VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

----- X

Plaintiff RON BERNARD, by his attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On April 12, 2019, at approximately 4:00 p.m., plaintiff RON BERNARD, while lawfully in the vicinity of Nostrand Avenue and Sterling place, Brooklyn, New York, was subject to an unlawful search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied the right to due process and a fair trial until all charges against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed in their entirety on or about November 21, 2019. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully searched, confined, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted, and denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff RON BERNARD is a resident of the state of New York.
3. NYPD TRAFFIC AGENT ANTHONY GREENIDGE, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. NYPD TRAFFIC AGENT ANTHONY GREENIDGE, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the NYPD Traffic Agency.

5. NYPD TRAFFIC AGENT ANTHONY GREENIDGE, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

6. NYPD POLICE OFFICER MICHELLE GIGLIO, Shield No. 18126, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

7. NYPD POLICE OFFICER MICHELLE GIGLIO, Shield No. 18126, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 77th Precinct.

8. NYPD POLICE OFFICER MICHELLE GIGLIO, Shield No. 18126, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

9. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

10. Police Officer John Does Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a Police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

13. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

14. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on March 3, 2020.

15. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

16. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

17. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On April 12, 2019, at approximately 4:00 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of Nostrand Avenue and Sterling Place, Brooklyn, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully handcuffed and falsely arrested plaintiff without probable cause, or any legal justification.

19. Plaintiff was working on duty as a Lyft car driver on April 12, 2019, driving a 2016 Toyota Hybrid.

20. Plaintiff received a Lyft pickup at Sterling Place and Nostrand Avenue and responded to that location.

21. Plaintiff pulled over to the side of the street on Nostrand, in a legal parking area, to pick up his designated passenger.

22. The designated passenger from Lyft was an elderly woman and her two grandchildren.

23. The elderly woman and 2 kids were getting into Plaintiff's vehicle when the Defendant Officers pulled up behind Plaintiff's vehicle.

24. Plaintiff had TLC license plates, and a Lyft decal visibly displayed on his car.

25. The Defendant Traffic Agent approached Plaintiff's vehicle to scan his registration, but the scanner was not functioning properly, and the Defendant Traffic Agent used his radio to call for assistance.

26. The Defendant Traffic Agent's supervisor then asked the Plaintiff to step out of the vehicle and speak with him.

27. The Defendant Traffic Agent's supervisor told the Plaintiff that because the other Traffic Agent called for assistance, that they have to wait.

28. Plaintiff waited on the side of the street with the two traffic agents for more police officers to arrive.

29. The elderly Lyft passenger exited Plaintiff's vehicle and requested a new Lyft ride.

30. The Defendant Police Officers who arrived at scene immediately said, "Show me your hands" to Plaintiff.

31. Defendant Officers unlawfully handcuffed Plaintiff and transported him to the 77th Precinct.

32. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officer have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

33. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

34. At no point in time did Plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

35. Plaintiff was searched, and no contraband or anything illegal was found on him.

36. Plaintiff was transported to the 77th Precinct for processing.

37. Plaintiff was then transported to Kings County Central Bookings.

38. The defendant police officers provided the District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that plaintiff committed the violation of Obstructing Governmental Administration.

39. On April 13, 2019, after approximately 24 hours in unlawful custody, plaintiff was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court, and charged with crimes that the defendant officers had no basis to alleged that he committed.

40. Plaintiff was unlawfully charged with Obstructing Governmental Administration.

41. A Judge released Plaintiff on his own recognizance.

42. All charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on November 21, 2019.

43. Plaintiff missed multiple days of work as a Lyft driver because of the arrest and the subsequent court appearances.

44. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, falsely arresting and imprisoning, denying the right to due process and a fair trial, and maliciously prosecuting of plaintiff.

45. The unlawful, search, seizure, false arrest and imprisonment, denial of the right to a fair trial, and malicious prosecution of plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

46. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 45 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

47. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

48. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

49. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 48 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

50. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

51. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

52. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

53. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

54. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

55. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 54 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

56. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

57. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

59. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

61. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

62. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 61 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

63. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

64. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

65. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

66. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff RON BERNARD, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

67. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff RON BERNARD, sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

68. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

69. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

70. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

71. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 70 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff, Tara Wright. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

73. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

74. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

75. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

76. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

77. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

78. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 77 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

79. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

80. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

81. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 80 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

82. The defendants that did not physically touch plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

83. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

84. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

85. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

86. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

87. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

88. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

89. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 88 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

90. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the United States Constitution, State of New York and New York State common law.

91. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

92. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

93. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

94. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

95. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

96. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

97. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

98. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff RON BERNARD demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
