VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff, PAUL MOORE, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violations of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On December 31, 2021, at approximately 8:45 p.m., at or near Thatford Avenue and Livonia Avenue, County of Kings, State of New York, Plaintiff, PAUL MOORE, was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment, by the defendant police officers. Plaintiff suffered physical, mental, and emotional injury as a result of his unlawful arrest. Plaintiff was subjected to the use of excessive force, assault, and battery in his unlawful arrest, as well as suffered mental and emotional injury as a result. Plaintiff was subjected to unlawful imprisonment for over eight (8) months, before he was finally released. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted until all charges were dismissed and the records thereof sealed on December 22, 2022. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully questioned, searched, confined, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and fabricated evidence against Plaintiff in violation of the Fourth, Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law, and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

3. NYPD Police Officer Edward Whalen (Former), Shield No. 302, was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. NYPD Police Officer Edward Whalen (Former), Shield No. 302, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

5. NYPD Police Officer Edward Whalen (Former), Shield No. 302, was at all times relevant herein assigned to the NYPD 73rd Precinct.

6. NYPD Police Officer Stephen Rice, Shield No. 2527, was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

7. NYPD Police Officer Stephen Rice, Shield No. 2527, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

8. NYPD Police Officer Stephen Rice, Shield No. 2527, was at all times relevant herein assigned to the NYPD Narcotics Borough Queens South Unit.

9. NYPD Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

10. NYPD Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

13. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

14. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on May 16, 2023.

15. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

16. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

17. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On December 31, 2021, at approximately 8:45 p.m., Plaintiff was lawfully present at Thatford Avenue and Livonia Avenue, County of Kings, State of New York, when he was subjected to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, and denial of various federal constitutional rights by the defendant New York City police officers.

19. At the referenced place and time, Plaintiff was walking from the local store to his aunt's home at the Riverdale Towers.

20. As Plaintiff walked, in violation of no law, regulation, ordinance, or lawful order, and in the complete absence of probable cause or legal justification, the defendant officers exited their vehicle and began running directly toward Plaintiff.

21. Fearing for his safety, Plaintiff began to run toward the gate of his aunt's building, but fell in the chase, striking his head on the metal gate before losing consciousness.

22. When Plaintiff came-to, he was unaware of what had happened, as he lay on the ground restrained with unreasonably tight metal handcuffs causing pain and discomfort.

23. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did defendant police officers have an objective basis to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

24. At no point did defendant police officers recover any drugs, weapons, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

25. Plaintiff did not resist arrest at any point.

26. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by defendant officers, placed in the back of an NYPD vehicle, and transported to the 73rd Precinct against his will.

27. At the 73rd Precinct, Plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, interrogated on two (2) separate occasions, and lodged in a holding cell.

28. Plaintiff was then transferred to Kings County Central Bookings, where he was again fingerprinted, photographed, searched, and placed in a holding cell.

29. Upon information and belief, during his time in custody, defendant police officers falsely communicated, or had communicated on their behalf, allegations that Plaintiff had committed crimes to the Kings County District Attorney's Office, to wit: criminal possession of a weapon and related charges.

30. Plaintiff was arraigned and charged with crimes he did not commit.

31. As a result of the defendant police officers' false accusations, bail was set at $25,000, and because Plaintiff was unable to immediately post bail, he was sent to the Rikers Island, where he remained for approximately eight (8) months.

32. The false charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed in their entirety on December 22, 2022.

33. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, falsely arresting and imprisoning, humiliating, and denying Plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial.

34. The unlawful search, seizure, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of Plaintiff's right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain lasting physical, psychological, and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

35. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

36. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

37. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers were unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, that the defendants breached that duty of care by, among other things, seizing and tightly handcuffing the Plaintiff, unlawfully search, falsely arrest, falsely imprison, and maliciously prosecute the Plaintiff without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause.

38. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

39. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

40. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

41. The City, as the employer of the defendant officers, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

42. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries and damages, including but not limited to physical injuries, emotional damages, and difficulty securing employment.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

43. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

44. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

45. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

46. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

47. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

48. The City, as the employer of the defendant officers, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

49. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

50. The individually named defendant officers, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

51. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
False Arrest/False Imprisonment

52. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

53. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

54. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

55. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

56. The City, as the employer of the defendant officers, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

57. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Excessive Force

58. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

59. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, tightly handcuffing and forcibly placing him in the back of a police vehicle without legal justification, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

60. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

61. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

62. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff.

63. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

64. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

65. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

66. The City, as the employer of the defendant officers, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

68. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

69. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train, and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

70. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

71. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

73. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

74. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered permanent injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear for his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

75. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

76. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

77. The City, as the employer of the defendant officers, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

78. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

79. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

80. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

81. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

82. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

83. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

84. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

85. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

86. The City, as the employer of the defendant officers, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

87. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

88. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

89. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

90. Defendants commenced and continued criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.

91. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.

92. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONIndividual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

93. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

94. The acts of defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

95. The acts of defendant officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

96. The defendant officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched Plaintiff, before detaining him and further causing his detention for approximately eight (8) months in total.

97. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONIndividual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

98. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

99. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

100. Defendant officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

101. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

102. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

103. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

126. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

127. Defendant officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

128. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual defendant officers, is liable to Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual defendant officers.

129. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

130. The acts of the defendant officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

131. The defendant officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately eight (8) months in total.

132. By reason of the acts and omissions by defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

133. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

134. Defendant officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

135. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual defendant officers, is liable to Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual defendant officers.

136. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

137. Defendant officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

138. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

139. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

140. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

141. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

142. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of her person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

143. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered mental, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

144. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer mental, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

145. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the individual defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

146. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, PAUL MOORE, demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq..
