STATEMENT OF FACTS

21. On June 14, 2019, at approximately 9:23 a.m. in the area of Conduit Boulevard and Grant Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, several police officers from the 75th Precinct, and other unknown police commands, including upon information and belief, defendant NYPD Officer Shawn Mood (Shield # 17541), NYPD Officer Andrew Burke (Shield # 8272), NYPD Sergeant Brian Koo (Shield # 4780), and P.O. John and Jane Does #1-10, and other as yet unknown police officers, at times acting in concert and at times acting independently, committed the following illegal acts against Plaintiff.
22. On June 14, 2019 at approximately 9:23 a.m., Plaintiff was walking to a nearby gas station in the area of Conduit Boulevard and Grant Avenue, when he was illegally stopped, handcuffed, frisked, and placed in an NYPD patrol car by defendant NYPD Officers Mood and Burke, and defendant NYPD Sergeant Koo, and/or NYPD Officers Jane and/or John Doe #'s 1-10.
23. At the time of his arrest, and at all times subsequent, there was no evidence in or around Plaintiff's person indicating he had committed a crime. No contraband or the proceeds of any alleged robbery was recovered from Plaintiff's person.

24. Once the defendant officers approached Plaintiff, he was not free to leave.
25. Plaintiff was detained at the 75th Precinct for hours. During this time, the handcuffs on Plaintiff's wrists and ankles were fastened in an extremely tight manner, causing Plaintiff severe pain. Despite Plaintiff's complaint and request to loosen the cuffs, defendant officers failed to do so.
26. At some point during his detention at the 75th Precinct, multiple defendant NYPD officers believed to be defendant Officers Mood and Burke and/or Jane or John Doe #'s 1-10, forced Plaintiff on to the ground and using their knees, applied the full force of the weight of their bodies to Plaintiff's head and ankles, causing substantial pain, alarm, fear, and emotional trauma. At no time was Plaintiff resisting arrest or acting in a physically threatening manner, or in any other manner that would require defendants to engage in such extreme and physically injurious behavior.
27. Despite being suffering injuries to his head, ankles, and wrists, the plaintiff was not offered medical care or to be taken to the hospital.
28. Plaintiff was later transported to Brooklyn Central Booking.
29. While plaintiff was incarcerated at the 75th precinct and Brooklyn Central Booking, defendants falsely and maliciously told the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff had committed numerous crimes, including Robbery in the First, Second, and Third Degrees, Grand Larceny in the Fourth Degree, Assault in the Third Degree, Menacing in the Second Degree, and Criminal Possession of Stolen Property in the Fifth Degree. Defendants knew these allegations to be false based on the lack of any material evidence that Plaintiff had committed any crime.
30. Additionally, in contravention of defendant NYPD officers' allegations and the Kings County District Attorney's Office charging decisions, Plaintiff at no time robbed anyone, took or possessed stolen property, harassed, menaced, assaulted or attempted to assault any person, nor was he ever in possession of a knife or other weapon.

31. Based on the defendant's false statements, the Kings County District Attorney's office chose to prosecute Plaintiff under docket CR-022862-19KN.
32. At the time of his arrest, Plaintiff was on parole, but in good standing and at liberty in the community. As a direct result of his illegal arrest, false and malicious allegations, and malicious prosecution, Plaintiff was violated by his Parole Officer, and served a total of 63 days in custody.
33. During his confinement, plaintiff was subjected to depraved, filthy and inhumane conditions.
34. On July 9, 2019, the above-stated malicious prosecution terminated in plaintiff's favor when all charges against him was dismissed and sealed in their entirety.
