7. At least 30 days have elapsed since the service of such notice of claim(s) and that adjustment or payment has been neglected or refused.

FACTS

8. On May 15, 2016, at about 1:34 a.m., Plaintiff was lawfully in a vehicle at about Broadway and Madison Streets in Kings County, New York State.

9. On May 15, 2016, Defendant GUERDY GUERRIER (Shield # 25602) and JANE DOE # 1 were New York City Police Department officers (all collectively will be hereinafter referred to as "Defendant Police Officers.")

13. Defendant Police Officers had no warrant arrest Plaintiff.

14. Defendant Police Officers otherwise had not other lawful reasons to arrest Plaintiff.

15. Notwithstanding, Defendant Police Officers arrested and handcuffed Plaintiff.

16. Prior to being handcuffed, Plaintiff attempted to inform Defendant Police Officers that he had committed no crime and that he did not want be handcuffed and go to jail, but Plaintiff went peacefully and submitted without resistance to the false arrest.

17. Upon arrival at the jail, Plaintiff was subjected to a humiliating search and was deprived of all money and personal belongings.

21. As a result of this criminal complaint, Plaintiff had to appear publicly as a criminal defendant in court.

22. Because the charges in the criminal proceeding had no merit, all charges against Plaintiff (who was a criminal defendant at the time) were dismissed before the case ever went to trial.

with the foreseeable result that officers are more likely to use excessive or unreasonable force and against Plaintiff and in falsely arresting Plaintiff and others in the future.

47. Defendant CITY, therefore, is vicariously liable for the battery that Defendant police officers inflicted upon Plaintiff.

48. Thus, all Defendants are liable for the tort of battery.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Negligence)

53. Consequently, Defendant Police Officers are liable for negligence.

54. Defendant Police Officers acted within the scope of their duties as police officers for Defendant CITY and in the interest of the CITY when they arrested Plaintiff.
