VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff TYQUARN NOEL, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On January 7, 2021, at approximately 2:45 a.m., Plaintiff Tyquarn Noel, while lawfully in the vicinity of Fulton Street and Utica Avenue, County of Kings, New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, arrest, detention, and excessive use of force by defendant Police Officers. In doing so, defendant Police Officers injured Plaintiff's wrists, causing lacerations due to over-tight handcuffs. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Tyquarn Noel is a resident of the state of New York.

3. NYPD Police Officer Matthew Erdman, Shield No. 8314, is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.

4. NYPD Police Officer Matthew Erdman, Shield No. 8314 is being sued in their individual and official capacity.

5. Currently and at all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Officer Matthew Erdman, Shield No. 8314 was assigned to the 77th Police Precinct of the NYPD.

6. NYPD Police Officers John Does Number One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. NYPD Police Officers John Does Number One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on June 22, 2021.

12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On January 7, 2021, at approximately 2:30 a.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of Fulton Avenue and Utica Avenue, County of Kings, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully stopped, searched, arrested and detained Plaintiff without legal justification.

16. Plaintiff had just left his Aunt's house and was driving a friend to a nearby A-train subway station before going home and going to bed.

17. Plaintiff was driving his vehicle, a white 2016 BMW.

18. Defendant officers unlawfully stopped Plaintiff's vehicle via a traffic stop without lawful basis therefore.

19. Plaintiff was not violating any vehicle and traffic laws, equipment regulations, or otherwise providing officers with any lawful basis to stop his vehicle.

20. Defendant officers approached the vehicle and ordered Plaintiff and the passenger out of the vehicle.

21. Defendant officers then unlawfully searched the vehicle, including the trunk compartment, without any basis therefore.

22. Defendant officers never asked, nor did Plaintiff ever provide, any consent to search the vehicle.

23. Defendant officers likewise did not have a search warrant or other lawful basis to search the vehicle.

24. Defendant officers then grabbed Plaintiff, roughly handcuffed him and thrown into a police vehicle.

25. Defendant officers also unlawfully seized Plaintiff's vehicle and took it to the police precinct as well.

26. Despite Plaintiff's pleas for information, none of the defendant officers told him that he was being arrested, what he was being arrested for, or where he was being taken.

27. Plaintiff was transported to the 77th Police Precinct where he remained for approximately 12 hours before being transported to Central Bookings.

28. Plaintiff repeatedly told defendant officers that his handcuffs were overtight and his wrists were bleeding, but defendant officers ignored his request for medical attention.

29. Plaintiff remained at Central Booking for approximately 12 hours before he went before a Judge and was released the next morning.

30. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

31. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance, to wit, Marijuana.

32. Plaintiff suffered lacerations and contusions to his wrist as a result of the overtight handcuffs applied by defendant officers.

33. These lacerations resulted in scarring to Plaintiff's wrist even after the lacerations had healed.

34. Plaintiff recovered his vehicle days later, but it had damage from the unlawful search and seizure by defendant officers.

35. Specifically, plaintiff's vehicle's rear-seat was damaged, the carpeting was ripped up in places, and there was damage in and around the glove box area.

36. Plaintiff also missed two days of work as a result of this false arrest.

37. Plaintiff's criminal case was dismissed and sealed on March 10, 2021.

38. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

39. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

40. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.

41. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

42. The unlawful arrest, detention, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

43. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

44. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

45. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

46. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

47. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

48. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

49. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

50. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

51. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
False Imprisonment

52. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

53. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

54. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

55. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

56. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

57. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

58. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

59. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, roughly handcuffing and grabbing and throwing Plaintiff into a vehicle constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

60. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

61. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

62. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

63. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

64. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

65. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

66. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

68. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

69. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

70. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

71. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

73. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

74. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's suffered physical injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

75. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

76. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

77. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

78. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

79. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

80. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

81. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

82. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

83. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

84. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

85. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

86. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

87. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

88. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

89. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.

90. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

91. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

92. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deliberate Indifference to Medical Needs

93. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

94. Defendants despite being aware that Plaintiff was suffering the rejection of his kidney implant and required medication and additional treatment from medical professionals, delayed Plaintiff's medical treatment and refused to administer and properly procure immediate and adequate medical attention.

95. The delay in medical treatment to Plaintiff's injuries resulted in a scarring to Plaintiff that would have been prevented if Plaintiff received treatment in a timely manner.

96. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

97. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

98. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

99. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

100. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

101. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of her person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

102. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, economic and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

103. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

104. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

105. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff TYQUARN NOEL demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
