Index No.

CITY OF NEW YORK, BENJAMIN HINDERMAN, AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10,Defendants.
-----X

Plaintiff, JOSEPH TRICOCHE, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, for his complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, BENJAMIN HINDERMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which plaintiff seeks relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the New York State Constitution, for the violations of his civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

2. The following claims arise from a September 25, 2020 incident, in which defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, battered and assaulted, searched, detained, and arrested Plaintiff in the vicinity of the intersection of 169th Street and College Avenue, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York. Plaintiff was subsequently removed to St. Barnabas Hospital located at 4422 3rd Avenue, County of Bronx, City and State of New York where he was treated for injuries sustained as a result of this complained-of-incident and then later removed against his will to Central Booking before being released from physical custody after his criminal arraignment. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained over the course of two (2) days. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied due process of law, until all adverse charges were dismissed.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiff has served a notice of claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Section fifty-e of the New York General Municipal Law (GML § 50-e).

5. At least thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of said notice, and adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused.

6. Plaintiff has complied with the municipal defendant's demand for an examination, pursuant to GML § 50-h, or said demand was untimely made.

7. This action and associated claims have been timely commenced within one-year-and-ninety-days after the occurrences upon which they are based and upon availing Executive Order 202.8 et seq. issued by former Governor Andrew Cuomo in response ongoing COVID-19 pandemic that tolled the statute of limitations for the period from March 20, 2020 to November 4, 2020.

8. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff, Mr. Joseph Trioche (“Mr. Tricoche”), is an adult African American or Black male, who presently resides in Bronx, New York.

10. Defendant, City of New York (“City”), is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.

11. At all times relevant hereto, defendant City, acting through the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, screening, hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, investigators, sergeants, lieutenants and other supervisory officers or officials, as well as the individually named NYPD defendants herein.

12. At all times here relevant herein, Defendant City, was responsible for enforcing the rules or regulations of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions of the United States and the State of New York.

13. At all relevant times herein, Defendant BENJAMIN HINDERMAN (“HINDERMAN”) was a police officer, detective, sergeant, supervisor, or policymaker employed by the NYPD, under Tax Registry No. 966625 and Shield No. 3689. Defendant HINDERMAN is currently assigned to the Warrant Section of the NYPD. Defendant HINDERMAN is being sued in his official and individual capacities.

14. At all relevant times, defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were police officers, detectives, sergeants, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD or City of New York. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names or tax registry numbers of defendants, JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of defendants.

15. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

16. At all relevant times herein, defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City or State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

17. On September 25, 2020 at approximately 5:30 p.m., in the vicinity of the intersection of 169th Street and College Avenue, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, Mr. Tricoche was illegally stopped, seized and searched, battered and assaulted, detained, and arrested, by Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

18. On said date and time, Plaintiff was lawfully operating and riding his Kawasaki dirt bike motor vehicle (“dirt bike”) on the College Avenue in full obedience of traffic regulations and posted speed limits in the vicinity of this complained-of-incident.

19. On said date and time of this complained-of-incident, Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, approached Plaintiff from behind in their Police Vehicle SUV (“Police SUV”) at the intersection of 168th Street and College Ave within the vicinity of this complained-of-incident, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any justification whatsoever as to unlawful conduct on the part of Plaintiff.

20. Plaintiff then observed Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, when he felt heat radiating from the front grille of the Police SUV and turned his head towards said defendants as they gradually continued to operate and move the Police SUV closer toward his person and his aforesaid dirt bike, causing Plaintiff to experience mild shock, a brief apprehension of imminent contact, and mild emotional distress.

21. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, at the time did not employ their sirens, use the speakerphone, or in any way, attempt to communicate to Plaintiff that they intended and were attempting to pull him over, and because of this, Plaintiff continued to lawfully operate and drive his dirt bike on College Avenue.

22. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then began to pursue Plaintiff on College Avenue in their Police SUV, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid arrest or search warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever as to the commission of unlawful conduct on the part of Plaintiff.

23. Plaintiff then approached 169th Street and College Avenue in the vicinity of this complained-of-incident when suddenly and without warning, Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, called to and demanded that Plaintiff pull over immediately via the PA system of the aforesaid Police SUV, causing Plaintiff to experience undue stress, anxiety, shock, emotional distress.

24. Plaintiff complied with the orders of Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, and attempted to park his vehicle on the street in the vicinity of this complained-of-incident, but, because of the sudden and immediate demand to pull over by defendants, defendants' pursuit and close proximity to his person, and a lack of parking space due to a multitude of parked and double-parked cars alongside said street, Plaintiff was forced to improvise and then attempted to park in a nearby driveway.

25. As a result of the conduct by Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, Plaintiff was forced to come into contact with the back taillight of a double-parked car, and, as a result of said contact, Plaintiff's person was lifted and propelled into the air as his head and upper body collided into a closed metal gate with his person falling face-first into the pavement into the pavement of the aforesaid driveway and sidewalk, causing Plaintiff to experience substantial pain, the fracture of his left ankle, the fracture of his skull, a large laceration spanning down the right side of his forehead and face, injury to his right and left pinky fingers, injury to his back, scrapes and bruising about his right arm and upper right shoulder, a momentary loss of consciousness, significant damage to his dirt bike motor vehicle, shock, and extreme emotional distress.

26. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then approached and seized Plaintiff, accused him of a criminal offense, conducted a search of his person in plain view of bystanders, and proceeded to violently contort Plaintiff's arms behind his back so that they could apply metal handcuffs, disregarding Plaintiff's complaints that the cuffs were placed on too tightly causing him significant discomfort and pain.

27. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, ignored all of plaintiff's pleas to loosen the handcuffs, which resulted in plaintiff's wrists and hands sustaining loss of feeling, redness, and swelling in addition to injuries previously suffered just moments before.

28. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then placed Plaintiff in an ambulance and transported him to St. Barnabas Hospital located at 4422 3rd Avenue,

County of Bronx, City and State of New York, where he was illegally detained against his will over the course of approximately five (5) hours and treated for his injuries with morphine, approximately fifteen (15) stitches to his face and forehead, x-rays, a brace for his neck, bandaging for his right arm, upper shoulder, and left pinky finger.

29. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then placed Plaintiff in a police vehicle and transported him against his will to Central Booking where he was photographed, fingerprinted, searched or strip-searched, and placed in various dank and dirty cells until his release from physical custody on or about September 26, 2020 at approximately 5:00 p.m. after his criminal arraignment.

30. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, signed the criminal court complaint against Plaintiff, in which they knowingly affirmed the truth of the fabricated allegations against plaintiff, namely reckless endangerment and associated crimes.

31. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, lacked any probable cause or reasonable suspicion to arrest Plaintiff, because Defendants never observed Plaintiff commit any crime or violation of the law.

32. Due to the lack of probable cause for the seizure of Plaintiff's person, the aforementioned conduct constituted the completed torts of Assault and Battery by Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10

33. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, knowingly, maliciously, and intentionally engaged in the fabrication of false and fictitious evidence, observations, events and occurrences, which Defendants falsely attributed to Plaintiff before forwarding to prosecutors.

34. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in fraud, the suppression of evidence, perjury, and a gross deviation from acceptable police conduct and other conduct undertaken in bad faith.

35. Plaintiff asserts that Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, falsely arrested, wrongfully detained, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff with the full knowledge that he had committed no crimes or violations of the law.

36. Plaintiff, therefore, asserts that due to the clear absence of any viable probable cause to warrant his criminal prosecution, at any point, he was denied his rights to a fair trial and due process and was maliciously prosecuted from the moment of his arraignment, until all adverse charges under Bronx County Criminal Court Docket No. CR-013970-20BX were irrefutably terminated in favor of Plaintiff when the presiding judge dismissed the criminal case against Plaintiff on or about January 25, 2021, likely due to a lack of probable cause for Plaintiff's arrest and detainment.

37. As a result, Plaintiff was caused to be unlawfully, involuntarily, and continuously detained by Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, over the course of two (2) days, until his release from physical custody on or about September 26, 2020.

38. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, were involved in the decision to stop, seize, and arrest Plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause, or failed to intervene when they observed others doing so in the absence of any reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

39. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiff to excessive force, or failed to intervene when they observed others subjecting Plaintiff to excessive force.

40. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiff, because of their desires to use plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas, and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

41. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, applied excessive force and initiated a malicious prosecution against plaintiff in retaliation for plaintiff's exertion of his constitutional right to freely express his opinion and inquiries, namely plaintiff's displeasure with the manner in which defendants addressed him and his polite request for an explanation of their conduct.

42. As a result, Plaintiff's mental health issues were aggravated and developed a severe fear of police officers, which prevented him from venturing from his house for a period of time and has effectively permanently chilled his desire and ability to communicate with police officers.

43. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 unlawfully targeted and decided to stop and effect unlawful seizures of plaintiff due to solely to his status as an African American or Black Male.

44. Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

45. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 violated plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

46. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

47. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

48. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemin throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

49. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

50. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled "Ex-Cop Details NYPD 'Collar Quotas'—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, 'No Cuffs on Soft Targets' of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs."

51. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

52. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD’s persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers’ intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

53. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled “Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars.” Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD’s failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

54. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “Detective’s Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge,” by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco’s lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

55. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem.,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came from the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

56. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

57. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

58. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

59. Defendants' actions, pursuant to plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

60. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

61. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

62. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

63. Upon information and belief, the individually named defendants have combined to be named as defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

64. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct

65. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including HINDERMAN and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

66. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Free Speech Retaliation Claim Under

111. Defendants engaged in and subjected Plaintiff to immediate harmful or offensive touching and battered him without his consent or justification.

112. Due to the intentional, willful and unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff suffered damages.

113. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

114. As a direct and proximate result of this breach, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Excessive Force Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

115. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

116. The Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments, because they used unreasonable force without Plaintiff's consent.

117. Defendants engaged in and subjected Plaintiff to immediate harmful or offensive touching and battered him without his consent.

118. As a direct and proximate result of this breach, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution Under
New York State Law

119. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

120. Defendants initiated the prosecution against Plaintiff.

121. Defendants lacked probable cause to believe Plaintiff was guilty or that the prosecution could succeed.

122. Defendants acted with malice, which, in the absence of probable cause, may be inferred.

123. The prosecution was terminated in Plaintiff's favor, when all criminal charges were unconditionally dismissed and sealed.

124. Due to the intentional, willful and unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff suffered significant damages.

125. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

126. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

127. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

128. Defendants initiated the prosecution against Plaintiff.

129. Defendants lacked probable cause to believe Plaintiff was guilty or that the prosecution would succeed.

130. Defendants acted with malice, which, in the absence of probable cause, may be inferred.

131. The prosecution was terminated in Plaintiff's favor, when all criminal charges were unconditionally dismissed and sealed.

132. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.

133. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
New York State Law

134. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

135. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated or maintained against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

136. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain or initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

137. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

138. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

139. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

140. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

141. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

142. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated or maintained against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

143. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain and initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

144. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

145. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

146. Defendants' actions deprived Plaintiff of his constitutional rights to free from illegal searches and seizures and to not be deprived of his liberty without the due process of law in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

147. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial Under
New York State Law

148. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

149. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

150. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors within the District Attorney's Office.

151. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment restrictions and deprivations upon plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

152. Accordingly, defendants deprived plaintiff of his civil rights, pursuant to Article I, Sections 1, 2, 6 & 9, of the New York State Constitution, as well Article II, Sections 10 & 12, of the New York Civil Rights Law.

153. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

154. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

155. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

156. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

157. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors within the District Attorney's Office.

158. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment restrictions and deprivations upon plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

159. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's right to fair trial, pursuant to the Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to United States Constitution.

160. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Biased Based Profiling under
New York City Law

161. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

162. Defendants impermissibly relied upon Plaintiff's actual or perceived race, color, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, as the determinative factor in initiating law enforcement action against Plaintiff, rather than Plaintiff's behavior or other information or circumstances that would link Plaintiff to suspected unlawful activity.

163. Accordingly, defendants violated plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Administrative Code of the City of New York, Section 14-151

164. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

165. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
New York State law

166. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

167. Plaintiff, as an African American or Black male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

168. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation.

169. Defendants also engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff, in comparison to others similarly situated.

170. Defendants' discriminatory treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or a malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

171. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

172. Defendants, motivated by discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

173. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

174. Accordingly, defendants violated plaintiff's rights, pursuant to Article I, Section 11, of the New York State Constitution, Article VII, Section 79-N, of the New York Civil Rights Law and Section 296, Paragraph 13, of the New York Human Rights Law.

175. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

176. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983 Against Individual Defendants

177. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

178. Plaintiff, as an African American or Black male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

179. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color or ethnicity

180. Defendants engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff in comparison to others similarly situated.

181. Defendants' selective treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

182. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

183. Defendants, motivated by a discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral penal statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

184. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

185. Accordingly, defendants violated plaintiff's rights, under the Fourteenth Amendment.

186. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights and Failure to Prevent the Conspiracy under
42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985 and 1986 Against Individual Defendants

187. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

188. Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive Plaintiff of his rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, to not be deprived of his liberty or property without due process of law, or of the privileges and immunities under the laws and constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York.

189. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

190. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

191. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of his civil rights or because of some racial, otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

192. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

193. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and/or Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

194. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

195. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

196. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

197. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

198. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

199. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

200. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

201. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

202. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention and Supervision Under
New York State Law

203. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

204. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee defendants.

205. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

206. Defendant City placed defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

207. Defendant City knew or should have known of its employees' propensity for committing civil rights violations.

208. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining and supervising its employee defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

209. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

210. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

211. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

212. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

213. Defendant City, its policymakers and supervisors failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates, to such an extent that is tantamount to the City's deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with defendant City's employees.

214. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with defendant City's employees.

215. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

216. Defendant City's conduct caused plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, via the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth & Fourteenth Amendments thereto.

217. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- a) On the First Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- b) On the Second Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
