On March 1, 2019, Plaintiff served a Notice of Claim in writing sworn to on his behalf upon Defendant CITY, by delivering a copy thereof to the officer designated to receive such process personally, which Notice of Claim advised the Defendant of the nature, place, time and manner in which the claim arose, and the items of damage and injuries sustained so far as was then determinable.

14. More than thirty days have elapsed since service of said notice, and Defendant CITY has failed to pay or adjust the claim.

15. This action has been commenced within one year and ninety days after the cause of actions of Plaintiff accrued.

16. Plaintiff has duly complied with all conditions precedent to the commencement of this action.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: FALSE ARREST

On December 3, 2018 at approximately 1:30 a.m., while a passenger in a car driven by Chasson Rivera and owned by Mr. Rivera's mother, in the vicinity of First Avenue and 106th Street, NEW YORK County, New York, Defendant ORTIZ ordered the car Plaintiff was in to stop and then wrongfully touched, grabbed, handcuffed and seized

At no time did the Defendants have legal cause to grab, handcuff, seize or touch Plaintiff. MR. VAZQUEZ was aware of his arrest and confinement as described in paragraphs 1-17, and he did not consent to that arrest or confinement, nor was it privileged by law.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION: NEGLIGENCE

37. Defendants CITY and NYPD have grossly failed to train and properly supervise its police officers, particularly the detectives and police officers involved herein, regarding the law of arrest, search and seizure.

38. Defendants CITY and NYPD were negligent by failing to implement a policy within its police department instructing police officers not to arrest individuals such as the Plaintiff unless there is a court authorized warrant or sufficient cause.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION ASSAULT AND BATTERY

47. Paragraphs 1-46 are incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

48. On December 3, 2018, at approximately 1:30 a.m., while a passenger in a car driven by Chasson Rivera and owned by Mr. Rivera's mother, in the vicinity of First Avenue and 106th Street, NEW YORK County, Defendant ORTIZ ordered the car to stop and then, along with other New York City police officers, wrongfully touched, grabbed, pushed, handcuffed and seized MR. VAZQUEZ, in an excessive manner about his person, causing MR. VAZQUEZ physical pain and mental suffering.

49. That on or about December 3, 2018, and while in the custody of the defendants in the County of NEW YORK, City of New York, the Plaintiff MR.

VAZQUEZ was intentionally touched, grabbed, pushed, assaulted, violated, humiliated and handcuffed by ORTIZ, along with other New York City police officers who were acting within the scope of their employment and authority in such a manner as to knowingly cause injury to plaintiff.

50. That on or about December 3, 2018, along with other New York City police officers their agents, servants and employees, acting as agents and on behalf of the CITY and NYPD within the scope of their employment, did intentionally, willfully and maliciously assault and batter MR. The excessive force used, including but not limited to the pushing, shoving and grabbing of MR. VAZQUEZ, was an assault and battery beyond that which was necessary to make the arrest, specifically, ORTIZ tightened the handcuffs around Plaintiff's wrists unnecessarily tight and refused to loosen them even after being told by Plaintiff that they were causing him pain and suffering.

52. That by reason of the aforesaid intentional assault and battery committed by the defendants, their agents, servants and employees, in particular ORTIZ, along with other New York City police officers acting within the scope of their employment and authority and without any probable or reasonable cause, MR. VAZQUEZ suffered bodily injury in and about his body and limbs and suffered conscious pain and suffering, and that he was otherwise damaged.
