STATEMENT OF FACTS

13. On or about March 22, 2014, Plaintiff was lawfully within her residence when two (2) police officers of the New York City Police Department, 113th Precinct, believed to be Police Officer Perez and Police Officer Keegan, knocked on her door.

¹ As used herein, the term “police officer” is intended to refer to New York City Police Department officers in the general and not to any specific rank, title or position.

14. Plaintiff opened the door and peacefully spoke with the defendant police officers, answering their questions.

15. The defendant police officers then asked Plaintiff for certain documentation to aid in their investigation of a purported complaint. Plaintiff advised said officers that she would retrieve the requested documents from her home and that she would be right back.

16. Plaintiff then closed the door when she walked away to obtain the documentation requested by the defendant police officers.

17. The defendant police officers then broke down the plaintiff's door and forcibly entered her home without permission, warrant or exigent circumstances.

18. The defendant police officers then verbally harassed and threatened Plaintiff, assaulted and battered Plaintiff, threw her to the ground, and sprayed her with chemical agents.

19. The defendant police officers then forcibly removed Plaintiff from her residence.

20. The defendant police officers then falsely arrested Plaintiff, falsely charged Plaintiff with crimes the defendant police officers knew Plaintiff had not committed, imprisoned and/or otherwise confined Plaintiff, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, all in an effort to cover-up, conceal and/or allege justification for their aforesaid unlawful and excessive use of force.

21. The defendant police officers failed to decontaminate Plaintiff in a timely, reasonable and thorough manner, as required by the NYPD Patrol Guide, Directives, and law.

22. Following her arrest, the defendant police officers transported Plaintiff to the 113th Precinct, where she was placed in a holding cell for several hours. Plaintiff was then transported to Queens General Hospital by ambulance, where she remained in police custody and handcuffed to her hospital bed for three and a half days.

23. Upon Plaintiff's discharge from the hospital, she was returned to the 113th Precinct for approximately four (4) hours and then transported to Central Booking while awaiting arraignment.

24. Plaintiff spent approximately five (5) days in police custody.

25. All charges against Plaintiff were dismissed on or about November 21, 2014.

26. At no time during the March 22, 2014 incident, did Plaintiff give the defendant police officers permission to enter her home.

27. At no time during the March 22, 2014 incident, did Plaintiff consent to the defendant police officers entry into her home.

28. The defendant police officers did not have a warrant to enter Plaintiff's home on March 22, 2014.

29. The defendant police officers did not have exigent circumstances to enter Plaintiff's home on March 22, 2014.

30. The defendant police officers did not have probable cause to arrest Plaintiff.

31. The defendant police officers did not have a warrant to arrest Plaintiff.

32. At the time of the aforesaid use of force, Plaintiff was not a threat, immediate or otherwise, to the defendant police officers or the public.

33. At no time prior to the use of force did Plaintiff attempt to flee from the defendant police officers.

34. At no time prior to the use of force did any NYPD officer attempt to defuse any perceived situation by issuing a verbal command or warning to Plaintiff or by using non-contact control techniques.

35. The defendant police officers could have avoided using force on Plaintiff, but neglected or refused to do so.

36. The defendant police officers used unlawful and excessive physical force upon Plaintiff.

37. The defendant police officers subjected Plaintiff to cruel, unusual, inhumane, humiliating and degrading treatment.

38. The defendant police officers used force on Plaintiff as punishment.

39. The defendant police officers subjected Plaintiff to unnecessary and wanton infliction of pain.

40. The defendant police officers' conduct was grossly disproportionate to the circumstances then and there existing.

41. The defendant police officers did not need to use physical force and/or inflict blows as Plaintiff was not threatening to the defendant police officers.

42. The defendant police officers did not need to use physical force and/or inflict blows upon Plaintiff in self-defense, in order to maintain order, in order to enforce observation of discipline, or in order to secure or control Plaintiff.

43. At no point during the time period mentioned herein did Plaintiff neglect or refuse a lawful order of a police officer or rule or regulation of the City or NYPD, nor did she resist or disobey any lawful command of a police officer, nor did she offer violence to any officer or other detainee, nor did she injure or attempt to injure public or private property, nor did she attempt to escape, nor did she attempt to lead or take part in a revolt or insurrection.

44. At no point during the aforesaid time period did any police officer or supervisor intervene, protect, or come to the aid or defense of Plaintiff.

45. In an effort to cover up their unlawful and excessive use of force, the defendant police officers failed to document and report the use of force to supervisors and/or command personnel, as required by the NYPD Patrol Guide and law.

46. In an effort to mitigate their unlawful and excessive use of force, the defendant police officers knowingly drafted and/or filed, or conspired to file, false records wherein they dishonestly reported the cause and events of the use of force.

47. As set forth above, NYPD supervisors and officers failed to notify City or federal authorities as to what they had seen and/or heard.

48. As set forth above, City, NYPD and/or their supervisory personnel failed to take appropriate action to investigate and report the subject incident.

49. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered physical, psychological and emotional injuries, loss of liberty, and pecuniary loss.

50. On May 19, 2014, a Notice of Claim, setting forth the time, place and manner in which Plaintiff's injuries were sustained, was duly electronically filed with the City of New York; that at least thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of such notice; that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused, although same was duly demanded; and this action has been commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the subject occurrence.

51. On July 9, 2014, a hearing pursuant to General Municipal Law §50-h was completed.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATIONS OF PLAINTIFF'S CIVIL RIGHTS

52. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of paragraphs "1" through "51", inclusive, of this Complaint, as if same were fully set forth herein.

53. As set forth above, the defendant police officers, acting under the color of law, did assault, batter and use excessive physical force on Plaintiff; did maliciously prosecute Plaintiff; did use force on Plaintiff as punishment; did retaliate against Plaintiff; did knowingly draft and/or file false reports, incident reports, criminal complaints and/or medical reports in an effort to cover-up evidence of their unlawful activities; and were deliberately indifferent to Plaintiff's safety, security, health, and immediate medical needs, all without legal cause or justification and with purposeful intent to cause harm to Plaintiff.

54. As set forth above, the defendant police officers acted with deliberate indifference to Plaintiff's well-established civil rights.

55. As set forth above, the defendant police officers failed to notify City or federal authorities as to what they had seen and/or heard, as required by law.

56. As set forth above, City and NYPD supervisors failed to take appropriate action to investigate and report the subject incident, as required by law.

57. As set forth above, the subject incident, as well as the defendant officers' ignoring, acquiescence, joining and/or complicity in same, constituted an unnecessary, unreasonable, and excessive use of force.

58. As set forth above, the defendant police officers have made every effort to conceal the truth about what actually occurred, including but not limited to covering up, or attempting to cover up, the illegal conduct complained of herein.

59. The defend the defendant police officers' aforesaid acts and omissions violated the plaintiff's clearly established civil rights and were the direct and proximate cause of the physical, psychological, and emotional injuries he suffered.

60. The actions of the defendant police officers were malicious in the instance.

61. The defendant police officers, by reasonable diligence, could have prevented the aforesaid wrongful acts from being committed.

62. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was subjected to a deprivation of rights, physical, psychological and emotional injuries, pain and suffering, pecuniary loss, and has been otherwise damaged thereby.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: CONSPIRACY

63. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of paragraphs "1" through "62", inclusive, of this Complaint, as if same were fully set forth herein.

64. NYPD supervisors, the defendant police officers, and/or the Queens County District Attorney's Office, acting under the color of law, willfully conspired to deprive the plaintiff of her civil rights, including but not limited to her right: to be free from cruel and unusual punishment; to be free from the use of unreasonable and/or excessive uses of force; to be free from false arrest, false imprisonment and malicious prosecution; to be free from unlawful search and seizure; to be free from harassment and intimidation; to be free from retaliation for exercising her First Amendment rights; and to associate and speak freely.

65. It was part of said conspiracy that the defendants failed to report the subject incident; did submit false reports, statements and/or testimony to support and corroborate the fabricated allegations lodged against the plaintiff, for their own benefit; and/or did deliberately suppressed the truth.

66. Defendants had knowledge that a conspiracy was in progress, had the power to prevent or aid in preventing the conspiracy from continuing, and neglected or refused to do so.

67. With due diligence, the defendant police officers could have prevented and/or mitigated the civil rights violations and intentional, negligent and/or deliberately indifferent conduct alleged herein.

68. With due diligence, NYPD officers and supervisors could have promptly reported the subject events to superiors and to duly authorized investigators. Their failure to do so has allowed the conspiracy to continue and the truth be suppressed.

69. Had said defendants complied with the law and furnished truthful information to authorities about their conduct, the conspiracy would not have succeeded to the extent that it has.

70. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was subjected to a deprivation of rights, physical, psychological and emotional injuries, pain and suffering, pecuniary loss, and has been otherwise damaged thereby.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION: ASSAULT AND BATTERY

71. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of paragraphs "1" through "70", inclusive, of this Complaint, as if same were fully set forth herein.

72. As set forth above, Plaintiff was assaulted and battered by PO Perez.

73. As set forth above, Plaintiff was assaulted and battered by PO Keegan.

74. The aforesaid assault and battery was excessive, unnecessary, unprovoked, unjustified, and unlawful.

75. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was subjected to a deprivation of rights, physical, psychological and emotional injuries, pain and suffering, pecuniary loss, and has been otherwise damaged thereby.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION NEGLIGENCE

76. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of paragraphs "1" through "75", inclusive, of this Complaint, as if same were fully set forth herein.

77. The defendants were negligent in the instance in their hiring, training, appointment, supervision and promotion of the defendant police officers and their supervisors; in failing to protect the safety, health and welfare of the plaintiff; in failing to quickly and diligently intercede on behalf of Plaintiff; in setting a trap for the plaintiff; in failing to take cognizance of a dangerous and escalating situation; in failing to take reasonable measures and precautions to avoid and/or mitigate violence; in violating the plaintiff's civil, statutory and common law rights; in infringing upon the freedoms afforded to the plaintiff; in failing to make reasonable and timely medical care available to Plaintiff; in failing to timely decontaminate Plaintiff; in unlawfully entering Plaintiff's home without a warrant, probable cause or exigent circumstances; in failing to protect Plaintiff; in failing to protect the plaintiff's health, safety, liberty and property interests; in acting in a violent and dangerous manner towards the plaintiff; in causing, creating and/or allowing unlawful conditions to be and remain; in failing to give the plaintiff notice and/or warning; in causing and/or allowing the plaintiff to be injured; in causing and creating a dangerous condition conducive to causing injury; in creating and allowing a nuisance to exist; in failing to provide for the safety of the plaintiff; in failing to protect the plaintiff in each and every instance set forth above; in causing, permitting and/or allowing the plaintiff to be assaulted and battered; in arresting Plaintiff without probable cause and under false pretenses; in detaining and/or imprisoning Plaintiff without legal cause; in using excessive physical force in the instance; in causing, permitting and/or allowing the plaintiff to be falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned and maliciously prosecuted; in denying the plaintiff access to timely, due and adequate medical care for the injuries she suffered during the subject incident; and the defendants were otherwise negligent, careless and reckless in the instance.

78. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, psychological and emotional injuries, pain and suffering, pecuniary loss, and has been otherwise damaged.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF NEW YORK CONSTITUTION AND STATUTES

79. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of paragraphs "1" through "78", inclusive, of this Complaint, as if same were fully set forth herein.

80. As set forth above, Plaintiff was deprived by defendants of her rights to free speech and association, to be free from unlawful search and seizure, to be free from gratuitous and excessive force and punishment, to be free from cruel and unusual punishment, to be free from retaliation and retribution, and to due process of law, as guaranteed to her by the constitution and statutes of the City and State of New York and the Charter of the City of New York.

81. The aforesaid violations, and the failures of the City and its supervisory personnel to take appropriate steps to curb the widespread pattern of same or similar conduct by their officers violated Plaintiff's rights under the New York State Constitution.

82. By their refusal to provide prompt medical attention to Plaintiff after she was injured, the defendants violated Plaintiff's civil and statutory rights.

83. The defendants conduct complained of herein violated Plaintiff's rights secured by the Constitution of the State of New York, Article 15 of the New York State Executive Law ("NYS Human Rights Law"), Section 40 et seq. of the New York State Civil Rights Law (the "NYS Civil Rights Law"), New York Corrections Law, and Sections 8-107 et seq., 8-502 et seq. and 8-603 et seq. of the Administrative Code of the City of New York (the "City Human Rights Law")

84. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, psychological and emotional injuries, pain and suffering, pecuniary loss, and has been otherwise damaged.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION: LIABILITY OF CITY OF NEW YORK

85. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of paragraphs "1" through "84", inclusive, of this Complaint, as if same were fully set forth herein.

86. The defendant police officers, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state and local law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the City of New York but which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

87. That prior to March 22, 2014, the City and NYPD developed and maintained customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules exhibiting deliberate indifference to the constitutional rights of the public, which caused the violations of the plaintiff's rights.

88. That the aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City and NYPD included, but were not limited to: (a) ignoring the constitutional rights of the general public; (b) ignoring and depriving the constitutional rights of persons in their custody and control; (c) failing to adequately instruct, train and supervise police officers in use of force, search and seizure, entry into an individual's home, forcible entry into an individual's home, and reasonable suspicion and probable cause; (d) using force in an unreasonable, unnecessary, unjustified and excessive manner; (e) failing to adequately instruct and supervise the police officers under said defendants' control in the proper and appropriate care and treatment of individuals and detainees in their custody and control; (f) inadequately and/or improperly investigating complaints of harassment, intimidation, misconduct, use of force and abuse by police officers, and inadequately punishing the subjects of those complaints which were substantiated; (g) tolerating acts of brutality; (h) failing to fully and faithfully investigate allegations that police officers used excessive force; (i) the Internal Affairs Bureau having substantially failed in their responsibilities to investigate misconduct and discipline offenders; (j) having policies that operate to insulate police officers who engage in criminal or other serious official misconduct from detection, prosecution, and punishment, and are maintained with deliberate indifference; and (k) allowing police officers and supervisors to engage in a pattern and practice of actively and passively covering up misconduct by fellow officers, thereby establishing and perpetuating a "code of silence", which has become so ingrained in the defendants so as to constitute a policy of the City and NYPD.

89. The long-standing failure or refusal to supervise the police officers under said defendants' control, including supervisory staff, is now so institutionalized as to constitute a policy or custom of tolerating and authorizing the type of abuse alleged herein. It is this policy or custom of abuse and cover-up that has caused the deprivation of the plaintiff's rights.

90. Said defendants' policy or custom of tolerating and authorizing this type of abuse is further evidenced by frequent and significant findings of misconduct over a period of years by command personnel, supervisors, and the police officers they supervise.

91. The failures and refusals by the City and NYPD to hold these supervisors and police officers accountable is a proximate cause of the injuries sustained by the plaintiff, and undoubtedly hundreds of other persons.

92. Through promotions and other financial and status incentives, the City and NYPD have the power to reward police officers who perform their jobs adequately and to punish – or at the very least fail to reward – those who do not. The City and NYPD's actions and omissions have created and maintained the perception among high-ranking supervisors that a supervisor who turns a blind eye towards evidence of officer harassment and intimidation, cover-up, medical neglect, or other misconduct, and fails to investigate these incidents, will suffer no damage to his or her career or financial penalty.

93. The pattern of unchecked abuse by police officers and supervisory staff, the extent to which these unlawful practices have been adopted by significant numbers of the staff, and the persistent failure or refusal of the City and NYPD to supervise these persons properly and to take action to curb the misconduct, demonstrates a policy of deliberate indifference which tacitly authorizes the claimed misconduct against the plaintiff

94. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City and NYPD constituted deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being and constitutional rights of the plaintiff.

95. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City and NYPD were the direct and proximate cause of the civil rights violations and injuries suffered by the plaintiff.

96. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City and NYPD were the moving force behind the civil rights violations and injuries suffered by the plaintiff.

97. Prior to and at the time of the subject date of incident, there existed a pattern and practice of police harassment, intimidation, excessive uses of physical force, cover-ups and conspiracies to cover-up unlawful conduct, failures to conduct unbiased and thorough investigations of same and to discipline staff meaningfully and promptly for misconduct, and the long-standing failure or refusal to supervise police officers, including supervisory staff. These practices are now so institutionalized as to constitute a policy or custom of tolerating and authorizing the wrongs alleged herein. It is this policy or custom of abuse and cover-up that has caused the deprivation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights.

98. The City and NYPD have failed or refused to hold accountable high-ranking supervisors (i.e., captains, lieutenants, assistant deputy commissioners, deputy commissioners, and commissioners) in the face of frequent and significant misconduct, over a period of years, by these supervisors and by the officers they supervise. This failure has subjected Plaintiff and other members of the public to the constitutional and statutory violations alleged herein. This failure is a proximate cause of the injuries sustained by the plaintiff and by other members of the public.

99. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages, together with attorney's fees, costs, expert's fees, and disbursements.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION:
INTENTIONAL AND NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

100. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of paragraphs "1" through "99", inclusive, of this Complaint, as if same were fully set forth herein.

101. The conduct of the defendant police officers was intentional, malicious and excessive, and served no reasonable or legitimate police interest.

102. The conduct of the defendant police officers was negligent and served no reasonable or legitimate police interest.

103. The defendants' intentional, reckless and/or negligent conduct constituted misconduct of an egregious and outrageous nature that exceeds all bounds usually tolerated by society and unreasonably endangered Plaintiff's physical safety.

104. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer severe and serious emotional injuries.

AS AND FOR AN EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION:
FALSE ARREST, FALSE IMPRISONMENT AND MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

105. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation of paragraphs "1" through "104", inclusive, of this Complaint, as if same were fully set forth herein.

106. As set forth above, Plaintiff was falsely arrested by PO Perez.

107. As set forth above, Plaintiff was falsely imprisoned by PO Perez.

108. As set forth above, Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted by PO Perez.

109. As set forth above, PO Perez intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, negligently and with malice caused the commencement of a criminal prosecution against Plaintiff in the Criminal Court of the City of New York, County of Queens, upon the filing of an accusatory instrument without probable cause.

110. In commencing and continuing the said malicious prosecution, PO Perez caused Plaintiff to be falsely charged with acts in violation of the Penal Law of the State of New York.

111. As set forth above, Plaintiff was falsely arrested by PO Keegan.

112. As set forth above, Plaintiff was falsely imprisoned by PO Keegan.

113. As set forth above, Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted by PO Keegan.

114. As set forth above, PO Keegan intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, negligently and with malice caused the commencement of a criminal prosecution against Plaintiff in the Criminal Court of the City of New York, County of Queens, upon the filing of an accusatory instrument without probable cause.

115. In commencing and continuing the said malicious prosecution, PO Keegan caused Plaintiff to be falsely charged with acts in violation of the Penal Law of the State of New York.

116. As set forth above, the defendants' arrest, imprisonment and prosecution of Plaintiff was malicious, unlawful and not based upon a proper warrant, probable cause or legal justification to seize the person and/or property of the plaintiff, and was therefore an unlawful arrest, detention, imprisonment, and prosecution.

117. The defendants acted in bad faith and with malice in causing the aforesaid arrest, imprisonment and prosecution of Plaintiff.

118. At the time of her unlawful arrest and imprisonment, Plaintiff had not committed or attempted to commit any illegal act.

119. At the time of plaintiff's unlawful arrest, detainment and/or imprisonment, defendants knew or should have known, through exercise of proper procedure and reasonable investigation, that the aforementioned arrest and imprisonment were false and without probable cause.

120. The defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, including but not limited to the defendant police officers, knew or should have known through the exercise of reasonable care and proper police procedure that the purported investigation into this matter was flawed and incomplete.

121. The defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, including but not limited to the defendant police officers, willfully, negligently and wrongfully continued to prosecute the Plaintiff for alleged violations of the Penal Law of the State of New York even though the defendants knew or should have known of facts and circumstances that would have lead a reasonably prudent police officer to conclude that the criminal complaint upon which said criminal prosecution was based, contained material falsehoods and was otherwise incomplete and improper, and that the continued prosecution of the Plaintiff was, therefore, improper under the circumstances.

105. The aforesaid false arrest and imprisonment and malicious prosecution caused Plaintiff to suffer emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, property damage, pecuniary loss, legal expenses, and damage to her reputation.

106. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions set forth in CPLR §1602.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests compensatory damages against all defendants in an amount to be determined at trial, punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be determined at trial, attorney's fees, costs and disbursements pursuant to law, and such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
