(21) At all times mentioned herein, said police officers were acting under color of law, to wit: the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of Bronx.

(21) Plaintiff GARRY CARTER, is and at all times relevant herein, a citizen of the United States and a resident of Bronx County in the State of New York and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section 1988.

(22) The Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is a municipality duly incorporated under the laws of the State of New York.

(23) On or about February 15, 2017, the Defendants, armed police, while effectuating the seizure of Plaintiff OCTAVIO JORGE, did search, seize, assault and commit a battery and grab the person of the Plaintiff without a court authorized arrest or search warrant. They did physically seize the person of the Plaintiff during the arrest process in an unlawful and excessive manner. The Plaintiff was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned and maliciously prosecuted without the Defendants possessing probable cause to do so.

(24) The above action of the Defendants resulted in the Plaintiff being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution:

- a. Freedom from assault to his person;
- b. Freedom from battery to his person;
- c. Freedom from illegal search and seizure;
- d. Freedom from false arrest;
- e. Freedom from malicious prosecution;
- f. Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process;
- g. Freedom from unlawful imprisonment.

(25) The Defendants subjected the Plaintiff to such deprivations, either in a malicious or reckless disregard of the Plaintiff's rights or with deliberate indifference to those rights under the fourth and fourteenth amendments of the United States Constitution.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(24) Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and re-alleges all of the allegations contained in Paragraphs "19" through "25" with full force and effect as though set forth at length herein. (This Cause of Action applies to the City of New York and the officer sued in their official capacity should be characterized as a "Monell" claim.)

(26) Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, has grossly failed to train and adequately supervise its police officers in the fundamental law of arrest, search and seizure especially when its police officers are not in possession of a court authorized arrest warrant and where an individual, especially as here, has not committed a crime and has not resisted arrest, that its police officers should only use reasonable force to effectuate an arrest and the arrest should be based on probable cause.

(27) THE CITY OF NEW YORK was negligent by failing to implement a policy with its Police Department and instruct police officers who, absent the consent of the Plaintiff(or similarly situated individuals) or without the possession of a court authorized arrest and/or search warrant, said police officers of the City of New York are not to arrest individuals such as the Plaintiff here where probable cause is lacking and the use of force should only be reasonable when an individual resists arrest and should be used where a criminal defendant is not resisting arrest.

(28) THE CITY OF NEW YORK is negligent due to its failure to implement a policy with its Police Department or actively enforce the law, if any of the following are lacking:

1. Probable cause must be present before an individual such as the Plaintiff herein can be arrested.
2. Excessive force cannot be used against an individual who does not physically resist arrest.
3. An individual who sustains physical injury at the hands of the police during the arrest process should receive prompt medical attention.
4. An individual such as the Plaintiff herein cannot be subjected to a strip search with cavity inspection unless the police possess legal cause and/or have a reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause that the plaintiff has secreted contraband in or on his person.

(29) The foregoing acts, omissions and systemic failures are customs and policies of the CITY OF NEW YORK which caused the police officers to falsely arrest, maliciously prosecute, seize illegally and search the Plaintiff commit an assault/battery to his person and denied his prompt medical attention under the belief that they would suffer no disciplinary actions for their failure to take proper or prudent steps in this case.

(30) Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was negligent in that prior to and at the time of the acts complained of herein, due to the prior history of the Police Officers Defendants, knew or should have known of the bad disposition of said Defendants or had knowledge of facts that would put a reasonably prudent employer on inquiry concerning their bad disposition and the fact that these officers were not suitable to be hired and employed by the CITY OF NEW YORK and that due to their lack of training, these officers should have had adequate supervision so that they would not arrest innocent individuals nor use excessive force during the arrest process.

(31) The City of New York's (herein as "City") failure to train its police officers to distinguish between individuals who are lessee's and/or reside at the apartment of sufficient length of time as evidenced by utility bills in their name, letters/mail addressed to them at the residence and/or magazine subscriptions, etc as opposed to individuals who are mere guests and/or visitors who do not have the right to exercise dominion and control over the residence as evidenced by their not having any furniture in the apartment, their name on the lease, their name on a utility bill or mail addressed to them are all factors that the City in the past has ignored. As these same fact patterns have come up over the past twenty-five (25) years with alarming frequency as evidenced by past notice of claims that the firm has filed with the City of New York in the past on multiple occasions sufficient to demonstrate a pattern by the City's police officers of continued violations of individuals similarly situated to the Plaintiff. The pattern demonstrates that either a defacto policy/custom exists to allow this behavior by failing to discipline its officers or this is a custom of its police officers who have no and/or sufficient training and/or no proper supervision and/or disciplinary penalties assessed against them for continued acting in an unconstitutional manner. The Plaintiff's counsel has approximately thirty-two (32) Notice of Claims spanning approximately 10 years to demonstrate a pattern practice and custom of deliberate indifference by the City. In the past, this represents at least a de facto policy by the City of New York in countenancing unconstitutional behavior, by not disciplining and/or not properly supervising/training its individual police officers in the proper procedure of arresting or not arresting individuals who may be merely present at an apartment.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgement against the Defendants, together with the costs and disbursements of this action in the amount of damages greater than the jurisdictional limit of any lower court where otherwise have jurisdiction, together with attorneys' fees and costs for bringing this case and punitive damages.
