Plaintiff Timothy Williams, by his attorney, ILISSA BROWNSTEIN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiff, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiff and malicious prosecution of plaintiff. Defendants additionally used excessive force in violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights protected by the Eighth Amendment and the state tort laws.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Timothy Williams is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Brooklyn, New York.
3. Detective Dawn Ganci (Shield # 7720) is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. Detective Dawn Ganci (Shield # 7720) is being sued in her individual capacity and official capacity.
5. Police Officer John Doe #1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
6. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.

7. Police Officers John Does #2-3 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
8. Police Officer John Does #2-3 are being sued in their individual capacities and official capacities.
9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
11. Plaintiff in furtherance of his State causes of action filed a timely (with regard to some claims) Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Municipal Law Section 50.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
13. The City of New York held a 50(H) hearing examination of the Plaintiff on December 8, 2014.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. Timothy Williams is 27 years old.
15. Since May of 2013, Plaintiff has been employed at Teri Nichols IFM as a Warehouse Picker where he packs and delivers food to different schools.
16. This was Plaintiff's first arrest.
17. On October 1, 2013, at approximately 8:30 p.m., on Rockaway Beach Boulevard between 84th and 85th Street, in Brooklyn New York, Plaintiff was talking with his friend, Nathan Bracker, on the street. His friend was inside his car while Plaintiff was next to the car on the sidewalk.

18. An unmarked police car passed the Plaintiff and Mr. Bracker three times, staring at them each time they passed.
19. After their third time passing, the police vehicle stopped and pulled over, parking in back of Mr. Bracker's car.
20. Three police officers came out and approached Plaintiff and his friend, instructing them to go to the back of Mr. Bracker's car.
21. One officer accused Mr. Bracker of not being the owner of his car and demanded that he surrender his keys. The officer did not ask for his license or registration.
22. The officer snatched the keys from Mr. Bracker's hand and then proceeded to punch him in the face. The officer punched and kicked Mr. Bracker and then threw him on the ground. The officer then pepper sprayed him and continued kicking Mr. Bracker until he was under the car.
23. Plaintiff tried to tell the officer that he didn't do anything, but the second officer told him to shut up and then punched Plaintiff in the face. The officer punched him a second time and Plaintiff dodged, hitting his left shoulder. Plaintiff fell to the ground and was handcuffed.
24. Plaintiff was arrested and charged with criminal mischief.
25. He was incarcerated for approximately 24 hours.
26. On October 2, 2013 at his arraignment, Plaintiff was ROR'ed.
27. Plaintiff attended 5 court appearances.
28. On August 29, 2014, Plaintiff's case was dismissed on motion of the prosecutor.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF PLAINTIFF'S FOURTH AMENDMENT AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT RIGHTS

29. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 28 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
30. The individually named defendants who were acting in concert and within the scope of their authority at the NYPD arrested and caused plaintiff to be imprisoned without probable cause, maliciously prosecuted, and subjected to excessive forced based as well as an unlawful abusive search in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty and the right to privacy under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

31. Plaintiff repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 30 as if fully set forth herein.
32. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
33. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
34. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

ASSAULT

35. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 34 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
36. Defendants their employees, servants and agents, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that he had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, and that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff.
37. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
38. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

BATTERY

39. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 38 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
40. Defendants their employees, servants and agents, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously battered plaintiff when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner punched the plaintiff until he fell on the ground without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiff and caused such battery.
41. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
42. The City, as the employer of Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

43. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 42 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
44. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

45. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
46. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
47. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

48. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was physically assaulted and subjected to an illegal and physically abusive search.
49. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
50. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

51. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 50 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
52. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
53. Defendants breached that duty of care by assaulting plaintiff and subjecting him to an illegal and physically abusive search.
54. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
55. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
56. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

57. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 56 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
58. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

59. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
60. The City, as the employer of the Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

61. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 60 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
62. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
63. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions.
64. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
65. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
66. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and prosecuted.
67. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, TIMOTHY WILLIAMS, plaintiff, demands a judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this actions which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as appropriate under the law.

ATTORNEY'S VERIFICATION

ILISSA BROWNSTEIN, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am attorney at the law firm of ILISSA BROWNSTEIN, ESQ., I have read the annexed VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters wherein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, and other pertinent information contained in my files. The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiff's is that Plaintiff does not reside in the county wherein I maintain my office.
