Plaintiff Michael McCary, by his attorney, ILISSA BROWNSTEIN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiff, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiff and malicious prosecution of plaintiff. Defendants additionally used excessive force in violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights protected by the Eighth Amendment and the state tort laws.

PARTIES

2. Michael McCary is a citizen of the United States and resident of Brooklyn, New York.
3. Police Officer Daniel Sarasy (Tax Reg #943784) is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. Police Officer Daniel Sarasy (Tax Reg #943784) is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.

5. Police Officer John Doe #1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
6. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
7. New York Police Officers John Doe #2-4 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
8. Police Officers John Doe #2-4 are being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
11. Plaintiff in furtherance of his State causes of action filed a timely (with regard to some claims) Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Municipal Law Section 50.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
13. The City of New York held a 50(H) hearing examination of the Plaintiff on May 14, 2015.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. Michael McCary is 39 years old.
15. Mr. McCary has never been convicted of a crime.
16. On January 30, 2015, at approximately 2 am on the corner of Sutphin Blvd and South Road in Queens, New York, Mr. McCary stood in a line outside of a 24-hour vendor window to purchase cigarettes at a local deli bodega with his two female friends: Lamiesha and Tee-Tee.
17. Lamiesha and Tee-Tee were talking and laughing loudly with each other.
18. Two police officers pulled up to the bodega in a patrol car and approached Mr. McCary, Lamiesha and Tee-Tee. The police officers told the trio that they were too noisy.
19. Mr. McCary told Lamiesha and Tee-Tee to keep their voices down, but they continued to talk loudly.
20. One of the police officers told them to be quiet. Mr. McCary told Lamiesha and Tee-Tee to be quiet again. At that point Mr. McCary was arrested.
21. During the arrest, the police officers twisted Mr. McCary's left hand causing a hairline fracture. Mr. McCary was treated at Jamaica Hospital prior to his arraignment.
22. Mr. McCary was incarcerated for approximately 20 hours.
23. He was given an ACD at arraignment on January 30, 2015.
24. Plaintiff filed a notice of claim in a timely manner for all claims.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF PLAINTIFF'S FOURTH AMENDMENT AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT RIGHTS

25. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 24 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
26. The individually named defendants who were acting in concert and within the scope of their authority at the NYPD arrested and caused plaintiff to be imprisoned without probable cause, maliciously prosecuted, and subjected to an assault by various officers and excessive force in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty and the right to privacy under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

27. Plaintiff repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 26 as if fully set forth herein.
28. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
29. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
30. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

ASSAULT

31. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 30 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
32. Defendants their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that he had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, and that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff. Defendant was assaulted by numerous officers.
33. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
34. The City, as the employer of defendants is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

BATTERY

35. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 34 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
36. Defendants their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of his employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiff and caused such battery. Defendant was assaulted by numerous officers.
37. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
38. The City, as the employer of Defendants is responsible for his wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

39. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 38 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
40. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

41. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 40 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
42. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
43. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
44. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to an assault, failure to provide medical treatment at a hospital when head injuries were involved, and failure to give defendant access to his inhaler or allergy medications.
45. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
46. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

47. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 46 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
48. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
49. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting him to an assault, failure to provide medical treatment at a hospital when head injuries were involved, and failure to give defendant access to his inhaler or allergy medications..
50. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
51. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
52. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

53. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 52 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
54. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
55. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
56. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

57. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 56 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
58. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States. The defendants failure to provide medical treatment at a hospital when head injuries were involved and the Plaintiff is an asthmatic and requires access to his inhaler as well as allergy medications is a common practice of the NYPD.
59. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions.
60. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
61. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
62. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and prosecuted.
63. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, MICHAEL McCARY, plaintiff, demands a judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this actions which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as appropriate under the law.
