Case Summary

On May 22, 2015, § 87(2)(b) contacted the IAB Command Center by telephone and filed a complaint. Prior to § 87(2)(b)'s complaint being forwarded to the CCRB, IAB Group 7 contacted § 87(2)(b) in regards to his complaint; however § 87(2)(b) stated that he wished to withdraw his complaint due to being in fear for his safety from the police. § 87(2)(b)'s complaint was ultimately forwarded to the CCRB on June 1, 2015, via IAB log #§ 87(2)(b). Between June 3, 2015, and June 17, 2015, seven telephone calls were placed to the three telephone numbers listed for § 87(2)(b). Two of the telephone numbers were provided in the initial complaint forwarded to the CCRB, and the third telephone number was acquired from a Lexis Nexis search that was conducted on June 15, 2015. One of the telephone numbers provided in the initial complaint was either disconnected or no longer in service. Five phone calls were made, and four voice messages were left on the other telephone number that was provided in § 87(2)(b)'s initial complaint. On June 17, 2015, an attempt was made to contact § 87(2)(b) at the telephone number which had previously accepting incoming calls and voice messages, was no longer accepting of incoming phone calls. On June 15, 2015, the undersigned attempted to contact § 87(2)(b) at the telephone number provided by LexisNexis, however that telephone number was not set up to receive phone calls. On June 3, 2015, and June 9, 2015, two please call letters were sent to § 87(2)(b). As of the writing of this report, neither please call letter has been returned by the United States Postal Service. On June 15, 2015, the undersigned conducted a search of the Department of Corrections NYC and NYS websites, which indicated that § 87(2)(b) is not currently incarcerated. § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]
