POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTURE

Re: CCRB Case No. 201807314 regarding Police Officer Michal Jalbrzykowski, Tax No. [REDACTED] (DADS No. 2019-20855) and Police Officer Tejinder Singh, Tax No. [REDACTED] (DADS No. 2019-20856)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner agrees with CCRB's finding that P.O. Jalbrzykowski used discourtesy with two individuals and that P.O. Singh used offensive language with one individual and spoke discourteously to a second individual. The officers responded to a bar fight and arrested two individuals. During the time of the arrest P.O. Jalbrzykowski used discourteous language in the presence of the two individuals. However, the discourtesy was not directed at either individual but was used in describing the facts of the arrest situation.

P.O. Singh made a gender based offensive remark to one of the individuals while placing the individual into a police vehicle. However, this remark was made after the individual failed to comply with the officer's repeated instructions to enter the police vehicle. While at the police stationhouse during arrest processing, P.O. Singh made a discourteous remark however, it was not directed at the individual who was in his company.

The Police Commissioner directs that each officer is to receive Instructions for their misconduct. Neither officer has any prior substantiated allegations and none of the discourteous language was directed at any specific individual. Additionally, P.O. Singh made his remark after the complainant repeatedly failed to comply with a lawful order to enter the police vehicle.
