Plaintiffs TYRONE JOHNSON, LILA ROBINSON, and LAWRENCE TURNER by their attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiffs rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On January 22, 2020, at approximately 6:00 a.m., plaintiffs TYRONE JOHNSON, LILA ROBINSON, and LAWRENCE TURNER, while lawfully inside 240 Lott Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, were subject to an unlawful search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. Plaintiffs were maliciously prosecuted and denied the right to due process and a fair trial until all charges against all plaintiffs were dismissed and sealed in their entirety on or about April 10, 2020. Plaintiffs were deprived of their constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully searched, confined, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted, and denied plaintiffs the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff TYRONE JOHNSON is a resident of the state of New York.
3. Plaintiff LILA ROBINSON is a resident of the state of New York.
4. Plaintiff LAWRENCE TURNER is a resident of the state of New York.
5. NYPD DETECTIVE PAUL A DAWKINS, Shield No. 1571, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
6. NYPD DETECTIVE PAUL A DAWKINS, Shield No. 1571, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the NYPD 547 Command.
7. NYPD DETECTIVE PAUL A DAWKINS, Shield No. 1571, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.
8. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. Police Officer John Does Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a Police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
12. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

13. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff Tyrone Johnson testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on June 30, 2020.

14. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

15. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

16. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

17. On January 22, 2020, at approximately 6:00 a.m., plaintiffs were lawfully present inside 240 Lott Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully handcuffed and falsely arrested plaintiffs without probable cause, or any legal justification.

18. Plaintiff Lawrence Turner lived at the location of 240 Lott Avenue on the date of the incident.

19. Plaintiffs Tyrone Johnson and Lila Robinson were temporarily overnight guests at the location.

20. Plaintiff Turner was in one bedroom, and Plaintiffs Johnson and Robinson were in another bedroom.

21. Non Party Joshua Prince was also staying in a third bedroom.

22. At approximately 6:00 A.M., the Defendant Officers broke down the door to the apartment and unlawfully handcuffed everyone inside the apartment, including all three Plaintiffs.

23. Defendant Officers then proceeded to search the entire apartment, including the living room, common rooms, bathrooms, and bedrooms.

24. After about two hours of searching, no contraband or anything illegal was found.

25. Nevertheless, all three Plaintiffs were taken from 240 Lott Avenue to the NYPD 73rd Precinct.

26. Plaintiffs asked the Defendants why they were being arrested, but were not given an answer.

27. At no time relevant herein did plaintiffs commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officer have an objective reason to accuse plaintiffs of committing a crime or violating the law in any way, nor did Plaintiffs have any open warrants.

28. Plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

29. At no point in time did plaintiffs resist arrest in any way.

30. Plaintiffs were searched, and no contraband or anything illegal was found on them.

31. Plaintiffs were transported to the 73rd Precinct for processing.

32. Plaintiffs continually asked what they were being arrested for, but were not given an answer.

33. Plaintiffs were then transported to Kings County Central Bookings.

34. The defendant police officers provided the District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that plaintiffs committed a crime.

35. Plaintiffs Lawrence Turner and Lila Robinson were released from Central Bookings with no charges, as the Kings County District Attorney's Office determined that no crime was committed, and declined to prosecute their cases.

36. Plaintiffs Turner and Robinson never saw a Judge or lawyer.

37. On January 23, 2020, after approximately 24 hours in unlawful custody, plaintiff Tyrone Johnson was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court, and charged with crimes that the defendant officers had no basis to allege that he committed.

38. All criminal charges against Plaintiff Johnson were dismissed and sealed on April 10, 2020.

39. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, falsely arresting and imprisoning, denying the right to due process and a fair trial, and maliciously prosecuting of plaintiff.

40. The unlawful, search, seizure, false arrest and imprisonment, denial of the right to a fair trial, and malicious prosecution of plaintiffs by the individually named defendants caused plaintiffs to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

41. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 40 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

42. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiffs to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of plaintiffs' right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

43. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

44. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 43 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

45. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiffs and, in fact, confined plaintiffs, and plaintiffs were conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiffs did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

46. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

47. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

48. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

49. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

50. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 49 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

51. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiffs' freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

52. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiffs.

53. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

54. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

55. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

56. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

57. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 56 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

58. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

59. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

60. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

61. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiffs TYRONE JOHNSON, LILA ROBINSON, and LAWRENCE TURNER and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiffs' constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

62. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs TYRONE JOHNSON, LILA ROBINSON, and LAWRENCE TURNER, sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of their constitutional rights.

63. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

64. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

65. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

66. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 65 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

67. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiffs. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiffs and violated plaintiffs' statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

68. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiffs and violated plaintiffs' statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiffs by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

69. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

70. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

71. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

72. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

73. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 72 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

74. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

75. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

76. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 75 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

77. The defendants that did not physically touch plaintiffs, but were present when other officers violated plaintiffs' Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

78. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

79. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs' liberty were restricted for an extended period of time, they were put in fear of their safety, and they were humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

80. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

81. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

82. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

83. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

84. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 83 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

85. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the United States Constitution, State of New York and New York State common law.

86. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiffs.

87. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiffs and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

88. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiffs' favor on the aforementioned dates.

89. Plaintiffs were subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiffs' Fourth Amendment rights.

90. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

91. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

92. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

93. Plaintiffs hereby demand trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs TYRONE JOHNSON, LILA ROBINSON, and LAWRENCE TURNER demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
