MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF NYPD'S DEVIATION FROM THE DISCIPLINARY SYSTEM PENALTY GUIDELINES

Re: Disciplinary Case No. 2024-29830 (PODS Case No. C-031311) against Detective Daniel Gukelberger, Tax No. 948350

Date: February 19, 2026

This disciplinary matter was investigated by the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") which involved allegations that Detective Gukelberger stopped and searched a vehicle without sufficient legal authority; he frisked, searched, and detained the individual without sufficient legal authority; he searched the individual's bag without sufficient legal authority; he was discourteous and used physical force against the individual; he threatened to damage property without sufficient legal authority; and he searched a location without sufficient legal authority and beyond the parameters of consent. CCRB has determined that a downward deviation from the Disciplinary System Penalty Guidelines is warranted.

I concur with the downward deviation for the reasons articulated by CCRB in the attached correspondence.

Therefore, a penalty consisting of the issuance of a Schedule "B" Command Discipline with the forfeiture of eight (8) vacation days, as negotiated by CCRB, will be imposed in this matter.

Re: CCRB v. DT. Daniel Gukelberger (CCRB Case no. 202205856, DADs No. 2024-29830, Tax No. 948350)

Commissioner Tisch:

A negotiated settlement of a Command Discipline B and forfeiture of eight (8) vacation days was agreed upon and signed by all the parties on August 21, 2025. Assistant Deputy Commissioner-Trials, Vanessa Facio-Lince endorsed the negotiated settlement on September 9, 2025. This is a downward deviation from the NYPD's Disciplinary Matrix. CCRB offered this disposition for the following reasons:

1. DT Gukelberger agreed to take responsibility for his misconduct.
2. While serving at INTEL CIS FIO PROGRAM, DT Gukelberger received recognition for Excellent Police Duty eleven times and Meritorious Police Duty twenty-three times.
3. DT Gukelberger has also been a member of service for sixteen years.
4. DT Gukelberger's Commanding Officers rates DT Gukleberger's overall performance well above average.

Respectfully submitted,

Andre D. Applewhite
