VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff JACKLEEN MCCLINTON, by her attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for her Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On March 6, 2019, at approximately 4:00 p.m., plaintiff Jackleen McClinton, while lawfully in the vicinity of White Plains Road and East 217th Street, Bronx, New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. In addition, Plaintiff was subjected to an assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the defendant officers when the defendant police officers forcibly tackled, dragged, choked, and slammed Plaintiff against a car, causing her to suffer torn ligaments in her knee. Plaintiff was then unlawfully imprisoned at the 47th Precinct and Bronx Central Booking for approximately 24 hours until plaintiff was arraigned in Criminal Court, charged with crimes she did not commit, and released on her own recognizance. Plaintiff was denied the right to due process and a fair trial until the assault charges against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on August 19, 2019. Plaintiff was deprived of her constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, denied access to medical care, and denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff JACKLEEN MCCLINTON is a resident of the state of New York.
3. NYPD SCHOOL SAFETY AGENT VALERIA CARRASQUILLO, Shield No. 6760, is and was at all times relevant herein, a School Safety officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. NYPD SCHOOL SAFETY AGENT VALERIA CARRASQUILLO, Shield No. 6760, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the SSA 47th Precinct.
5. NYPD SCHOOL SAFETY AGENT VALERIA CARRASQUILLO, Shield No. 6760, is being sued in her individual and official capacity.
6. NYPD SERGEANT JUAN NOLASCO, Tax ID. 937196,, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
7. NYPD SERGEANT JUAN NOLASCO, Tax ID. 937196, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 47th Precinct.
8. NYPD SERGEANT JUAN NOLASCO, Tax ID. 937196, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.
9. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Police Officers John Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

13. Plaintiff in furtherance of her causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

14. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on July 15, 2019.

15. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

16. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

17. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On March 6, 2019, at approximately 4:00 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of White Plains Road and East 217th Street, Bronx, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, and falsely arrested plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

19. Plaintiff was present at the location because she had a meeting with the Principal of her niece's School.

20. Plaintiff was standing across the street from the school, waiting until after dismissal to have her meeting with the Principal.

21. For no reason at all, the Defendant Police Officers approached Plaintiff, grabbed her, pushed her, choked her, tackled her, and placed her in handcuffs.

22. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officer have an objective reason to accuse plaintiff committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

23. At no point did defendants recover any drugs, weapons, or other illegal contraband from plaintiff or from a location that was in plaintiff's possession, custody or control.

24. Nevertheless, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

25. Defendants then slammed Plaintiff up against a vehicle, without permission or authority, causing her to suffer torn ligaments in her knee.

26. The defendant police officers transported plaintiff to the 47th Precinct against her will, where plaintiff was unlawfully photographed, fingerprinted and detained in a holding cell.

27. While at the 47th precinct, Plaintiff continually and repeatedly asked for medical attention and to be taken to the hospital due to the assault by the Defendants, but Defendants refused to provide medical attention.

28. Plaintiff was then transported from the 67th Precinct to Central Booking.

29. Plaintiff could not walk at all, and had to be dragged from the precinct cell to the car to Central Booking.

30. The defendant police officers provided the District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that plaintiff committed a crime.

31. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the District Attorney's Office that plaintiff was engaged in assaulting a police officer.

32. On March 7, at approximately 3:00 p.m., after 24 hours in unlawful custody, plaintiff was arraigned in Bronx County Criminal Court, charged with crimes that the defendant officers had no basis to alleged that she committed and was released from custody.

33. When Plaintiff was released from custody, the same day, she went to the emergency room at Bronx Lebanon Hospital to be treated for her injuries to her knee and leg.

34. Plaintiff was diagnosed with torn ligaments in her knee, given a cast, and a cane, and referred to Montefiore for additional treatment.

35. On May 6, 2019, Plaintiff had surgery on the torn ligaments in her knee at Montefiore Hospital.

36. Plaintiff is still currently being treated at Morris Heights Clinic, two times per week, for physical therapy for her knee.

37. Plaintiff was unable to work as a child care provider because of the injuries to her knee and leg.

38. Thereafter, on August 19, 2019 all charges against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed.

39. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, assaulting, battering, using excessive force, falsely arresting and imprisoning, and denying plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial

40. The unlawful, search, seizure, assault, battery, use of excessive force, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of plaintiff's right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

41. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 40 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

42. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

43. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

44. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 43 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

45. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

46. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

47. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

48. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

49. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

50. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 49 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

51. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

52. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

53. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

54. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

55. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

56. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 55 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

57. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

58. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

59. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

60. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

61. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

62. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

63. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 62 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

64. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

65. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

66. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

67. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff JACKLEEN MCCLINTON, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

68. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff JACKLEEN MCCLINTON, sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of her constitutional rights.

69. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

70. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

71. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

72. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 71 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

73. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to plaintiff by the defendant police officers was unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against her was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by injuring her knee.

74. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

75. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by plaintiff.

76. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

77. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

78. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

79. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 78 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

80. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, by slamming plaintiff's face into a holding cell constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of plaintiff in violation of her rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

81. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

82. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 81 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

83. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff.

84. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

85. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

86. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

87. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

88. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 90 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

89. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner handcuffed plaintiff excessively tightly without her consent and pulled her arm back with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiff and caused such battery.

90. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

91. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

92. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

93. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deliberate Indifference to Medical Needs

94. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 93 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

95. Defendants despite being aware that plaintiff was suffering through severe arm pain while in their custody and required medication and additional treatment from medical professionals, they delayed plaintiff's medical treatment and refused to administer and properly procure, immediate and adequate medical attention.

96. The delay in medical treatment to plaintiff's injuries resulted in permanent additional ongoing anxiety attacks suffered by plaintiff that would have been prevented if plaintiff received treatment in a timely manner.

97. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

98. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

99. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

100. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

101. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 100 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

102. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff, Usman Ahmed. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

103. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

104. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

105. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

106. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

107. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

108. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 110 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

109. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

110. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

111. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 110 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

112. The defendants that did not physically touch plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

113. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

114. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, she was put in fear of her safety, and she was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

115. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

116. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

117. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

118. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

119. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff JACKLEEN MCCLINTON demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
