search of civilians which was authorized by, or met with the tacit approval of the CITY and NYPD under their "Stop, Question and Frisk" policy or program ("Stop and Frisk").

143. That under the "Stop and Frisk" program the CITY and NYPD permitted, condoned, or acted with deliberate indifference to the racial disparity of its' application, to the fact that unnecessary or illegal frisks or searches were conducted, that very low percentages of seizures, frisks and searches resulted in arrests or the recovery of contraband, that pretextual reasons are provided for "Stop and Frisk", that officers do not always fill out Stop and Frisk reports, i.e. UF-250s, and are not disciplined when they fail to do so, that stop and frisks are conducted without reasonable suspicion, and that the program of "Stop and Frisk" has resulted in illegal stops, seizures, frisks, arrests and the use of physical force.

144. That the CITY and NYPD have failed to discipline, train, monitor or retrain offending police officers who engaged in stops and frisks without any legal justification and has failed to discipline police officers who fail to fill out required UF-250s.

145. That the CITY and NYPD have failed to adequately investigate and/or discipline officers who use excessive force, stop and frisk innocent citizens who have not done anything illegal or acted in suspicious manner warranting a seizure, who failed to report misconduct of fellow officers, who destroy evidence, who engage in fraud, misrepresentations, deceit, and maliciously participate in and instigate prosecutions of innocent citizens.

146. It is alleged herein that Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO was stopped and seized absent reasonable suspicion. That said actions of defendants were pursuant to an illegal and improper Stop and Frisk program that was promulgated by defendants. That such custom, policy and program has created a class of citizens, including Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO, who have been illegally stopped and seized, searched and questioned based on their race, and in order to meet arrest quotas. Evidence of said policy is as follows:

a. That in a class action lawsuit David Floyd, et. al. v. City of New York, et. al., pending in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, 08 CIV 1034, in a decision dated 5/16/12 certifying a class action lawsuit, it was found that between the years of 2005 and 2009 a reported 2.8 million people in New York City have been stopped and frisked. Of said number more than 87% were minority citizens. Summons and arrests were issued or made in approximately 10% of the reported stops. Meaning that based on their own records, defendants' suspicions are incorrect approximately 9 out of 10 stops.

b. The Honorable Shira A. Scheindlin, found in the Floyd decision that:

- i. It is indisputable that NYPD has an enormous Stop and Frisk program;
- ii. Evidence shows that the Stop and Frisk program is organized and hierarchical;
- iii. Stop and Frisk program has been designed and revised at highest levels of defendants;

- iv. The implementation of the program is conducted according to uniform and centralized rules;
- v. Monitoring of the program is hierarchical;
- vi. The program is the result of institutional decisions and directives.

c. Justice Sheindlin further found that a preponderance of evidence shows that defendants policy of establishing performance standards and demanding increased levels of stop and frisks results in putative class of aggrieved citizens. The Court noted that street level stops have risen every year. That in 2004, defendants documented 313,000 stops, and in 2011 they reported 684,000 stops. In a Police Officer Performance Objectives Operation Order dated 10/17/11, Commissioner Kelly directed that "Department managers can and must set performance goals – relating to "the issuance of summons, the stopping and questioning of suspicious individuals and the arrests of criminals." It further states that "uniformed members who do not demonstrate activities . . . or who fail to engage in proactive activities . . . will be evaluated accordingly and their assignments reassessed."

147. Other instances of an illegal and/or improper stop and frisk program custom or practice and/or excessive use of force and filing of false charges includes but not limited to:

a. On 4/12/11 in the vicinity of Walton Avenue and Mt. Hope Place, Bronx, NY, while doing nothing illegal or improper, Lonnie Thompson was approached by several uniformed police officers for no reason and without reasonable suspicion. After being stopped, Mr. Thompson was patted down and searched. He was arrested and charged with Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Fourth Degree. This, even though the weapon was a bona fide work tool. Mr. Thompson was subjected to a strip search at the 46th Precinct. All charges were dismissed.

b. On 5/4/11 in the vicinity of 2345 Jerome Avenue, Bronx, NY, Alexis Niewkerk, who is handicapped, was sitting in his legally parked vehicle and waiting for his friends to finish shopping at a nearby store. All of a sudden several undercover police officers from Bronx Narcotics approached his vehicle for no reason and without reasonable suspicion ordered him out of said vehicle. 148. As is evidence from the above, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of his freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

149. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance.

150. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

151. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as "good cops" but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

152. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Adhily Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Lance of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a “punishment post” due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated “I’m not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he’s going to make it difficult for me if I don’t.”

153. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

154. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD’S policies, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

155. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff’s right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

156. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

157. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time he was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of his constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

158. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

163. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

164. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

165. Defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, subjected Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO to such deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO'S rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.

166. The direct and proximate result of the defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE acts are that Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO has suffered severe and permanent injuries, loss of liberty and companionship, forced to endure pain and suffering, emotional distress and severe and significant damage to standing and reputation in the community.

167. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff CHRISTOPHER HILARIO has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

PLAINTIFF ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA

216. Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 215 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

217. That on 5/19/23, at approximately 10:30 p.m., within the vicinity of East 152nd Street and Wales Avenue, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, Malfetano, DOE and ROE , who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

218. That Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA was lawfully in the above vicinity at the above time when she was stopped, questioned, searched and seized solely on the basis of her age and/or race and for no legal or legitimate reason.

219. That said illegal stop and seizure was part of the CITY'S custom and practice and/or practice of racial profiling, and/or meeting arrest or summons quotas, and/or the illegal stop and search of civilians which was authorized by, or met with the tacit approval of the CITY and NYPD under their "Stop, Question and Frisk" policy or program ("Stop and Frisk").

220. That under the "Stop and Frisk" program the CITY and NYPD permitted, condoned, or acted with deliberate indifference to the racial disparity of its' application, to the fact that unnecessary or illegal frisks or searches were conducted, that very low percentages of seizures, frisks and searches resulted in arrests or the recovery of contraband, that pretextual reasons are provided for "Stop and Frisk", that officers do not always fill out Stop and Frisk reports, i.e. UF-250s, and are not disciplined when they fail to do so, that stop and frisks are conducted without reasonable suspicion, and that the program of "Stop and Frisk" has resulted in illegal stops, seizures, frisks, arrests and the use of physical force.

221. That the CITY and NYPD have failed to discipline, train, monitor or retrain offending police officers who engaged in stops and frisks without any legal justification and has failed to discipline police officers who fail to fill out required UF-250s.

222. That the CITY and NYPD have failed to adequately investigate and/or discipline officers who use excessive force, stop and frisk innocent citizens who have not done anything illegal or acted in suspicious manner warranting a seizure, who failed to report misconduct of fellow officers, who destroy evidence, who engage in fraud, misrepresentations, deceit, and maliciously participate in and instigate prosecutions of innocent citizens.

223. It is alleged herein that Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA was stopped and seized absent reasonable suspicion. That said actions of defendants were pursuant to an illegal and improper Stop and Frisk program that was promulgated by defendants. That such custom, policy and program has created a class of citizens, including Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA, who have been illegally stopped and seized, searched and questioned based on their race, and in order to meet arrest quotas. Evidence of said policy is as follows:

a. That in a class action lawsuit David Floyd, et. al. v. City of New York, et. al., pending in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, 08 CIV 1034, in a decision dated 5/16/12 certifying a class action lawsuit, it was found that between the years of 2005 and 2009 a reported 2.8 million people in New York City have been stopped and frisked. Of said number more than 87% were minority citizens. Summons and arrests were issued or made in approximately 10% of the reported stops. Meaning that based on their own records, defendants' suspicions are incorrect approximately 9 out of 10 stops.

b. The Honorable Shira A. Scheindlin, found in the Floyd decision that:

- i. It is indisputable that NYPD has an enormous Stop and Frisk program;
- ii. Evidence shows that the Stop and Frisk program is organized and hierarchical;
- iii. Stop and Frisk program has been designed and revised at highest levels of defendants;
- iv. The implementation of the program is conducted according to uniform and centralized rules;

- v. Monitoring of the program is hierarchical;
- vi. The program is the result of institutional decisions and directives.

c. Justice Sheindlin further found that a preponderance of evidence shows that defendants policy of establishing performance standards and demanding increased levels of stop and frisks results in putative class of aggrieved citizens. The Court noted that street level stops have risen every year. That in 2004, defendants documented 313,000 stops, and in 2011 they reported 684,000 stops. In a Police Officer Performance Objectives Operation Order dated 10/17/11, Commissioner Kelly directed that “Department managers can and must set performance goals – relating to “the issuance of summons, the stopping and questioning of suspicious individuals and the arrests of criminals.” It further states that “uniformed members who do not demonstrate activities . . . or who fail to engage in proactive activities . . . will be evaluated accordingly and their assignments reassessed.”

225. As is evidence from the above, Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of his freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

226. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance.

227. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

228. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as "good cops" but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

229. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Adhily Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Lance of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a “punishment post” due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated “I’m not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he’s going to make it difficult for me if I don’t.”

230. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

231. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD’S policies, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

232. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff’s right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

233. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

234. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time he was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of his constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

235. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

240. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, Malfetano, DOE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

241. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

242. Defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, Malfetano, DOE and ROE, subjected Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA to such \deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA'S rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.

243. The direct and proximate result of the defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, Malfetano, DOE and ROE acts are that Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA has suffered severe and permanent injuries, loss of liberty and companionship, forced to endure pain and suffering, emotional distress and severe and significant damage to standing and reputation in the community.

244. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff ESFREYLIND PENA-PADILLA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY- FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF SAMUEL VENTURA

279. Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 278 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

280. That the CITY, NYPD, their agents, servants and employees were negligent, careless and reckless in hiring, retaining, training, monitoring, retraining, supervising and promoting its employees including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, in that said police officers, as employees of CITY and NYPD, were not qualified to be hired or retained or promoted as police officers, lacked the experience, skill, training and ability to be employed, retained and utilized in the manner that each was employed by CITY and NYPD.

281. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately test, analyze test results, and/or investigate above mentioned police officers backgrounds and performances.

282. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately screen said police officers, failed to adequately monitor said police officers, and failed to adequately discipline said police officers when they violate Patrol Guidelines.

283. Defendant CITY and NYPD were also negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the police officer defendants named herein, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said defendants, or at the very least had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that defendant police officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY and NYPD and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

284. That by reason of the above, the Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA was injured in mind and body as he was arrested, prosecuted and rendered sick, sore, and damaged.

285. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

286. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY- SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF SAMUEL VENTURA

287. Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1-286 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

288. In arresting Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA, police officers including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE , acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, were motivated by an ulterior purpose to do harm, without justification or economic or social excuse.

289. In arresting Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA, police officers including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, Malfetano, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, sought either a detriment to Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA or a collateral advantage to the CITY and NYPD that is outside the legitimate ends of effectuating an arrest.

290. As a result of the abuse of process by defendants herein, Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA sustained multiple injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional distress, humiliation, loss of enjoyment of life, and fear and intimidation for his safety.

291. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

292. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF SAMUEL VENTURA

293. Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 292 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

294. That on 5/19/23, at approximately 10:30 p.m., within the vicinity of East 152nd Street and Wales Avenue, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, Malfetano, DOE and ROE, who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

295. That Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA was lawfully in the above vicinity at the above time when he was stopped, questioned, searched and seized solely on the basis of his age and/or race and for no legal or legitimate reason.

296. That said illegal stop and seizure was part of the CITY'S custom and practice and/or practice of racial profiling, and/or meeting arrest or summons quotas, and/or the illegal stop and search of civilians which was authorized by, or met with the tacit approval of the CITY and NYPD under their "Stop, Question and Frisk" policy or program ("Stop and Frisk").

297. That under the "Stop and Frisk" program the CITY and NYPD permitted, condoned, or acted with deliberate indifference to the racial disparity of its' application, to the fact that unnecessary or illegal frisks or searches were conducted, that very low percentages of seizures, frisks and searches resulted in arrests or the recovery of contraband, that pretextual reasons are provided for "Stop and Frisk", that officers do not always fill out Stop and Frisk reports, i.e. UF-250s, and are not disciplined when they fail to do so, that stop and frisks are conducted without reasonable suspicion, and that the program of "Stop and Frisk" has resulted in illegal stops, seizures, frisks, arrests and the use of physical force.

298. That the CITY and NYPD have failed to discipline, train, monitor or retrain offending police officers who engaged in stops and frisks without any legal justification and has failed to discipline police officers who fail to fill out required UF-250s.

299. That the CITY and NYPD have failed to adequately investigate and/or discipline officers who use excessive force, stop and frisk innocent citizens who have not done anything illegal or acted in suspicious manner warranting a seizure, who failed to report misconduct of fellow officers, who destroy evidence, who engage in fraud, misrepresentations, deceit, and maliciously participate in and instigate prosecutions of innocent citizens.

300. It is alleged herein that Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA was stopped and seized absent reasonable suspicion. That said actions of defendants were pursuant to an illegal and improper Stop and Frisk program that was promulgated by defendants. That such custom, policy and program has created a class of citizens, including Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA, who have been illegally stopped and seized, searched and questioned based on their race, and in order to meet arrest quotas. Evidence of said policy is as follows:

a. That in a class action lawsuit David Floyd, et. al. v. City of New York, et. al., pending in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, 08 CIV 1034, in a decision dated 5/16/12 certifying a class action lawsuit, it was found that between the years of 2005 and 2009 a reported 2.8 million people in New York City have been stopped and frisked. Of said number more than 87% were minority citizens. Summons and arrests were issued or made in approximately 10% of the reported stops. Meaning that based on their own records, defendants' suspicions are incorrect approximately 9 out of 10 stops.

b. The Honorable Shira A. Scheindlin, found in the Floyd decision that:

- i. It is indisputable that NYPD has an enormous Stop and Frisk program;
- ii. Evidence shows that the Stop and Frisk program is organized and hierarchical;
- iii. Stop and Frisk program has been designed and revised at highest levels of defendants;
- iv. The implementation of the program is conducted according to uniform and centralized rules;
- v. Monitoring of the program is hierarchical;

vi. The program is the result of institutional decisions and directives.

c. Justice Sheindlin further found that a preponderance of evidence shows that defendants policy of establishing performance standards and demanding increased levels of stop and frisks results in putative class of aggrieved citizens. The Court noted that street level stops have risen every year. That in 2004, defendants documented 313,000 stops, and in 2011 they reported 684,000 stops. In a Police Officer Performance Objectives Operation Order dated 10/17/11, Commissioner Kelly directed that “Department managers can and must set performance goals – relating to “the issuance of summons, the stopping and questioning of suspicious individuals and the arrests of criminals.” It further states that “uniformed members who do not demonstrate activities . . . or who fail to engage in proactive activities . . . will be evaluated accordingly and their assignments reassessed.”

301. Other instances of an illegal and/or improper stop and frisk program custom or practice and/or excessive use of force and filing of false charges includes but not limited to:

302. As is evidence from the above, Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of her freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

303. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance.

304. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

305. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as “good cops” but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

306. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Adhjly Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Lance of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a “punishment post” due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated “I’m not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he’s going to make it difficult for me if I don’t.”

307. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

308. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD’S policies, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of her rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

309. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff’s right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

310. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

311. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time he was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of his constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

312. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A TWENTY-EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF SAMUEL VENTURA

313. Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 312 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

315. Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA is and at all times relevant herein, a citizen of the United States and a resident of Bronx County in the State of New York and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section 1988.

VENTURA, did search, seize, assault and commit a battery and grab the Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA without a court authorized arrest warrant or search warrant and defendants did physically seize Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA during the arrest process in an unlawful and excessive manner. Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

317. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

318. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

319. Defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, subjected Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA to such deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA'S rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.

320. The direct and proximate result of the defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, Malfetano, Doe and Roe acts are that Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA has suffered severe and permanent injuries, loss of liberty and companionship, forced to endure pain and suffering, emotional distress and severe and significant damage to standing and reputation in the community.

321. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff SAMUEL VENTURA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

355. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff JASON GALARZA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY-SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF JASON GALARZA

356. Plaintiff JASON GALARZA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 355 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

357. That the CITY, NYPD, their agents, servants and employees were negligent, careless and reckless in hiring, retaining, training, monitoring, retraining, supervising and promoting its employees including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, in that said police officers, as employees of CITY and NYPD, were not qualified to be hired or retained or promoted as police officers, lacked the experience, skill, training and ability to be employed, retained and utilized in the manner that each was employed by CITY and NYPD.

358. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately test, analyze test results, and/or investigate above mentioned police officers backgrounds and performances.

359. That the CITY and NYPD failed to exercise due care and caution in its hiring, retaining, training and/or promoting practices in that CITY and NYPD failed to adequately screen said police officers, failed to adequately monitor said police officers, and failed to adequately discipline said police officers when they violate Patrol Guidelines.

360. Defendant CITY and NYPD were also negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the police officer defendants named herein, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said defendants, or at the very least had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that defendant police officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY and NYPD and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

361. That by reason of the above, the Plaintiff JASON GALARZA was injured in mind and body as he was arrested, prosecuted and rendered sick, sore, and damaged.

362. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

363. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff JASON GALARZA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY-THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF JASON GALARZA

364. Plaintiff JASON GALARZA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1-363 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

365. In arresting Plaintiff JASON GALARZA police officers including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, were motivated by an ulterior purpose to do harm, without justification or economic or social excuse.

366. In arresting Plaintiff JASON GALARZA, police officers including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, acting in their capacity as agents, servants and employees of CITY and NYPD, sought either a detriment to Plaintiff JASON GALARZA or a collateral advantage to the CITY and NYPD that is outside the legitimate ends of effectuating an arrest.

367. As a result of the abuse of process by defendants herein, Plaintiff JASON GALARZA sustained multiple injuries including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional distress, humiliation, loss of enjoyment of life, and fear and intimidation for his safety.

368. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the actions of CITY, NYPD and all defendants herein as described above were carried out in a reckless, deliberate, willful, wanton, malicious and grossly negligent manner.

369. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff JASON GALARZA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY- FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLAINTIFF JASON GALARZA

370. Plaintiff JASON GALARZA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 - 369 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

371. That on 5/19/23, at approximately 10:30 p.m., within the vicinity of East 152nd Street and Wales Avenue, County of Bronx, City and State of New York, the CITY and NYPD were present through its agents, servants and/or employees including but not limited to SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, Malfetano, DOE and ROE , who were acting in the course of their employment and under the color of law to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

372. That Plaintiff JASON GALARZA was lawfully in the above vicinity at the above time when she was stopped, questioned, searched and seized solely on the basis of her age and/or race and for no legal or legitimate reason.

373. That said illegal stop and seizure was part of the CITY'S custom and practice and/or practice of racial profiling, and/or meeting arrest or summons quotas, and/or the illegal stop and search of civilians which was authorized by, or met with the tacit approval of the CITY and NYPD under their "Stop, Question and Frisk" policy or program ("Stop and Frisk").

374. That under the "Stop and Frisk" program the CITY and NYPD permitted, condoned, or acted with deliberate indifference to the racial disparity of its' application, to the fact that unnecessary or illegal frisks or searches were conducted, that very low percentages of seizures, frisks and searches resulted in arrests or the recovery of contraband, that pretextual reasons are provided for "Stop and Frisk", that officers do not always fill out Stop and Frisk reports, i.e. UF-250s, and are not disciplined when they fail to do so, that stop and frisks are conducted without reasonable suspicion, and that the program of "Stop and Frisk" has resulted in illegal stops, seizures, frisks, arrests and the use of physical force.

375. That the CITY and NYPD have failed to discipline, train, monitor or retrain offending police officers who engaged in stops and frisks without any legal justification and has failed to discipline police officers who fail to fill out required UF-250s.

376. That the CITY and NYPD have failed to adequately investigate and/or discipline officers who use excessive force, stop and frisk innocent citizens who have not done anything illegal or acted in suspicious manner warranting a seizure, who failed to report misconduct of fellow officers, who destroy evidence, who engage in fraud, misrepresentations, deceit, and maliciously participate in and instigate prosecutions of innocent citizens.

377. It is alleged herein that Plaintiff JASON GALARZA was stopped and seized absent reasonable suspicion. That said actions of defendants were pursuant to an illegal and improper Stop and Frisk program that was promulgated by defendants. That such custom, policy and program has created a class of citizens, including Plaintiff JASON GALARZA, who have been illegally stopped and seized, searched and questioned based on their race, and in order to meet arrest quotas. Evidence of said policy is as follows:

a. That in a class action lawsuit David Floyd, et. al. v. City of New York, et. al., pending in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, 08 CIV 1034, in a decision dated 5/16/12 certifying a class action lawsuit, it was found that between the years of 2005 and 2009 a reported 2.8 million people in New York City have been stopped and frisked. Of said number more than 87% were minority citizens. Summons and arrests were issued or made in approximately 10% of the reported stops. Meaning that based on their own records, defendants' suspicions are incorrect approximately 9 out of 10 stops.

b. The Honorable Shira A. Scheindlin, found in the Floyd decision that:

- i. It is indisputable that NYPD has an enormous Stop and Frisk program;
- ii. Evidence shows that the Stop and Frisk program is organized and hierarchical;
- iii. Stop and Frisk program has been designed and revised at highest levels of defendants;
- iv. The implementation of the program is conducted according to uniform and centralized rules;
- v. Monitoring of the program is hierarchical;
- vi. The program is the result of institutional decisions and directives.

c. Justice Sheindlin further found that a preponderance of evidence shows that defendants policy of establishing performance standards and demanding increased levels of stop and frisks results in putative class of aggrieved citizens. The Court noted that street level stops have risen every year. That in 2004, defendants documented 313,000 stops, and in 2011 they reported 684,000 stops. In a Police Officer Performance Objectives Operation Order dated 10/17/11, Commissioner Kelly directed that “Department managers can and must set performance goals – relating to “the issuance of summons, the stopping and questioning of suspicious individuals and the arrests of criminals.” It further states that “uniformed members who do not demonstrate activities . . . or who fail to engage in proactive activities . . . will be evaluated accordingly and their assignments reassessed.”

378. Other instances of an illegal and/or improper stop and frisk program custom or practice and/or excessive use of force and filing of false charges includes but not limited to:

379. As is evidence from the above, Plaintiff JASON GALARZA'S injuries including the violation of his constitutional rights, the deprivation of his freedom, falsely and maliciously being prosecuted, physical and emotional injuries, are the direct and proximate result of the CITY'S and NYPD'S policies and/or deliberate indifference to practices which involve the excessive use of force, false arrest, police cover-ups, witness intimidation, malicious prosecution, illegal stop, questions and frisks, searches, Fourth Amendment violations, and deliberate indifference to the need to train, supervise, monitor, investigate and discipline, including suspension, dismissal and/or reassignment offending police officers. The practice is widespread and pervasive throughout the entire City of New York.

380. The CITY and NYPD knew or should have known of the customs and police practices of its officers which included but was not limited to: the failing to preserve and/or destruction of exculpatory evidence, threatening to arrest witnesses to police misconduct and engaging in cover-ups, fraud, perjury, deceit and malfeasance.

381. That the acts of employees of the CITY and NYPD, i.e. police officers, who violate the civil and constitutional rights of the citizens of the City of New York routinely go unreported, undisciplined and their acts condoned by other officers, including their supervisors. Upon information and belief, the supervisors of defendant police officers herein were aware of the conduct of defendant police officers and failed to stop, report or intervene in the misconduct.

382. The CITY and NYPD'S tolerance for brutality, excessive force, illegal and/or retaliatory arrests, and their emphasis to come down hard on quality of life infractions leads to a systemic practice and policy wherein police officers seem fairly tolerant of police brutality, silence in the face of brutality and/or illegal stops, frisks, searches, seizures and/or arrests, and engage in the practice of meeting arrest quotas. A systemic practice where officers who report said misconduct are not viewed as “good cops” but rather as outcasts and are ostracized and often transferred to other assignments thereby perpetuating the illegal conduct of the NYPD and thusly the CITY.

383. Some instances where officers were treated as outcasts for reporting misconduct and/or arrest/summons quota system are as follows:

a. The existence of arrest quotas, summons quotas and approval of illegal stops and arrests have been exposed by Police officer Adrian Schoolcraft in a separate lawsuit which was cited by Justice Sheindlin in Floyd.

b. Justice Sheindlin referenced the deposition of Police Officer Adhjly Polanco of the 41st Precinct stating that commanding officers set specific quotas for arrests and summons and for stop and frisks and threatened to reduce overtime for officers who failed to perform well and re-assign those who fail to meet quotas to less desirable posts.

c. According to secretly tape recorded conversations made by Schoolcraft, a Lieutenant, a Deputy Inspector and Chief of transportation can be heard encouraging and demanding increased stops, summons and detentions and arrests.

d. Police Officer Craig Lance of the 42nd Precinct filed a lawsuit against the NYPD claiming the existence of a quota system and a systematic retaliation and harassment to those who did not comply.

e. Retired Detective James Griffin filed a lawsuit claiming that in the NYPD there exists a culture wherein officers who report corruption will face harassment and a hostile work environment and that this conduct was tolerated by supervisors within the NYPD.

f. Police Officer Minoia, an officer with an Ivy League degree, assigned to the 42nd Precinct, was reassigned to a “punishment post” due to the fact that he failed to write a sufficient amount of summons and stated “I’m not going to pull out my summons book and write a summons because my boss is telling me he's going to make it difficult for me if I don't."

384. In sum, the CITY and NYPD are responsible for creating a custom, policy or practice wherein many officers do not seem to believe that anything is really wrong with stopping and searching innocent citizens or using unnecessary or excessive force or falsely arresting citizens to meet an arrest quota.

385. That the above customs, policies and/or practices and the deliberate indifference thereto, was a direct and proximate cause of the illegal seizure of Plaintiff JASON GALARZA, the excessive use of force on Plaintiff, and the false arrest and malicious prosecution of Plaintiff. The CITY and NYPD'S policies, customs and/or practices deprived the Plaintiff of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New York and under 42 U.S.C §§ 1983, 1986 and 1988.

386. That said actions violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, violated Plaintiff's right to be secure in person, and that the defendants used excessive, unnecessary and unlawful force, which constituted cruel and inhumane treatment and denied him due process of law.

387. Moreover, the CITY and NYPD caused or created a policy and/or custom, and acted with deliberate indifference to patterns and/or police practices which included illegal seizures, excessive or arbitrary use of force, illegal use of police equipment, destruction of evidence, intimidation of witnesses, illegal arrests, failing to gather evidence when allegations of police misconduct are involved, condoning a code of silence within the NYPD regarding misconduct, failing to take police reports of illegal conduct, failing to properly supervise, train, investigate or discipline officers, and any and/or all of the above have contributed to Plaintiff's false arrest, malicious and false prosecution, and injuries.

388. That the Plaintiff did not commit any illegal act, either before or at the time he was falsely arrested and imprisoned, assaulted, battered and deprived of his constitutional rights as set forth in the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C § 1983.

389. That by reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff JASON GALARZA has been damaged in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower trial courts of this state.

AS AND FOR A THIRTY- FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF
PLAINTIFF JASON GALARZA

390. Plaintiff JASON GALARZA repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 – 391 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.

392. At all times mentioned herein and above, defendants CITY and NYPD employed SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE as police officers and named defendants were acting under color of law, to wit: the statutes, ordinances and regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

393. Plaintiff JASON GALARZA is and at all times relevant herein, a citizen of the United States and a resident of Bronx County in the State of New York and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section 1988.

394. That on or about 5/19/23, defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE , without probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification and while effectuating the seizure of plaintiff JASON GALARZA, did search, seize, assault and commit a battery and grab the Plaintiff JASON GALARZA without a court authorized arrest warrant or search warrant and defendants did physically seize Plaintiff JASON GALARZA during the arrest process in an unlawful and excessive manner. Plaintiff JASON GALARZA was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and searched and as a result of defendants' conduct maliciously prosecuted without the defendants possessing probable cause, reasonable cause or legal justification to do so.

395. The above actions of defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE resulted in Plaintiff JASON GALARZA being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution: a) Freedom from assault to his person; b) Freedom from battery to his person; c) Freedom from illegal search and seizure; d) Freedom from false arrest; e) Freedom from malicious prosecution; f) Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process; and g) The right to Due Process of Law.

396. In addition to the above, defendants CITY and NYPD have as a matter of policy, custom and practice and with deliberate indifference failed to adequately train, monitor, supervise, discipline, sanction or otherwise direct its police officers, including the officers involved in this case and any and all unnamed officers involved in the unlawful seizure and arrest of plaintiff, regarding the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens.

397. Defendants CITY, NYPD, SANTOS, MARTINEZCABRERA, HENNESSY, MALFETANO, DOE and ROE, subjected Plaintiff JASON GALARZA to such deprivation in a malicious, reckless, deliberate, intentional, grossly negligent and with a callous disregard of Plaintiff JASON GALARZA'S rights and with deliberate indifference to those rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth and all other related Amendments to the United States Constitution.
