VERIFIED COMPLAINT

CITY OF NEW YORK, MARK RUPPERT,
ANDERSON ORTIZ, FREDY CRUZ, DANNY GUZMAN,
AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10,

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff, BRYANT DULA, by and through the undersigned attorneys, Sim & DePaola, LLP, for his complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, MARK RUPPERT, ANDERSON ORTIZ, FREDY CRUZ, DANNY GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action in which Plaintiff seeks relief through 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988 for the violation of his civil rights protected by the Fourth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments, in addition to violations of the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
2. These claims arise from a July 8, 2017 incident in which Defendants, including MARK RUPPERT, ANDERSON ORTIZ, FREDY CRUZ, DANNY GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, arrested and detained Mr. Dula without a valid warrant, reasonable suspicion or probable cause to do so. Mr. Dula was subsequently charged with three (3) count of Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the second degree and two (2) counts of Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the third degree. As a result, Mr. Dula was wrongfully incarcerated for approximately two (2) years until he was released following evidence suppressions hearings. He continues to be maliciously prosecuted on these patently false charges.

3. Mr. Dula languished in incarceration at the Rikers Island Correctional Facility located in East Elmhurst New York, but within the jurisdictional limits of Supreme Court Bronx County. for over two (2) years.

4. The above referenced acts caused Mr. Dula to be deprived of his liberty, denied the due process of the laws and to sustain various emotional and physical injuries.

5. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, as well as an award of costs and attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff, Bryant Dula ("Mr. Dula"), is an African American male, who resides in Bergen County, New Jersey.

7. At all relevant times herein, The Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York.

8. At all relevant times herein, the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") was a wholly owned subsidiary that is further whole operated, managed, maintained and controlled by Defendant City.

9. At all relevant times herein, Defendant City, acting through its NYPD, was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline and retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, lieutenants, sergeants, and supervisory officers as well as the individually named Defendants herein.

10. At all relevant times herein, Defendant City was responsible for enforcing the rules of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws of the United States and the State of New York.

11. At all relevant times herein, the New York City Department of Corrections (“NYCDOC”) was a wholly owned subsidiary that is further whole operated, managed, maintained and controlled by Defendant City.

12. At all relevant times herein, Defendant City, acting through its NYCDOC, was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYCDOC matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline and retention and conduct of all NYCDOC personnel, including correction officers, supervisory officers, policy makers as well as the individually named Defendants herein.

13. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, MARK RUPPERT (“RUPPERT”) was a police officer, supervisor, or policy maker employed by the NYPD and, as such, was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of Defendant City under Shield No. 22425 and Tax Reg. No. 954305, and further assigned to 33rd Precinct of the NYPD. Defendant RUPPERT is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

14. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, ANDERSON ORTIZ (“ORTIZ”) was a police officer, supervisor, or policy maker employed by the NYPD and, as such, was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of Defendant City under Tax Reg. No. 949424, and further assigned to 33rd Precinct of the NYPD. Defendant ORTIZ is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

15. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, FREDY CRUZ (“CRUZ”) was a police officer, supervisor, or policy maker employed by the NYPD and, as such, was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of Defendant City under Shield No. 887 and Tax Reg. No. 915528, and further assigned to 33rd Precinct of the NYPD. Defendant CRUZ is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, DANNY GUZMAN (“GUZMAN”) was a police officer, supervisor or policy maker employed by the NYPD and, as such, was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of Defendant City, under Shield No. 06312 and Tax Reg. No. 924667, and was further assigned to 33rd Precinct of the NYPD. Defendant GUZMAN is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

17. At all relevant times, Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were police officers, correction officers, supervisors, policy makers and/or officials employed by the NYPD and the NYCDOC. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names or tax registry numbers of JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, but believes such knowledge is within possession of the Defendants.

18. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, NYPD and NYCDOC. Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

19. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

20. Plaintiff filed a Notice of Claim in compliance with the General Municipal Law.

21. At least thirty (30) days have elapsed and the Office of the New York City Comptroller has not attempted or offered to adjust this claim.

22. Plaintiff has complied with the municipal defendant’s demand to sit for a hearing pursuant to GML 50-h or said demand was untimely made.

FACTUAL CHARGES

23. On July 8, 2017, at approximately 1:00 a.m., Mr. Dula was in the vicinity of 227 West 140th Street in the County and State of New York.

24. At the above stated location, Mr. Dula was illegally stopped by Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, as he had not committed any crimes or violated any other laws. Mr. Dula was a lawful passenger in a motor vehicle from which Defendants forcibly extricated him.

25. Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, approached, grabbed, assaulted, and battered Mr. Dula without any legal basis or justification for doing so, as there were no indicia of criminal activity present.

26. Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, illegally searched Mr. Dula's person. Defendants alleged that an illegal firearm was found on one of the other occupants of said motor vehicle and improperly attributed its possession to Mr. Dula.

27. Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, falsely claimed that Plaintiff possessed said illegal firearm despite knowing that he was never in possession of such.

28. Subsequent to Defendants' illegal searches of Mr. Dula's person, Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, illegally arrested Mr. Dula and charged him with criminal conduct related to unlawful possession of a firearm based on their fabricated observations and claims.

29. Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, violently contorted Plaintiff's arms behind his back in order to handcuff him.

30. Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, then applied handcuffs to Mr. Dula's person in an excessively forceful and tight fashion, which caused him to suffer substantial pain and discomfort.

31. Upon arrival at the 33rd precinct, Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, conducted or authorized an illegal, degrading, and humiliating strip search and cavity inspection of Mr. Dula's person in which they made him strip completely naked, squat to expose his anus and cough. At no time did Defendants have any reason to believe that Plaintiff had secreted any contraband into a body cavity or orifice.

32. Defendant RUPPERT signed a criminal complaint in which he affirmed the false allegations against Plaintiff.

33. Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, knowingly and intentionally gave false, misleading, or incomplete information to the District Attorney's Office, namely that Plaintiff possessed of a weapon, so that a criminal prosecution would be initiated against Mr. Dula.

34. Mr. Dula asserts that Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and detained him with the full knowledge that he committed no crimes or violations of the law.

35. No witnesses ever informed Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, that Mr. Dula had possession of weapon.

36. Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, was transported to the NYPD 33rd Precinct, New York County Central Booking and later to Riker's Island Correctional Facility.

37. Defendants, including Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, were fully aware that Plaintiff had not committed any crime or violation of the law, including Criminal Possession of a Weapon, but chose to state so anyway to justify their wrongful actions toward Plaintiff.

38. Plaintiff, therefore, asserts that due to the clear absence of any viable probable cause to warrant his detention or prosecution, at any point, he was unlawfully detained, denied his right to fair trial and maliciously prosecuted from the moment he was stopped, assaulted and battered by Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

39. Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and freedom of movement after his criminal court arraignment, because he was confined to Rikers Island until his release over two (2) years later and was nonetheless compelled to personally appear in court after his arraignment to contest the false charges levied against him.

40. Plaintiff was illegally detained and languished in unlawful incarceration at Rikers Island for more than two (2) years where he was subjected to gratuitous assaults and batteries, strip searches, countless civil rights violations and all the attendant indignities attributed to unlawful incarceration by defendants including inter alia, JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

41. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause, or failed to intervene when they observed others arresting Plaintiff without probable cause.

42. Following suppression hearings which confirmed the maliciousness of the prosecution against Plaintiff, and the illegality of his arrest, Plaintiff was thereafter released from Rikers Island on or about July 10, 2019.

43. Plaintiff continues to be maliciously prosecuted, denied his due process rights and denied his right to a fair trial as the prosecution remains ongoing.

44. Plaintiff asserts that the aforementioned unlawful acts committed by Defendants are representative of a pervasive policy, custom or pattern and practice within the City of New York and the NYPD.

45. Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized, arrested, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, due solely to Defendants' perception or consideration of Plaintiff's race, religion, or other improper characteristics.

46. Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, possessed no valid reason, whatsoever, to approach, stop, assault, batter or arrest Plaintiff, which gives rise to the strong inference that their unlawful conduct towards Plaintiff was discriminatorily motivated and enacted upon.

47. Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiff to disparate treatment compared to other individuals similarly situated, because Defendants did not stop any white individuals, who were present and similarly situated to Plaintiff.

48. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact their police officers.

49. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

50. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Attached hereto, as Exhibit A, and incorporated by reference herein, are various articles and reports detailing the magnitude and overwhelming prevalence of incidents, in which NYPD officers were caught lying, including instances that resulted in the arrest and imprisonment of innocent people. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

51. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

52. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously did not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

53. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

54. Other articles include: (i) "Testifying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police," by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) "Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs," by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) "The Drugs? They Came From the Police," by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

55. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them, especially those involving unlawful discrimination or bias. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D." This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

56. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

57. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

58. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

59. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

60. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

61. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, including RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

62. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

63. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including City, RUPPERT, ORTIZ, CRUZ, GUZMAN, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

64. As direct or proximate results of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Protected Speech or Activity Retaliation Claim Under
New York State Law

65. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

66. Plaintiff engaged in speech and activities that were protected by Article I, Section 8, of the New York State Constitution.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONMalicious Prosecution Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

125. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.
126. Defendants initiated the prosecution against Plaintiff.
127. Defendants lacked probable cause to believe Plaintiff was guilty or that the prosecution would succeed.
128. Defendants acted with malice, which, in the absence of probable cause, may be inferred.
129. The prosecution was terminated in Plaintiff's favor when all criminal charges were unconditionally dismissed and sealed.

130. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.

131. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
New York State Law

132. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

133. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated or maintained against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

134. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain or initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

135. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

136. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

137. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

138. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

139. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

140. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated or maintained against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

141. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain and initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

142. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

143. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

144. Defendants' actions deprived Plaintiff of his constitutional rights to free from illegal searches and seizures and to not be deprived of his liberty without the due process of law in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

145. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial Under
New York State Law

146. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

147. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

148. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors within the District Attorney's Office.

149. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment restrictions and deprivations upon Plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

150. Accordingly, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his civil rights, pursuant to Article I, Sections 1, 2, 6 & 9, of the New York State Constitution, as well Article II, Sections 10 & 12, of the New York Civil Rights Law.

151. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

152. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

153. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

154. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

155. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors within the District Attorney's Office.

156. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment restrictions and deprivations upon Plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

157. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's right to fair trial, pursuant to the Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to United States Constitution.

158. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Biased Based Profiling under
New York City Law

159. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

160. Defendants impermissibly relied upon Plaintiff's actual or perceived race, color, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, as the determinative factor in initiating law enforcement action against Plaintiff, rather than Plaintiff's behavior or other information or circumstances that would link Plaintiff to suspected unlawful activity.

161. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Administrative Code of the City of New York, Section 14-151

162. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

163. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
New York State law

164. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

165. Plaintiff, as a Hispanic or Latino male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

166. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation

167. Defendants also engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff, in comparison to others similarly situated.

168. Defendants' discriminatory treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or a malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

169. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

170. Defendants, motivated by discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

171. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

172. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to Article I, Section 11, of the New York State Constitution, Article VII, Section 79-N, of the New York Civil Rights Law and Section 296, Paragraph 13, of the New York Human Rights Law.

173. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

174. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983 Against Individual Defendants

175. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

176. Plaintiff, as a Hispanic or Latino male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

177. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color or ethnicity

178. Defendants engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff in comparison to others similarly situated.

179. Defendants' selective treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

180. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

181. Defendants, motivated by a discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral penal statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

182. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

183. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, under the Fourteenth Amendment.

184. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights and Failure to Prevent the Conspiracy under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985 and 1986 Against Individual Defendants

185. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

186. Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive Plaintiff of his rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, to not be deprived of his liberty or property without due process of law, or of the privileges and immunities under the laws and constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York.

187. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

188. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

189. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of his civil rights or because of some racial, otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

190. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

191. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and/or Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

192. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

193. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

194. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

195. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

196. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

197. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

198. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

199. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

200. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Due Process/Fabrication of Evidence Claim Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

201. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

202. Those Defendants deliberately fabricated evidence against the Plaintiff and that as a result of this evidence being used against him, he was deprived of his constitutional right without due process of law.

203. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States

204. The Defendants fabricated evidence in order to support their false arrest, detention and prosecution of the Plaintiff. The Defendants used this fabricated evidence and informed the prosecution that the fabricated evidence was true and accurate despite the fact that knew that the fabricated evidence was not true, As a result, the Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights.

205. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention and Supervision Under
New York State Law

206. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

207. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee Defendants.

208. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

209. Defendant City placed Defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

210. Defendant City knew or reasonably should have known of its employees' propensity for committing civil rights violations.

211. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining and supervising its employee Defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

212. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

213. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

214. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as Plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

215. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

216. Defendant City, its policymakers and supervisors failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates, to such an extent that is tantamount to the City's deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

217. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of Plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by Defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

218. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

219. Defendant City's conduct caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, via the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth & Fourteenth Amendments thereto.

220. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:
