VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff Keemont Reynolds, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On December 6, 2020, at approximately 1:00 a.m., Plaintiff Keemont Reynolds, while lawfully in the vicinity of 2926 W 25th Street, County of Brooklyn, County and State of New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, and detention by defendant Police Officers. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Keemont Reynolds is a resident of the state of New York.
3. New York City Police Officer Meir R. Benishai, Shield No. 17590, is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.
4. New York City Police Officer Meir R. Benishai, Shield No. 17590, is being sued in their individual and official capacity.

5. Currently and at all times relevant herein, New York City Police Officer Meir R. Benishai, Shield No. 17590 was assigned to the 60th Police Precinct of the NYPD.
6. New York City Police Officers John Does Numbers 1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
7. Police Officers John Does Numbers 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on November 15, 2021.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On December 6, 2020, at approximately 1:00 a.m., Plaintiff was exiting a vehicle parked outside of 2926 West 25th Street, Brooklyn, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully detained and arrested Plaintiff without legal justification.
16. Plaintiff was in the vehicle with Lamar Reynolds, Michael Morgan, and two female occupants.
17. Plaintiff was seated in the backseat with the female occupants.
18. Approximately ten Defendant officers approached the vehicle from every side with flashlights.
19. As Plaintiff began to exit the vehicle, the Defendant officers rushed up to the car and slammed the car door closed.
20. Defendant officers knocked on the windows and told Plaintiff to roll down the window.
21. Plaintiff attempted to ask Defendant officers what is happening.
22. Defendant officers stuck their hands in the window, opened the door, pulled Plaintiff out of the vehicle, and handcuffed him.
23. Defendant officers punched Plaintiff approximately four to five times.
24. Defendant officers kneed Plaintiff in the ribs and legs six to seven times.
25. Plaintiff was choked three times by three different officers.
26. Plaintiff asked what he was being charged with and Defendant officers told him to “shut up” and tightened the handcuffs.
27. Defendant Officers transported Plaintiff to the 60th Precinct.
28. Four Defendant officers dragged Plaintiff out of the car and threw him on the floor of the precinct, face down.
29. Despite Plaintiff’s pleas, Defendant officers would not allow Plaintiff to make a phone call.
30. Plaintiff remained handcuffed while in the cell until his mother arrived and requested defendant officers to remove the handcuffs.
31. Plaintiff was not informed about why he was arrested until he was assigned a lawyer.
32. Plaintiff remained at the 60th Precinct for approximately 11 hours before being transported to Central Bookings.

33. While Plaintiff was in custody, the Defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
34. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Possession of a Weapon.
35. Based on Defendants false allegations, a Judge set bail on Plaintiff, which he was unable to make, and was then sent to Rikers Island.
36. Plaintiff was attacked by an inmate as soon as he walked into his cell at Rikers Island.
37. Plaintiff was punched in the face by an unknown inmate.
38. Plaintiff was also pepper sprayed by a Corrections Officer while at Rikers.
39. On or about December 11, 2020, Plaintiff was released from custody because the Kings County District Attorney's Office failed to secure an indictment.
40. Soon after he was released from Rikers Island, Plaintiff sought treatment from Coney Island Hospital for his injuries.
41. Plaintiff cuts on his wrist and chin were treated.
42. Plaintiff's chin took seven months to heal and left a scar.
43. Plaintiff's wrist injuries were a result of Defendant officers tightening and twisting the handcuffs.
44. Plaintiff's wrist injuries took six months to heal.
45. Plaintiff's left wrist still hurts. At times Plaintiff feels it pop out of place.
46. Plaintiff had to visit the hospital again in the summer of 2021 when his wrist gave out from lifting a box.
47. On September 22, 2021, Plaintiff's case was ordered to be dismissed and sealed.
48. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
49. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

50. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.
51. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
52. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

53. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
54. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.
55. Defendant Officer's breached that duty of care by deliberately restraining and injuring Plaintiff.
56. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendant officers deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
57. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.
58. Defendants officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
59. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
60. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

61. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
62. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

63. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
64. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
65. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
66. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

67. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
68. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
69. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

70. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
71. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
72. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

73. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
74. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
75. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

76. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
77. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
78. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
79. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
80. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
81. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
82. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

83. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

84. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
85. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

86. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
87. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
88. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
89. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his property was damaged, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.
90. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
91. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
92. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
93. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

94. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

95. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
96. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
97. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
98. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
99. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
100. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
101. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
102. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

103. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
104. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
105. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.
106. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceedings against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
107. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned date.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Excessive Force

108. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
109. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, tasing Plaintiff multiple times, cuasing him to fall the ground face first, fracture his spine, lose consciousness, and suffer other injuries, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
110. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONAssault

111. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
112. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.
113. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
114. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
115. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
116. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONBattery

117. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
118. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner tased Plaintiff multiple times, causing him to fall the ground, fracture his spine, lose consciousness and suffer other injuries, thereby brutally effecting an arrest of Plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.
119. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
120. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
121. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
122. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

123. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
124. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:
- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of her person and property;
 - ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
 - iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
 - iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
 - v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.
125. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, economic and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

126. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

127. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

128. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

129. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Keemont Reynolds demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
