Case Summary

On August 24, 2017, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with IAB via telephone (log #2017-33123).

On August 24, 2017, approximately 8:48 p.m., Police Officer Yaritza Casul and Police Officer Christine Oakley, of the 48th Precinct, with PO Stephen Brown, a police recruit, responded to § 87(2)(b), in the Bronx, after § 87(2)(b) called 911 and reported a dispute involving a knife, with his neighbor, who he knew only by the nickname “§ 87(2)(b)”. Police Officer Daniel Wynohradnyk and Police Officer Elizabeth Velazquez, of the 48th Precinct, responded as backup. After speaking to § 87(2)(b) and the building security guard, PO Casul and PO Oakley were directed to § 87(2)(b)’s neighbor’s apartment, where they stopped him in the hallway, (Allegation A and Allegation B: Abuse of Authority-Stop, exonerated), and PO Casul frisked (Allegation C: Abuse of Authority-Frisk, exonerated) and searched him (Allegation D: Abuse of Authority-Search, victim unidentified) for the knife. PO Casul ultimately determined that his neighbor had no knife, and PO Casul, PO Oakley, PO Brown, PO Wynohradnyk, and PO Velasquez left the scene.

On August 24, 2017, at approximately 9:10 p.m., § 87(2)(b) called 911 a second time, and requested a supervisor because PO Casul and PO Oakley responded to his location and did not take his report that his neighbor had a knife. PO Casul, PO Oakley, and PO Brown subsequently responded to the location, with Sergeant Brian Williams, of the 48th Precinct. After § 87(2)(b) was told again that his neighbor had no knife, § 87(2)(b) asked PO Casul and PO Oakley for their names and shield numbers, and said that he was going to go into his apartment to get a pencil and paper to record their names. In response, PO Casul, PO Oakley, and PO Brown allegedly ran away from § 87(2)(b) and never told him their names and shield numbers (Allegation E and Allegation F: Abuse of Authority-Refusal to provide name and/or shield numbers, substantiated).

On August 24, 2017, at approximately 9:50 p.m., § 87(2)(b) called 911 a third time reporting that his neighbor pulled a knife on him and PO Casul and PO Oakley responded twice to the location and did not help him. PO Casul, PO Oakley, and PO Brown subsequently responded to the location again, with Police Officer Gil Gilmore and Police Officer Rodson Gayle, also of the 48th Precinct, as backup. Upon speaking to § 87(2)(b) PO Casul and PO Oakley called for an ambulance and removed § 87(2)(b) to § 87(2)(b) (Allegation G and Allegation H: Abuse of Authority-forcible removal to hospital, exonerated).

§ 87(4-b), § 87(2)(g)

PO Casul recorded her third response to location with her body worn camera (01 Board Review). PO Oakley recorded all three responses to the location with her body worn camera (02 Board Review, 03 Board Review, and 04 Board Review).

Findings and Recommendations

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A- Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Yaritza Casul stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation B - Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Christine Oakley stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation C – Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Yaritza Casul frisked § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that prior to this incident, § 87(2)(b) called 911 (10 Board Review), and reported a dispute involving a knife. It is undisputed that PO Casul, PO Oakley, and PO Brown responded first to § 87(2)(b)'s location, and PO Wynohradnyk and PO Velazquez responded later as backup (32 Board Review).

§ 87(2)(b) said that he consumed two beers and was sitting outside of his apartment building while two security guards watched the outside area, when his neighbor, who was intoxicated, exited the building, made threatening remarks to him, and pulled out a “razor knife” (05 Board Review). § 87(2)(b) called 911, and waited outside of his building with his same neighbor for police to respond. When PO Casul, PO Oakley, PO Brown, PO Wynohradnyk, and PO Velazquez responded to § 87(2)(b)'s location, § 87(2)(b) told his building security guard to not let his neighbor into the building, but his security guard did not listen, and his neighbor ran inside as a result. § 87(2)(b) chased his neighbor back to his apartment, and officers followed behind § 87(2)(b). Upon identifying his neighbor for officers, § 87(2)(b) said that his neighbor had a knife in his pocket, and PO Casul searched § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor's pockets, but ultimately determined that § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor did not have a knife.

Upon listening to § 87(2)(b)'s first 911 call (10 Board Review), § 87(2)(b) reported that his neighbor, who was drunk, displayed a knife to him outside of his apartment building, and was still carrying the knife in his pocket (11 Board Review). § 87(2)(b) told the 911 operator that he was waiting outside, and provided a description of his neighbor. Heard in the background of the call is an unidentified individual, presumably § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor, saying, “Call them! Call them!”

Upon reviewing NYPD radio communications for this incident, at 0:10, the radio dispatcher reports a 10-10 (possible crime with a knife) at 600 East 181st Street in the Bronx, and Sector 48B confirms receipt. At 1:03, the dispatcher reports that the alleged perpetrator is a black male, 5'5", approximately 40 years old, 165 lbs., and is intoxicated (35 Board Review).

PO Casul said that she and PO Oakley responded to § 87(2)(b)'s location, with PO Brown, after receiving a radio run (33 Board Review) for a possible crime involving a knife (35 Board Review). Upon arriving at § 87(2)(b)'s location, § 87(2)(b) was standing outside of his apartment building next to the security booth at the entrance of the building (06 Board Review). Before speaking to § 87(2)(b) PO Casul and PO Oakley spoke to the building security guard, who said that he witnessed the dispute, but never saw a knife involved. PO Casul and PO Oakley then approached § 87(2)(b) and PO Casul smelled alcohol on § 87(2)(b). PO Casul asked § 87(2)(b) about the dispute with his neighbor, and § 87(2)(b) directed PO Casul, PO Oakley, and PO Brown to his neighbor's apartment, where they met § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor. § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor opened his apartment door, and voluntarily stepped into the hallway wearing basketball shorts and a t-shirt. PO Casul smelled alcohol again, coming from § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor. PO Casul looked for the alleged knife by patting down § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor, and determined that § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor had no knife on his person. PO Casul then asked § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor about his dispute with § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2) and § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor said that he and § 87(2)(b) had a dispute because he observed § 87(2)(b) panhandling outside of their building, and became angry with § 87(2)(b) for panhandling. With this explanation, coupled with the fact that she found no knife, PO Casul told § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor to stay away from one another for the remainder of the evening because they both smelled of alcohol. In response to PO Casul, § 87(2)(b) asked that a police report be filed regarding the dispute, and PO Casul and PO Oakley told § 87(2)(b) that they would not file a report because they had never found a knife on § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor.

§ 87(2)(g)
PO Oakley never said that she smelled alcohol on § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor upon first encountering him, but PO Oakley noted that when § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor opened his apartment door, § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor appeared visibly intoxicated. In addition to PO Casul patting down § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor, PO Casul also asked § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor if he had a knife, and § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor said that he did not have a knife. After PO Casul determined that § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor did not have a knife, § 87(2)(b) stated continuously that his neighbor did have a knife, and that he wanted PO Casul and PO Oakley to file a police report.

(08 Board Review)

Upon reviewing PO Oakley's body worn camera footage from this incident, PO Casul, at 00:31, is seen searching inside of § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor's pant pockets for a knife (09 Board Review). At 00:35, PO Casul says to § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor, "Why did you run when you saw us?" § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor replies, "I didn't run. You see me run? I live here." PO Casul replies, "I'm trying to talk to you like a regular person. Why you gotta yell at me?" At 00:44, § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor takes his hands off the wall and puts them by his side. PO Casul replies, "Keep your hands up," and § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor puts his hands against the wall. At 00:47, PO Casul says to § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor, "I'm doing this because this man says you have a knife," and pats down his torso and shoulders. At 00:52, PO Wynohradnyk and PO Velazquez arrive as backup. At 00:54, PO Casul appears to not find any knife on § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor's body and says to him, "Alright, stand right there."

People v. Gonzalez 138 A.D.2d 622 (1988) held that an eyewitness-victim of a crime can provide probable cause for arrest of his assailant despite the fact that his reliability has not been previously established or his information corroborated (24 Board Review). Furthermore, the court held that probable cause is established absent materially impeaching circumstances, where the victim of an offense communicates to the arresting officer information affording a credible ground for believing the offense was committed and identifies the accused as the perpetrator.

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation A, Allegation B, and Allegation C be exonerated.

Allegation D – Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Yaritza Casul searched § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) said that PO Casul searched inside of his neighbor's pockets after he alleged that his neighbor had a knife. PO Casul acknowledged patting down § 87(2)(b)'s neighbor to look for the knife (see Allegation C), which was consistent with PO Oakley's statement, but denied searching him. However, PO Oakley's body worn camera footage (see Snagit clip above) captures PO Casul reaching inside of § 87(2)(b)'s neighbors pockets.

§ 87(2)(b)'s neighbor was unable to be interviewed because § 87(2)(b) had no knowledge of his name and only knew him as "Wise." Attempts to contact § 87(2)(b) and the housing community that § 87(2)(b) and his neighbor lived in to identify his neighbor's legal name or contact information for his neighbor were unsuccessful (see IAs for contact attempts).

it is recommended that Allegation D be closed as victim unidentified.

Allegation E- Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Yaritza Casul refused to provide her name and shield number to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation F- Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Christine Oakley refused to provide her name and shield number to § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that after officers left the scene after responding to § 87(2)(b)'s first 911 call (10 Board Review), § 87(2)(b) called 911 a second time regarding the same complaint (12 Board Review), and PO Casul and PO Oakley responded again to § 87(2)(b)'s location, with PO Brown, and Sgt. Brian Williams (32 Board Review). It is undisputed that after PO Casul, PO Oakley, and PO Brown left the scene after responding a second time, § 87(2)(b) called 911 a third time (14 Board Review).

§ 87(2)(b) said he was standing inside of his doorway when PO Casul and PO Oakley responded to his location for the second time (05 Board Review). After speaking to PO Casul and PO Oakley again, § 87(2)(b) was told again that no knife was found and his neighbor would therefore not be arrested. In response, § 87(2)(b) said to PO Casul and PO Oakley, "I'm going to go get a pencil and paper. I want your name and your badge number," In response to § 87(2)(b) PO Casul and PO Oakley looked at § 87(2)(b) in silence, and § 87(2)(b) went to get a piece of paper from inside of his apartment. When § 87(2)(b) returned to his doorway, PO Casul, PO Oakley, and PO Brown were gone, leading § 87(2)(b) to believe that they ran away after he asked them for their names and shields.

Upon reviewing § 87(2)(b)'s third 911 call (14 Board Review), § 87(2)(b) reported after the same officers responded to his location regarding his second 911 call, he asked officers for their names and shield numbers, and in response to § 87(2)(b)'s request, officers left the scene (15 Board Review).

PO Casul said that after she and PO Oakley responded to § 87(2)(b)'s second 911 call, they went to § 87(2)(b)'s apartment, and § 87(2)(b) was standing in the hallway outside of the apartment (06 Board Review). § 87(2)(b) stood in front of his apartment door and yelled at PO Casul and PO Oakley. § 87(2)(b) said to PO Casul and PO Oakley, "You are guys are going to see me again. I want your name and your shield." PO Casul pointed to her shield and name plate and said to § 87(2)(b) "Look, it is right here," while § 87(2)(b) simultaneously walked into his apartment and shut the door behind him. § 87(2)(b) never said that he was going into his apartment to get a pen and paper to write down officers' names. PO Casul and PO Oakley waited outside of § 87(2)(b)'s apartment door with PO Brown for approximately two to three minutes, and § 87(2)(b) never came back into the hallway, leading PO Casul and PO Oakley to believe that § 87(2)(b) was never coming back out. PO Casul and PO Oakley subsequently went back to the building lobby.

PO Oakley said that after she and PO Casul responded to § 87(2)(b)'s second 911 call, § 87(2)(b) told PO Oakley and PO Casul, that he was going to get a pencil and paper to write down their names and shield numbers (07 Board Review). In response to § 87(2)(b) PO Oakley pointed to her nameplate and shield, and said, "My name is right here." § 87(2)(b) then walked into his apartment and shut the door behind him. PO Oakley did not see PO Casul point to her nameplate or her shield, but PO Casul never ran away. After § 87(2)(b) closed his apartment door, PO Oakley, PO Casul, and PO Brown waited outside of § 87(2)(b)'s door for approximately one to two minutes for § 87(2)(b) to come back out of his apartment. § 87(2)(b) did not come back out, so PO Oakley and PO Casul left the scene with PO Brown.

(16 Board Review)

Upon reviewing PO Oakley's body worn camera footage after responding to § 87(2)(b)'s second 911 call, § 87(2)(b) at 3:55 (17 Board Review), says to PO Oakley, "What's they name, what's your name?" At 3:56, PO Brown looks at PO Oakley, and PO Oakley says, "My name is right here." At 3:59, § 87(2)(b) says to PO Oakley, "Let me get a pencil. I want to write it down. I want to talk about you. You won't get by with this. I'll get your neck, sista." At 4:05, PO Brown looks at PO Oakley, and PO Oakley says to § 87(2)(b) "You done?" At 4:07, § 87(2)(b) replies to PO Oakley, "You won't get by with this. I'll get your neck. I bet you money on that. You won't get by with this." At 4:14, PO Casul says to § 87(2)(b) "I don't know what you're saying." At 4:19, PO Casul says, "Let's go downstairs," and walks to the stairwell door inside of the hallway, opens it, and the video ends.

Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09 states that an officer must courteously and clearly state their name, rank, shield number, and command to anyone who requests it, and to allow the person ample time to note this information (36 Board Review).

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Therefore, it is recommended that Allegations E and F be substantiated.

Allegation G - Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Yaritza Casul forcibly removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.

Allegation H - Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Christine Oakley forcibly removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.

It is undisputed that after PO Casul, PO Oakley, and PO Brown left the scene after responding to § 87(2)(b)'s second 911 call, § 87(2)(b) called 911 a third (14 Board Review) time, requesting that officers respond to his location regarding his initial complaint about his neighbor. It is undisputed that after § 87(2)(b) called 911, § 87(2)(b) called 911 two additional times to follow up on officers whereabouts, and PO Casul, PO Oakley, PO Brown, PO Gayle, and PO Gilmore responded to § 87(2)(b)'s location after § 87(2)(b) had called 911 a total of five times (32 Board Review). It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) was ultimately removed to the hospital.

§ 87(2)(b) said that after PO Casul and PO Oakley ran away with PO Brown after he asked their names, he called 911 again, and requested that more officers respond because PO Oakley and PO Casul were acting like “idiots,” (06 Board Review). Approximately five minutes after § 87(2)(b) placed this call, PO Casul, PO Oakley, PO Brown, PO Gilmore, and PO Gayle arrived outside of § 87(2)(b)'s apartment building, with an ambulance with them. § 87(2)(b) told the officers, “I know what you’re up to and it isn’t right,” and they told him that he had to go to the hospital, but did not tell him why he had to go. § 87(2)(b) did make additional statements to officers when they told him this, but § 87(2)(b) had no recollection of what he said because he was inebriated. § 87(2)(b) went willingly into the ambulance, and although EMTs tried to help § 87(2)(b) into the ambulance, § 87(2)(b) told them he did not need help, and entered on his own. PO Brown and PO Oakley escorted § 87(2)(b) to § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stayed in the hospital for approximately 10 hours, and during that time period, § 87(2)(b) called 911 twice, from inside of the hospital. § 87(2)(b) was discharged the following day. § 87(2)(b)

Upon reviewing § 87(2)(b)'s 911 calls, approximately 23 minutes after § 87(2)(b) made his third 911 call requesting that different officers respond to his location, § 87(2)(b) called 911 a fourth (18 Board Review) and a fifth (19 Board Review) time, within a four minute time period. During § 87(2)(b)'s fourth 911 call, § 87(2)(b) said that he had called 911 twice because he had been threatened with a knife, and the same officers who responded to his location both times, left when he asked them for their names and shield numbers. § 87(2)(b) told the 911 operator that these same officers were already waiting outside of his apartment building (33 Board Review). During § 87(2)(b)'s fifth 911 call, § 87(2)(b) told the 911 operator that he had called 911 five times already, that he was not injured, and that his neighbor was going to “cut him up,” (34 Board Review).

PO Casul said that when she responded back to § 87(2)(b)'s location, for the third time, with PO Oakley, PO Brown, PO Gilmore, and PO Gayle, § 87(2)(b) was seated on the ledge outside of his apartment building (06 Board Review). PO Casul approached § 87(2)(b) and asked him why he kept calling, told him to stay away from his neighbor who he thought had a knife, and told him that he and his neighbor were both inebriated. PO Casul called for an ambulance because § 87(2)(b) was intoxicated and PO Casul had observed that § 87(2)(b) was increasingly agitated each time officers responded to his location. PO Casul feared § 87(2)(b) would become aggressive, and cause harm to his neighbor and officers. PO Casul told § 87(2)(b) that she was going to call § 87(2)(b) an ambulance, and § 87(2)(b) thrashed his arms and said that he would not go to the hospital. In response, § 87(2)(b) told PO Casul to "Shut up," and told her that she had a "Big mouth." Once the ambulance arrived, § 87(2)(b) walked willingly into the ambulance and was escorted to § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(g)

PO Oakley said that before the ambulance was called, § 87(2)(b) told PO Casul that PO Casul did not know how to speak to people, that PO Casul did not like black people, and that she was not doing her job. Once the ambulance arrived, PO Oakley and PO Brown escorted § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.

2018-02-23_16-54-38.mp4

(25 Board Review)

Upon reviewing PO Casul's body worn camera footage from § 87(2)(b)'s removal to the hospital, between 0:00 and 0:57, § 87(2)(b) is seen sitting, making no statements, on a sidewalk outside of his apartment building. At 0:57, after PO Casul addresses § 87(2)(b) from 0:57 to 9:53, § 87(2)(b) proceeds to have an ongoing dialogue with officers. During this time, § 87(2)(b) repeatedly states that he is in danger, that officers need to arrest his neighbor and will continue to call 911, that officers never listen to him, that officers always remove him to the hospital, and that he will not be treated in the way officers treat him.

At 9:53, PO Casul says to a female EMT, "He called us originally because he said a man took out a knife on him. We searched the man, there's no knife on him. He's drunk, he's aggressive," (26 Board Review). At 10:18, PO Casul says to § 87(2)(b) "You gonna walk to the ambulance?" § 87(2)(b) says, "Yeah, where you waitin' at?" PO Casul and the EMT say to § 87(2)(b) "Its right over there." At 10:33, § 87(2)(b) says, "Now you take me where you want to take me but god-dammit you'll hear from me when I get out." PO Casul says, "Alright, ambulance." At 10:39, § 87(2)(b) walks willingly toward the ambulance, without assistance. PO Casul, PO Brown, and the other officers walk behind § 87(2)(b) and the female EMT and the male EMT walk in front of him. At 10:45, § 87(2)(b) says, "Bunch of sorry ass motherfuckers. Every time I call you pull this bullshit. Send me to the hospital and don't do a damn thing. But you'll hear from me when I get out. You won't get away with this." At 11:21, the female EMT opens the doors to the ambulance and at 11:23, § 87(2)(b) steps into the ambulance.

PO Oakley's body worn camera footage from the scene is consistent with PO Casul's footage (28 Board Review).

Patrol Guide Procedure 221-13 states if an emotionally disturbed person's actions constitute immediate threat of serious physical injury or death to himself or others, police should take reasonable measures to terminate or prevent such behavior. PG 221-13 further states that if an EDP is unarmed, not violent, and is willing to leave voluntarily, an EDP May be taken into custody without the specific direction of a supervisor (29 Board Review).
