VERIFIED COMPLAINT

CITY OF NEW YORK, HECTOR FIGUEROA,
MICHAEL RALEIGH, AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10,

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff, ASSAD PHARR, by and through the undersigned attorneys, ALVAREZ LAW, PLLC, for his complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, and HECTOR FIGUEROA, MICHAEL RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the New York State Constitution, for the violations of his civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

2. The following claims arose on July 14, 2019, when Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, arrested and detained Plaintiff in the vicinity of the intersection of Sherman Avenue and Dyckman Street in New York, New York. Plaintiff was subsequently removed to the 33rd NYPD precinct and then to New York County Central Booking. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained over the course of one (1) day. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied due process of law, until all criminal charges were dismissed which constituted a termination in favor of Plaintiff.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

5. Plaintiff's application to file a Late Notice of Claim nunc pro tunc. under Supreme Court, New York County Index No. 159054/2020 was granted by Order dated February 27, 2021 (Hon. Ramseur, J.S.C.)

6. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed and the Office of the New York City Comptroller has not adjusted this claim.

7. Plaintiff e-filed and served the aforesaid Order with Notice of Entry on February 22, 2021.

8. At the time of the instant filing, more than seventy (70) days has elapsed, and Plaintiff has not been noticed for a hearing pursuant to G.M.L. 50-h. Accordingly, Defendants have waived said hearing.

9. The claims herein have been brought within one (1) year and ninety (90) days of the complained-of acts herein availing of the tolling provisions enacted by Governor Andrew Cuomo pursuant to Executive Order 202.6 et seq. in response to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

PARTIES

10. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, Assad Pharr (“Mr. Phar”), is an adult, Black Muslim male, who presently resides in Lindenhurst, New York.

11. At all relevant times herein, Mr. Pharr is a United States Department of Defense Law Enforcement Officer and a member of the United States Department of Veterans Affairs Police Officer. Mr. Pharr is also an active-duty member of the United States Air Force.

12. As a United States Department of Defense Law Enforcement Officer, Plaintiff is a “qualified law enforcement officer” within the meaning of the 2004 Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act.

13. As a member of the United States Department of Veterans Affairs Police Officer, Plaintiff is a “qualified law enforcement officer” within the meaning of the 2004 Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act.

14. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, City of New York (“City”), is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing organized under the laws of the State of New York.

15. At all relevant times herein, the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”) was a wholly owned subsidiary which was further wholly operated, managed, maintained and controlled by Defendant City.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendant City, acting through its New York City Police Department, was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, screening, hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, investigators, sergeants, lieutenants and other supervisory officers, officials or policy makers, as well as the individually named NYPD Defendants herein.

17. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, City, was responsible for enforcing the rules and regulations of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions of the United States and the State of New York.

18. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, HECTOR FIGUEROA ("FIGUEROA"), was a police officer, or police supervisor employed by the NYPD under Shield No. 16620 and as such, was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant, and employee of Defendant City. Defendant FIGUEROA is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

19. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, MICHAEL RALEIGH ("RALEIGH"), was a police officer, or police supervisor employed by the NYPD under Shield No. 21415 and as such, was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant, and employee of Defendant City. Defendant FIGUEROA is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

20. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were police officers, detectives, sergeants, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD or City of New York. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names or tax registry numbers of Defendants, JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of Defendants. The names JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 are fictitious and meant as placeholders for the Police Officers who (1) racially profiled Plaintiff, an adult black-Muslim man driving a white Mercedes Benz, (2) pulled Plaintiff over, (3) falsely arrested Plaintiff, (3) placed handcuffs of Plaintiff, (4) illegally seized Plaintiff's lawfully possessed firearms and ammunition, (5) maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, and (6) aided, abetted, assisted, and acted in concert with the other defendants to do the same.

21. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD. Defendants John or JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

22. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City or State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

23. At all relevant times herein, Mr. Pharr is a United States Department of Defense Law Enforcement Officer and a member of the United States Department of Veterans Affairs Police Officer. Mr. Pharr is also an active-duty member of the United States Air Force.

24. In both of the aforesaid roles, Plaintiff has statutory powers of arrest.

25. In both of the aforesaid roles, Plaintiff is trained, qualified, and duly licensed, permitted and otherwise authorized to carry, possess, keep and bear firearms, including handguns and ammunition on and about his person and among his personal effects.

26. On July 14, 2019, at approximately 12:15 p.m., in the vicinity of the intersection of Sherman Avenue and Dyckman Street in New York, New York, Mr. Pharr was illegally targeted, because of his race, religion, national origin or other improper characteristic for adverse police action, by Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

27. Plaintiff was driving his vehicle in obedience of all traffic laws, ordinances, rules and regulations when Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, pulled Plaintiff's vehicle over approached.

28. Plaintiff immediately complied.

29. Without any reasonable suspicion or lawful right to do so, Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 began asking Plaintiff whether he had any drugs or guns in the car.

30. Plaintiff immediately advised including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 that he did indeed have two, lawfully possessed handguns in the car, and presented them with two (2) valid military law enforcement identifications.

31. Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were also provided with the phone numbers for Plaintiff's commands in order to verify that he was a duly authorized law enforcement officer permitted under federal law to carry possess, keep and bear firearms.

32. Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 removed Plaintiff from his vehicle, and began searching the through Plaintiff's pockets without any legal basis to do so as Plaintiff had exhibited no indicia of criminality and had not been observed violating any laws.

33. Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 violently contorted Plaintiff's arms behind his back in order to handcuff and arrest him.

34. Plaintiff repeatedly requested that Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, loosen the handcuffs, because they were causing him substantial pain and discomfort due to their excessive tightness.

35. Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, ignored all of Plaintiff's pleas to loosen the handcuffs, which resulted in Plaintiff's wrists sustaining contusions, swelling, and loss of feeling.

36. Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, removed Plaintiff to an NYPD precinct against his will, where Defendants fingerprinted, photographed, searched and confined Plaintiff to a cell.

37. Defendants illegally impounded, and seized Plaintiff's property including his vehicle, lawfully possessed firearms, and ammunition.

38. Plaintiff was eventually transported to New York County Central Booking where he was treated like a criminal and detained in various cells until his arraignment.

39. Defendant FIGUEROA signed or caused to be signed a criminal complaint against Plaintiff, in which they knowingly affirmed the truth of the fabricated allegations against Plaintiff, namely that Plaintiff was criminally in possession of weapons and ammunitions for which Plaintiff had already produced both valid military law enforcement identifications and the contact information for his commanding or superior officers.

40. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted until all charges were dismissed and sealed pursuant to CPL 160.50 on June 22, 2020 which constituted a termination favorable to the accused.

41. Plaintiff was forced to hire a criminal defense attorney in order to contest the patently false and fraudulent charges against him.

42. Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, because of their desires to use Plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas, and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

43. Defendants, including Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, applied excessive force and initiated and maintained a malicious prosecution against Plaintiff in retaliation for Plaintiff's exertion of his constitutional right to freely express his opinion and inquiries, namely Plaintiff's displeasure with the manner in which Defendants abjectly disregarded his status as a military law enforcement officer and his request for an explanation as to why he was being arrested.

44. Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully targeted and decided to stop and effect unlawful seizures of Plaintiff due to Plaintiff's status as a Black Muslim male.

45. Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

46. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

47. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

48. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

49. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain system in throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

50. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled “Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn’t Involved,” describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

51. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled “Ex-Cop Details NYPD ‘Collar Quotas’—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, ‘No Cuffs on Soft Targets’ of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs.”

52. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

53. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

54. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

55. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

56. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem.,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came from the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

57. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

58. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.

59. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

60. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

61. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

62. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

63. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

64. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

65. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

66. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including FIGUEROA, RALEIGH, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

67. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Free Speech Retaliation Claim Under
New York State Law

Malicious Prosecution Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

128. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

129. Defendants initiated the prosecution against Plaintiff.

130. Defendants lacked probable cause to believe Plaintiff was guilty or that the prosecution would succeed.

131. Defendants acted with malice, which, in the absence of probable cause, may be inferred.

132. The prosecution was terminated in Plaintiff's favor, when all criminal charges were unconditionally dismissed and sealed.

133. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.

134. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
New York State Law

135. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

136. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated or maintained against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

137. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain or initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

138. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

139. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

140. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

141. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

142. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

143. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated or maintained against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

144. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain and initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

145. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

146. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

147. Defendants' actions deprived Plaintiff of his constitutional rights to free from illegal searches and seizures and to not be deprived of his liberty without the due process of law in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

148. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Infringement of Right to Keep and Bear Arms
Section 4, Article 2 New York Civil Rights Law

149. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

150. Defendants illegally seized Plaintiff's duly and lawfully possessed firearms.

151. Plaintiff was authorized by law to carry, keep, bear, and possess his firearms.

152. In pursuing the prosecution, Defendants acted with intent to intimidate, chill, or otherwise burden Plaintiff's desire to exercise his right to keep and bear arms. Defendants' actions infringed Plaintiff's right to keep and bear arms as guaranteed by Section 4, Article 2 New York Civil Rights Law.

153. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Infringement of Right to Keep and Bear Arms
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

154. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

155. Defendants illegally seized Plaintiff's duly and lawfully possessed firearms.

156. Plaintiff was authorized by law to carry, keep, bear, and possess his firearms.

157. In pursuing the prosecution, Defendants acted with intent to intimidate, chill, or otherwise burden Plaintiff's desire to exercise his right to keep and bear arms. Defendants' actions infringed

Plaintiff's right to keep and bear arms as guaranteed by the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution.

158. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial Under
New York State Law

159. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

160. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

161. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors within the District Attorney's Office.

162. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment restrictions and deprivations upon Plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

163. Accordingly, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his civil rights, pursuant to Article I, Sections 1, 2, 6 & 9, of the New York State Constitution, as well Article II, Sections 10 & 12, of the New York Civil Rights Law.

164. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

165. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

166. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

167. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

168. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors within the District Attorney's Office.

169. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment restrictions and deprivations upon Plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

170. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's right to fair trial, pursuant to the Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to United States Constitution.

171. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Biased Based Profiling under
New York City Law

172. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

173. Defendants impermissibly relied upon Plaintiff's actual or perceived race, color, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, as the determinative factor in initiating law enforcement action against Plaintiff, rather than Plaintiff's behavior or other information or circumstances that would link Plaintiff to suspected unlawful activity.

174. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Administrative Code of the City of New York, Section 14-151

175. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

176. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
New York State law

177. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

178. Plaintiff, as a Hispanic or Latino male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

179. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation

180. Defendants also engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff, in comparison to others similarly situated.

181. Defendants' discriminatory treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or a malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

182. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

183. Defendants, motivated by discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

184. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

185. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to Article I, Section 11, of the New York State Constitution, Article VII, Section 79-N, of the New York Civil Rights Law and Section 296, Paragraph 13, of the New York Human Rights Law.

186. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

187. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983 Against Individual Defendants

188. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

189. Plaintiff, as a Hispanic or Latino male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

190. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color or ethnicity

191. Defendants engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff in comparison to others similarly situated.

192. Defendants' selective treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

193. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

194. Defendants, motivated by a discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral penal statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

195. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

196. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, under the Fourteenth Amendment.

197. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION

Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights and Failure to Prevent the Conspiracy under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985 and 1986 Against Individual Defendants

198. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

199. Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive Plaintiff of his rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, to not be deprived of his liberty or property without due process of law, or of the privileges and immunities under the laws and constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York.

200. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

201. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

202. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of his civil rights or because of some racial, otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

203. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

204. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and/or Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

205. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

206. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

207. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

208. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

209. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

210. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

211. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

212. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

213. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Due Process/Fabrication of Evidence Claim Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

214. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

215. Those Defendants deliberately fabricated evidence against the Plaintiff and that as a result of this evidence being used against him, he was deprived of his constitutional right without due process of law.

216. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

217. The Defendants fabricated evidence in order to support their false arrest, detention and prosecution of the Plaintiff. The Defendants used this fabricated evidence and informed the prosecution that the fabricated evidence was true and accurate despite the fact that knew that the fabricated evidence was not true. As a result, the Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights.

218. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention and Supervision Under
New York State Law

219. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

220. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee Defendants.

221. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

222. Defendant City placed Defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

223. Defendant City knew or reasonably should have known of its employees' propensity for committing civil rights violations.

224. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining and supervising its employee Defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

225. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Victims of Violent Crime Protection Act under
New York City Law

226. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

227. Defendants' acts or series of acts constituted a misdemeanor or felony against Plaintiff, as defined in state or federal law which presented a serious risk of physical injury to Plaintiff, whether or not such acts have actually resulted in criminal charges, prosecution or conviction.

228. Accordingly, Defendants committed a crime of violence against Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the N.Y.C. Admin. Code § 10-403.

229. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

230. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

231. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

232. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as Plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

233. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

234. Defendant City, its policymakers and supervisors failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates, to such an extent that is tantamount to the City's deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

235. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of Plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by Defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

236. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

237. Defendant City's conduct caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, via the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth & Fourteenth Amendments thereto.

238. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- a) On the First Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
