Plaintiff, LEON FIELDS, by his attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of Defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, and of rights secured by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. On November 19, 2019, at approximately 8:50 p.m., Plaintiff LEON FIELDS was subjected to an unlawful stop, frisk, search, detention, and false imprisonment, while lawfully present in the vicinity of Bushwick Avenue and Johnson Avenue in Brooklyn, New York. Plaintiff spent approximately 20 hours unlawfully in police custody. Thereafter, the Defendant police officers denied Plaintiff the right to a fair trial by forwarding false information to the Kings County District Attorney's Office. All criminal charges were dismissed and sealed against Plaintiff on or about February 24, 2020. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights when the individual Defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, unlawfully arrested, and denied the Plaintiff the right to a fair trial in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff LEON FIELDS is a resident of the State of New York.

3. POLICE OFFICER MICHAL JALBRZYKOWSKI, Shield No. 21736, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. On the date of the subject incident POLICE OFFICER MICHAL JALBRZYKOWSKI, Shield No. 21736, was assigned to the 90th Precinct.

5. POLICE OFFICER JOHN DOE 1-10, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

6. At all times relevant herein, the individual Defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, operated, maintained, managed, supervised and controlled the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") as part of and in conjunction with its municipal function.

8. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The Defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

9. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. On November 19, 2019, at approximately 8:50 p.m., Plaintiff was travelling as a passenger in a vehicle and lawfully present in the vicinity of Bushwick Avenue and Johnson Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, when the Defendant police officers unlawfully stopped the vehicle without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

2. The Defendant police officers that stopped the vehicle were in plain clothes and travelling in an unmarked police vehicle.

3. Plaintiff was a passenger in the vehicle and was not driving.

4. At no time prior to being stopped by the officers did Plaintiff commit a crime or VTL or behave in a manner that gave the police officers a reasonable and objective basis to believe he had committed or was committing a crime.

5. The Defendant police officers asked the driver for his license and registration, which he provided.

6. The license and registration of the driver were both valid.

7. The Defendant Police Officers then ordered all of the passengers to exit the vehicle and placed them in handcuffs.

8. The Defendant police officers refused to tell the Plaintiff why he was being detained and arrested.

9. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

10. The Defendant Officers searched Plaintiff and found no contraband or anything illegal on him.

11. At no point in time did Plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

12. The Defendant police officers then unlawfully placed Plaintiff under arrest and transported him to the NYPD 90th Precinct.

13. At the NYPD 90th precinct, Plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, and unlawfully detained in a holding cell.

14. In the holding cell at the NYPD 90th Precinct, Plaintiff had an allergic reaction because of the dirty jail cells, which required EMS to respond to the Precinct.

15. Plaintiff was then transported from the NYPD 90th Precinct to Kings County Central Booking.

16. The Defendant Officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorneys Office that Plaintiff had committed a crime despite knowing that they lacked a legal and factual basis to allege that Plaintiff committed any crime.

17. On November 20, 2019, after approximately 20 hours unlawfully in police custody, Plaintiff was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court and charged with crimes that the defendant officers had no basis to allege that he committed.

18. At arraignment, Plaintiff was released on his own recognizance.

19. Plaintiff was suspended from work at Uber Eats because of his arrest, and was not allowed to work again while the criminal case was still pending.

20. After four Criminal Court appearances, all criminal charges were dismissed and sealed against Plaintiff on or about February 24, 2020.

21. Some of the police officer Defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the Plaintiff being subjected to an unjustifiable stop, question, frisk, search, seizure, false arrest, and denial of fair trial.

22. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, and unlawful seizure by the Defendant police officer caused Plaintiff to sustain psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

23. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 18 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

24. The individually named police officer Defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, subjected to denial of his due process rights in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure and denial of due process under the Fourth and Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

38. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

39. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search of Plaintiff employed by Defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

40. Defendants lacked probable cause to search Plaintiff.

41. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

42. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

43. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

44. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

45. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

46. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

47. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

48. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

49. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

50. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

51. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

52. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondet superior.

53. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

54. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 53 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

55. By the actions described herein, Defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the Defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

56. The acts and conduct of the Defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

57. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

58. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

59. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

60. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

61. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 60 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

62. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise Defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

63. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

64. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 63 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

65. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

66. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

67. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

68. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

69. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

70. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

71. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

72. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 71 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

73. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.

74. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

75. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

76. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.
