VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff DESTINY JEMISON, by her attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for her Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On October 27, 2021, at approximately 6:45 a.m., Plaintiff Destiny Jemison, while lawfully in the vicinity of 48 Monument Walk, County of Kings, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, assault, battery and excessive use of force by defendant Police Officers. In doing so, defendant Police Officers injured Plaintiff's wrist, causing severe bruising. Plaintiff was deprived of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and her constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Destiny Jemison is a resident of the state of New York.
2. NYPD Police Detective Paul A. Dawkins is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.

3. NYPD Police Detective Paul A. Dawkins is being sued in their individual and official capacity.
4. Currently and at all times relevant herein, upon information and belief NYPD Police Detective Paul Dawkins, Shield No. 1571, was assigned to the Narcotics Borough Brooklyn North of the NYPD.
5. As the Narcotics Bureau Brooklyn North is an assignment that maintains a covert location, New York City Police Detective Paul Dawkins, Shield No. 1571, therefore accepts service by the NYPD via the Detectives Office, Room 110-A, at 1 Police Plaza
6. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers one through ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
7. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers one through ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
10. Plaintiff in furtherance of her causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on February 3, 2022.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On October 27, 2021, at approximately 6:45 a.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of 48 Monument Walk, County of Kings, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff without legal justification.
16. Plaintiff was asleep in bed with her then boyfriend, Rashad Staten, at his house.
17. Plaintiff was an overnight guest in Mr. Staten's house.
18. Rashad Staten's mother, Staretta Staten, was also present in the apartment.
19. Approximately ten to fifteen Defendant Officers broke down the apartment door and entered without knocking or otherwise announcing their presence.
20. Defendant Officers rushed into the apartment with guns drawn and flashlights out.
21. Defendant Officers carried black bulletproof shields.
22. Defendant Officers entered the bedroom and dragged Plaintiff and Mr. Staten off the bed.
23. Defendant Officers forced Plaintiff onto the floor.
24. Plaintiff only had a bra and panties on and was exposed to all the officers while she lay on the floor.
25. Defendant Officers responded "Don't move."
26. After a moment, Defendant Officers removed Mr. Staten from the bedroom.
27. A female Defendant Officer entered the bedroom and all other Defendant Officers exited.
28. The female Defendant Officer remained in the bedroom as Plaintiff put on a shirt and shorts.
29. After Plaintiff was dressed, the female Defendant Officer took Plaintiff to the living room.
30. The female Defendant Officer placed Plaintiff's hands behind her back and handcuffed her.
31. The female Defendant Officer sat Plaintiff on the couch where she remained for approximately one hour.
32. Plaintiff informed the female Defendant Officer that the handcuffs were too tight.

33. The female Defendant Officer ignored Plaintiff's plea and told her to be quiet.
34. Defendant Officers searched the apartment, including the bedroom where Plaintiff had been sleeping.
35. Plaintiff was placed into a police vehicle by two Defendant Officers and transferred to the 73rd precinct.
36. Upon Plaintiff's arrival to the 73rd precinct, Plaintiff's phone and money, approximately three hundred dollars, were taken from her.
37. As of the filing of this complaint, Defendant Officers have refused to return plaintiff's possessions that they unlawfully seized.
38. Plaintiff was placed into a holding cell where she remained for hours before being transported to Kings County Central Booking.
39. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
40. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Criminal Possession of a Firearm, Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance, Criminal Possession of a Weapon, and Possession of Pistol ammunition
41. Upon Plaintiff's arrival to Central Booking, Plaintiff was placed in a cell with approximately ten other individuals.
42. Some of the individuals in the Central Booking Cell were violent. Plaintiff tried her best to remain quiet and stayed away from them.
43. Plaintiff received medical attention while at Central Booking. Plaintiff was given wet napkins to place on her wrist to stop the burning. The handcuffs had been placed too tightly and left bruises and a burning sensation.
44. The next morning, on October 28, 2021, Plaintiff was given paperwork stating that the People had declined to prosecute.
45. On information and belief, the case against Plaintiff was declined because there was never any probable cause to arrest her in the first place.
46. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

47. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
48. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.
49. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
50. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

51. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
52. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
53. The conduct of defendants in approaching and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
54. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.
55. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
56. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

57. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

58. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
59. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

60. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
61. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
62. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.
63. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
64. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
65. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

66. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
67. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, roughly handcuffing Plaintiff constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of her rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

68. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

69. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

70. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

71. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Failure to Intervene

72. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

73. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

74. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

75. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's suffered injury, her liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, she was put in fear of her safety, her injuries worsened, she did not receive necessary medical treatment immediately, and she was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

76. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

77. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

78. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

79. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

80. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
81. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
82. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in her person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
83. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing her detention for approximately 17 hours in total.
84. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

85. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
86. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
87. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in her person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
88. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

89. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of her rights.

90. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

91. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

92. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals" as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.

93. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

94. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

95. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in her person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

96. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing her detention for approximately 17 hours.

97. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

98. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

99. Defendant Officers are “covered individuals” as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.
100. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.
101. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
102. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in her person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
103. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff’s AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
104. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of her rights.
105. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

106. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
107. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:
- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of her person and property;
 - ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
 - iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
 - iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
 - v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

108. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, economic and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

109. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

110. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

111. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff DESTINY JEMISON demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq.
