Initial Complaint Narrative

§ 87(2)(b) emailed the CCRB on July 28, 2015 the following complaint verbatim: On 7/27/15 my upstairs neighbor § 87(2)(b) asked me to come with him to the management office as a witness in case they refused to counter sign his lease renewal, there has been a problem with property management repeatedly being non-compliant with lease renewal procedure as required with DHRC, Section 8, & a Regulatory agreement Between THE CITY OF NEW YORK and Courtlandt Community Housing Development Fund Corporation and Courtlandt Community Associates, L.P that evidences in nonprofit housing fraud. When § 87(2)(b) assistant realized she was being recorded she called her and said "I'm being recorded" § 87(2)(b) told the assistant to call the police to make a false trespassing report the assistant also told a lie over the phone that there was a court order barring me from the management office. I then left the office and went back to my apartment. About twenty minutes later, my upstairs neighbor § 87(2)(b) came over and informed me the assistant refused to provide him with a copy counter signed lease renewal and the attached mandatory forms. He said when he started to break down lease renewal procedure to her the assistant started yelling and talking over him (another indication of nonprofit fraud) about 15 min later, two cops from the 42nd pct showed up at my door as can be seen in the video these two incompetent cunts had the audacity to entertain the managements nonsense (the rent stabilization code states tenants have a right to organize) as it can be seen when I said "conversation over" and went to close the door the invalids blocked it from being shut. After asserting to leave, you don't have a warrant, you're criminal trespassing, it then proceeded to go south from there. The loud crash you hear in the video is me being shoved into the kitchen cart I had to shove officer davis off of me (inherent right to self defense having a badge dose not grant extra rights) him and his partner then shoved me on the bed, after they saw the size of my neighbor at 6ft 4inchs 400 pounds and realized there was a third person in the room they deiced to keep their hands to themselves. The voice you hear is officer Davis trying to scream over me yelling at them to leave, you don't have a warrant, your criminal trespassing. They then left, a member of paid unit detail was on down stairs at the time, latter when i went down stairs to get his badge # and fjc employee id he refused to show both I have also included a picture of this individual, his license plate and registration, this individual was also present on 5/25/15 fjc security should have a employee statement located at § 87(2)(b) as I stated when I first contacted you property management and the 42nd pct have a history of interfering with tenants quite enjoyment in addition to having their guest arrested on bogus criminal trespassing charges since the building opened in March 15, 2013 it seems property management has now hired members of paid unit detail to help them enforce these violations of the rent stabilization code. I have also filled a complaint with the OCR for property's managements violation of the hipaa criminal statute on 5/25/15. Employees of the landlord are incapable of providing any appropriate credentials as required by OASAS and DOHMH that can attest to the landlords claims that premises is a SRO supportive housing program, the leases for the building are subject to the stabilization code, since moving into the building I have witnessed employees of the landlord engage in antagonistic,manipulative Anti-Social behavior with tenants, these false police reports are also being encouraged by the landlords authorized attorney § 87(2)(b) c.
