VERIFIED COMPLAINT

THE CITY OF NEW YORK, NYPD POLICE OFFICER
GEORGE SPRAGUE, Tax Reg. No. 966352, and NYPD
POLICE OFFICERS JOHN DOES NUMBERS ONE THROUGH FIVE,

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Defendants.

----- X

Plaintiff, ALJAMEK WOOD, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violations of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and laws of the State of New York. On September 21, 2023, at approximately 10:30 p.m., Plaintiff, while lawfully in the vicinity of 122nd Avenue and 192nd Street, County of Queens, State of New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, detention, search, and arrest by the defendant police officers. Further, Plaintiff was subjected to grossly excessive force, assault, and battery when defendant officers tackled him to the ground in the absence of any legal justification, slammed his head to the ground, and in an uncoordinated attempt to handcuff him, contorted his arms in opposite directions, all causing immense pain, discomfort, and injury. As a result of the injuries he sustained, Plaintiff received considerable medical treatment. In addition, Plaintiff was subjected to approximately 48 hours of unlawful confinement at the 113 Precinct and Queens County Central Booking. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law, and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff, Aljamek Wood, is a resident of the State of New York.

3. NYPD POLICE OFFICER GEORGE SPRAGUE, Tax Reg. No. 966352, was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. NYPD POLICE OFFICER GEORGE SPRAGUE, Tax Reg. No. 966352, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

5. Upon information and belief, NYPD POLICE OFFICER GEORGE SPRAGUE, Tax Reg. No. 966352, was at all times relevant herein assigned to the 113 Precinct.

6. NYPD POLICE OFFICERS JOHN DOES NUMBERS ONE THROUGH FIVE are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. NYPD POLICE OFFICERS JOHN DOES NUMBERS ONE THROUGH FIVE are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law § 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law § 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law § 50-H on December 9, 2024.

12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On September 21, 2023, at approximately 10:30 p.m., Plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of 122nd Avenue and 192nd Street, County of Queens, City and State of New York, when the defendant officers unlawfully descended upon, stopped, detained, searched, assaulted, battered, and arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

16. At the referenced place and time, Plaintiff was alone, walking home after bringing his younger sister to the Universoul Circus, held in nearby Roy Wilkins Park.

17. Plaintiff was aggressively approached by the defendant officers.

18. Upon arrival, the defendant officers demanded Plaintiff to stop or be tasered.

19. Confused and unsure what was going on, Plaintiff slowed his walk and attempted to inquire what the defendant officers wanted.

20. Immediately and without provocation, NYPD POLICE OFFICER GEORGE SPRAGUE, Tax Reg. No. 966352 tackled Plaintiff to the ground using the force of his whole body.

21. Once on the ground, the defendant officers, in concert, slammed Plaintiff's head to the ground and contorted his arms in various directions.

22. The above-referenced conduct caused Plaintiff alarm, distress, discomfort, pain, and injury.

23. At this point and despite the complete lack of probable cause or lawful justification, and the fact that they had begun causing serious physical injury, the defendant officers began to restrain him with unreasonably tight metal handcuffs.

24. The defendant officers then subjected Plaintiff to an unlawful search before forcefully lifting him up causing further pain.

25. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective basis to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

26. At no point did defendant officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

27. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

28. Thereafter, Plaintiff was placed in the back of an NYPD vehicle and transported against his will to the 113 Precinct.

29. Upon his arrival, Plaintiff was again unlawfully searched, fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

30. At the precinct, Plaintiff would request medical attention for his obvious injuries, including, but not limited to his bleeding left eye, but was denied same.

31. Thereafter, Plaintiff was transported to Central Booking, where he was again processed and detained in a holding cell.

32. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Queens County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading, and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff had committed a crime.

33. Specifically, the defendant officers alleged that Plaintiff had engaged in fare assault in the second degree and related offenses.

34. Plaintiff was arraigned in criminal court on the false charges and released on his own recognizance after approximately 48 hours in custody.

35. As a result of the defendant officers' conduct, Plaintiff sustained serious physical injuries, not the least of which included left eye laceration; right-sided neck, back, and hip pain and range of motion limitations; and numbness of the left hand.

36. Plaintiff's injuries have necessitated ongoing treatment and care. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff may require corrective surgery as a result of these injuries.

37. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

38. The unlawful arrest, confinement, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain mental and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

39. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

40. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

41. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers were unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by, among other things, tackling him, slamming his head against the ground, and contorting his arms.

42. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

43. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

44. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

45. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

46. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

47. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

48. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

49. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

50. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

51. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

52. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

53. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

54. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

55. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest/False Imprisonment

56. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

57. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

59. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

61. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

62. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

63. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, tackling him to the ground, slamming his head against the concrete sidewalk, and contorting his arms, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

64. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

65. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

66. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff.

67. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

68. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

69. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

70. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

71. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

72. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

73. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train, and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

74. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Failure to Intervene

75. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

76. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

77. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

78. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered permanent injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear for his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

79. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

80. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

81. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

82. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

83. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

84. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Queens County District Attorney's Office.

85. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Queens County District Attorney's Office.

86. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Queens District Attorney's Office.

87. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

88. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

89. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

90. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

91. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
42 U.S.C § 1983 and New York State Law
Malicious Prosecution

92. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

93. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

94. Defendants commenced and continued criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.

95. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which she was prosecuted.

96. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Assault

97. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

98. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

99. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

100. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

101. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

102. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

103. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

104. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner tackled him to the ground, slammed his head into the concrete sidewalk, and contorted his arms, brutally effecting an unlawful arrest without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.

105. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

106. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

107. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

108. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

109. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

110. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

111. The acts of the defendant officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

112. The defendant officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately 48 hours in total.

113. By reason of the acts and omissions by defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured mental and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

114. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

115. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

116. Defendant officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

117. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

118. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

119. By reason of the acts and omissions by defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured mental and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

120. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

121. Defendant officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

122. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual defendant officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual defendant officers.

123. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

124. The acts of defendant officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

125. The defendant officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched Plaintiff, before detaining and further causing his detention for approximately 48 hours in total.

126. By reason of the acts and omissions of defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured mental and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

127. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

128. Defendant officers are “covered individuals,” as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

129. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual defendant officers, is liable to Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual defendant officers.

130. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

131. The defendant officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

132. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

133. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

134. By reason of the acts and omissions of defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured mental and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

135. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

136. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of his person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

137. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered mental, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

138. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer mental, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

139. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the individual defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

140. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, ALJAMEK WOODS, demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C.
