Initial Complaint Narrative

Compl felt that she was falsely arrested because her § 87(2)(b) old child said that she pushed her out of the Compl's home and threw clothing after. The Compl denied this. Compl states her daughter was at the 115 Pct and a few Officers brought the Compl's daughter home and wrote a domestic incident report. The Officers then called ACS, and the Compl was assigned a case worker. Compl states she received a call from a Detective Fraher from the 115 Pct stating that there was a complaint against her. The Compl states her daughter ran out of the house again because she was being punished and the Compl called 911. Compl states a Lt Tolentini called her from the 115 Pct saying that he had the Compl's daughter and that the Compl must come to the Pct to get her. The Compl states her ex-husband went to pick up her daughter, and when he got there, her daughter wasn't there, she was in a hospital. Compl states the Lt called her a "drug addict" and a "alcoholic."
