15. At the time of the incident, plaintiff was employed as an UberEATS driver, delivering food throughout New York City.
16. At approximately 7:00 p.m., on the day of incident, plaintiff finished an UberEATS shift and then drove to his mother's home located at 598 Pine Street, Brooklyn, New York.
17. Plaintiff was driving a Ford Fusion that he had legally rented from a car rental company. Plaintiff's rental vehicle was properly registered, inspected, and insured. Plaintiff's rental vehicle had no tints or illegal equipment.
18. Plaintiff legally parked the vehicle in a spot on the street, directly in front of his mother's home at 598 Pine Street.
19. After plaintiff parked, he exited the vehicle and entered his mother's home. Plaintiff's mother and brother were both present at 598 Pine Street. Plaintiff and his family talked and listened to music.
20. Plaintiff remained in his mother's home for approximately thirty (30) minutes to an hour, after which time plaintiff and his brother exited their mother's home and got into plaintiff's rental vehicle.
21. Shortly after plaintiff and his brother entered the vehicle, two marked NYPD police vehicles pulled along side plaintiff's vehicle.
22. The two marked NYPD vehicles had responded to a disturbance across the street from plaintiff's vehicle.
23. Plaintiff and his brother listened to music and watched the defendant-officers speak to an unknown individual across the street.
24. A short time later, the defendant-officers approached plaintiff's vehicle. A defendant-officer asked plaintiff to roll his window down, plaintiff complied with the defendant-officers request.
25. Without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, the defendant-officer then commanded plaintiff to exit the vehicle and consent to a search of the vehicle.
26. Plaintiff complied with the defendant-officer's unlawful command and exited the vehicle.
27. Defendant-officers then searched the vehicle without probable cause or reasonable suspicion.

28. Shortly thereafter, without probable cause, the defendant-officers grabbed plaintiff, pinned his arms behind his back, and cuffed his wrists with metal handcuffs.
29. Defendant-officers tightened the handcuffs so much that they caused severe pain to plaintiff's wrists.
30. Despite plaintiff's pleas for information, the defendant-officers would not tell him why they had arrested him.
31. After defendant officer's arrested plaintiff without probable cause, they took him in custody the 75th NYPD precinct.
32. While plaintiff was unlawfully detained at the 75th precinct, defendant-officers searched, fingerprinted, photographed, and interrogated him.
33. The defendant-officers then put plaintiff into a holding cell.
34. While plaintiff was held at the 75th precinct, defendant-officers knowingly transmitted false and/or misleading and/or inaccurate information to the Kings County District Attorney's Office accusing plaintiff of having committed a crime.
35. After hours at the 7th precinct, the defendant-officers took plaintiff to Brooklyn Central Booking (hereinafter "Central Booking") for arraignment.
36. While at Central Booking, plaintiff was held in a holding cell to await arraignment.
37. After hours at Central Booking, plaintiff was brought before a judge for arraignment and charged via criminal complaint with, inter alia, Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Second Degree (NY P.L. 265.03 (3)). 38. On December 17, 2021, after numerous court appearances, all criminal charges against plaintiff were dismissed and the records thereof were sealed.
39. As a direct result of defendant-officer's unlawful actions, plaintiff was suspended from his job with UberEATS.
40. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the defendant-officers have an objective reason to accuse plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
