Plaintiff Eddie Johnson, by his attorney, ILISSA BROWNSTEIN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiffs' rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of her federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiff, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiff and malicious prosecution of plaintiff. Defendants additionally used excessive force in violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights protected by the Eighth Amendment and the state tort laws.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Eddie Johnson is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Brooklyn, New York.
3. Detective David Solmonsohn (Shield # 30125) is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. Detective David Solmonsohn (Shield # 30125) is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
5. Police Officer John Doe #1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

6. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
7. New York City Police Officers John Does #2-4 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
8. New York City Police Officers John Does #2-4 are being sued in their individual capacities and official capacities.
9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
11. Plaintiff in furtherance of his State causes of action filed a timely (with regard to some claims) Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Municipal Law Section 50.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
13. The City of New York held a 50(H) hearing examination of the Plaintiff on August 7, 2013.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. Eddie Johnson is 32 years old.
15. On October 3, 2012 at 11:20 am at a Pay-O-Matic on Pennsylvania Avenue & Cozine Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, Mr. Johnson was falsely arrested.
16. NYPD arrived at the location and picked up three people and searched them before getting to Mr. Johnson.

52. Defendants their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously strip searched Plaintiff and in doing so violated plaintiff's right to privacy.
53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the NYPD which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
54. The City, as the employer of Defendant is responsible for the wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

55. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 54 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
56. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

57. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 56 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
58. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
59. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
60. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was physically assaulted and subjected to an illegal and sexually abusive search.
61. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and NYPD, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
62. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

63. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 62 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
64. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
65. Defendants breached that duty of care by assaulting plaintiff and subjecting her to an illegal and sexually abusive search.
66. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
67. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
68. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

69. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 68 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
70. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
71. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
72. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF PLAINTIFF'S FIFTH AMENDMENT RIGHTS

73. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 72 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
74. Defendants who were acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, compelled plaintiff to answer questions about drugs and violence in the neighborhood and caused plaintiff to be imprisoned and criminally prosecuted without probable cause in violation of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

75. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 74 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
76. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
77. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police Officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions.
78. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiffs' constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
79. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiffs as alleged herein.
80. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiffs as alleged herein.
81. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested and prosecuted.
82. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiffs' constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, EDDIE JOHNSON, plaintiff, demands a judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law.
