Synopsis

On July 28, 2005, Lt. Emmanuel Gonzalez of the 70th Precinct called the CCRB call processing system to report a complaint filed by § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) initially filed his complaint at the 70th Precinct on July 25, 2005 and also at the Internal Affairs Bureau on July 28, 2005. § 87(2)(b) also called the CCRB call processing system on July 29, 2005 and reported that on July 25, 2005 at approximately 9:00 PM, his roommate, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) had an argument and § 87(2)(b) called 911. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b), were inside the apartment because they live there. All were present inside the apartment while § 87(2)(b) spoke to the officers that responded outside in the hallway. An officer whom § 87(2)(b) identified as PO Aleisha Grant of the 70th Precinct from her nameplate, an unidentified sergeant, and ten other officers banged forcefully on the door. When § 87(2)(b) answered the door, the officers rushed into the apartment for no reason. § 87(2)(b) stated that he and § 87(2)(b) did not give the officers permission to enter the apartment (Allegation A) and the officers entered the apartment without a warrant. The officers damaged the wall of the apartment (Allegation B). One of the officers pushed § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) (Allegation C). § 87(2)(b) on the scratch copy of the CCRB complaint form believes it was the unidentified sergeant but § 87(2)(b) believes it was PO Grant who pushed Blanco § 87(2)(b). The unidentified sergeant punched § 87(2)(b) in the face (Allegation D). Additionally, the sergeant punched § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) in the face and pushed her against a refrigerator (Allegation E). § 87(2)(b) on the scratch copy of the CCRB report, stated that the officer with whom she interacted was “Officer Grandstaff,” and he said, “Shut up before I arrest you” (Allegation F). A search of the complaint tracking system revealed the officer to be Sgt. Norman Grandstaff of the 70th Precinct. At approximately 9:30 PM, § 87(2)(b) called 911 a second time to request the presence of a lieutenant or a sergeant because he wanted to press charges and file a civilian complaint against the officers who responded to his home. Approximately ten more officers responded to the scene. EMS was called to the scene but § 87(2)(b) stated that he did not receive medical attention. The officers accused § 87(2)(b) of being intoxicated. He requested to take a Breathalyzer test but was not given one. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) were arrested and they did not find out why they were arrested until they went to court. § 87(2)(b) stated that he was going to file a lawsuit. All the officers who responded were in uniform. The sergeant was in a patrol car and everyone else appeared to be on foot.

On August 8, 2005, the investigator called § 87(2)(b) on his home phone and a recorded message stated that the number had been disconnected. The investigator called § 87(2)(b) s cell phone and left a message requesting that he call back. § 87(2)(b) did not call back. On August 10, 2005, a contact letter was mailed to § 87(2)(b) s home address. § 87(2)(b) did not respond. On August 15, 2005, the investigator called § 87(2)(b) again and left a message. § 87(2)(b) called later that day and confirmed the above narrative and confirmed the receipt of the contact letter. An appointment was scheduled for § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) to appear at the CCRB on August 20, 2005, but they did not appear as scheduled. The investigator also called § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) s cell phone on August 17, 2005 and left a message that she call the investigator but she did not respond. A contact letter was mailed to § 87(2)(b) on August 24, 2005 requesting that he call to reschedule his appointment. There was no response.

On August 30, the investigator called the § 87(2)(b) home and spoke to § 87(2)(b) who stated that § 87(2)(b) was not home and that he is the one pursuing the complaint. The investigator left a message requesting that § 87(2)(b) contact the investigator. The investigator made further attempts to contact § 87(2)(b) and the family on by calling twice on September 6, 2005, September 19, 2005, and sending a final contact letter on October 5, 2005, all with no response from § 87(2)(b).
